PUBLICATIONS

of the

Linguistic Society of America

Complete regular publications, 1925 to date, including LANGUAGE and Supplements: per annum $5.00
LANGUAGE, separate numbers: each $1.50

As Supplements to LANGUAGE, the Linguistic Society of America issues two series of occasional publications, LANGUAGE MONOGRAPHS and LANGUAGE DISSERTATIONS. These are included in the subscription price of the journal, but may also be purchased separately. A complete list of titles and prices may be secured from the Secretary of the Society.

LANGUAGE MONOGRAPHS

In this series the Society publishes studies too long to appear as articles in the journal LANGUAGE.

LANGUAGE DISSERTATIONS

In this series the Society publishes dissertations which have been accepted for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in American universities, provided that in the Editor's opinion the dissertations are upon linguistic subjects. The Society does not pass upon the scholarly merit of the dissertations nor upon the validity of their conclusions.

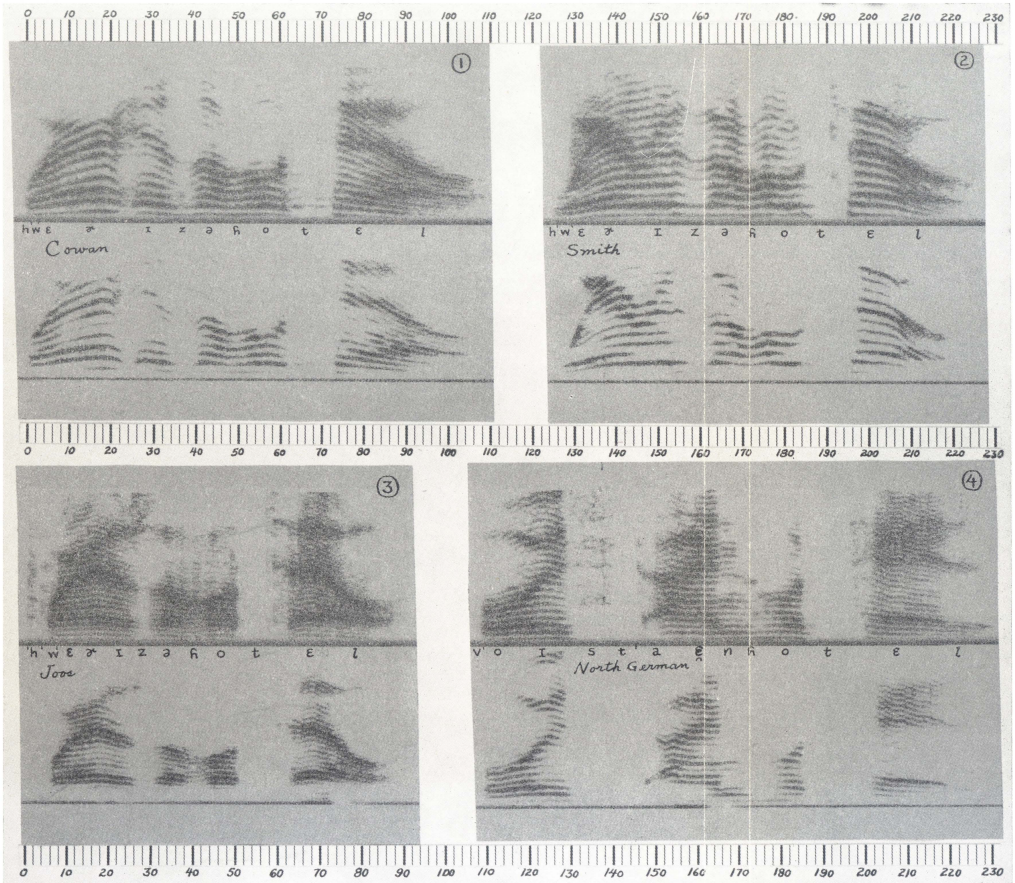

The method of application for admission to either of these two series, and the terms of publication, may be secured from the Secretary of the Society.

SPECIAL PUBLICATIONS

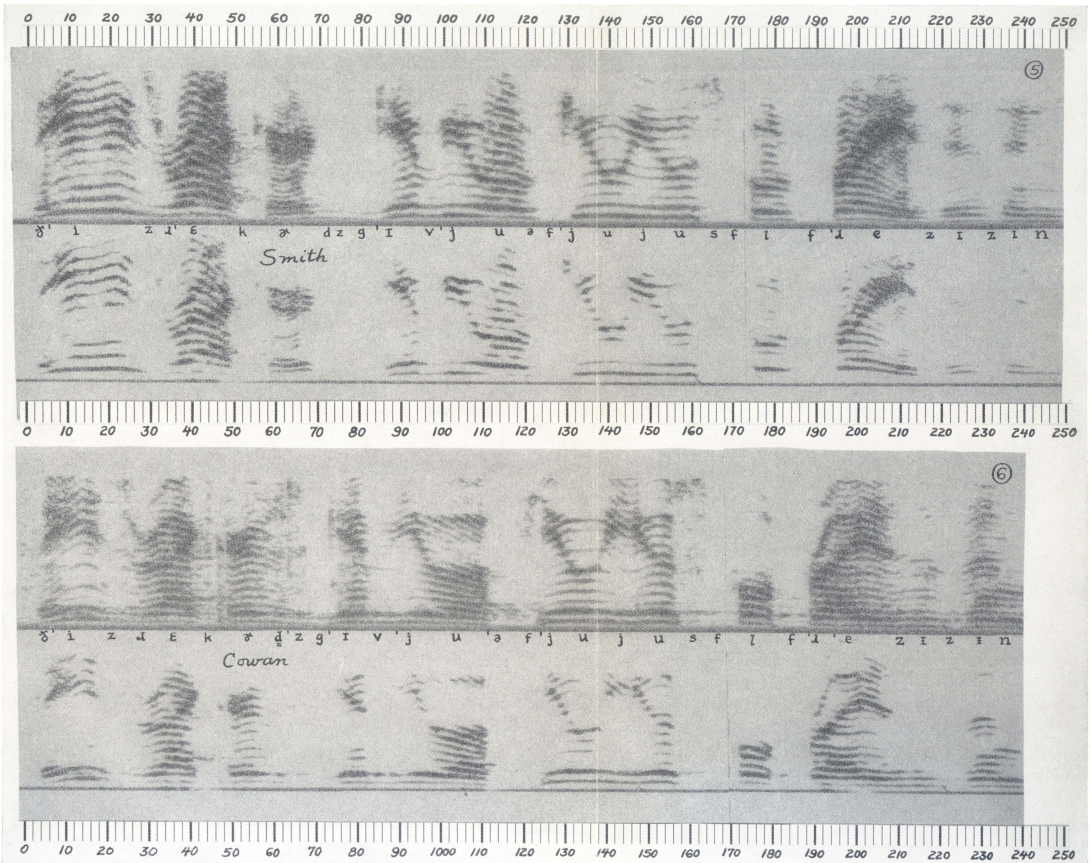

In addition to its regular publications (the journal LANGUAGE and the two series of Supplements named above) the Linguistic Society of America issues from time to time SPECIAL PUBLICATIONS in the field of linguistic science. These are not included in the subscription price of the journal, but may be purchased at a discount by members of the Society. Titles and prices are listed in full on the inside back cover.
