Aims & Scope

The European Review is a unique interdisciplinary international journal covering a wide range of subjects. It has a strong emphasis on Europe and on economics, history, social science, and general aspects of the sciences. At least two issues each year are devoted mainly or entirely to a single subject and deal in depth with a topic of contemporary importance in Europe; the other issues cover a wide range of subjects but may include a mini-review. Past issues dealt with Brexit and its Implications for European Integration, Brain Computer Interfaces for Silent Speech, Evolution as Physics: The Human & Machine Species, The Crisis in the Humanities and 'Invented Tradition', The Internationalization of Higher Education, Can we tackle the Antibiotic Threat?, How
