Contents

ARTICLES

1–21 Sex in the Shadow of the Law: Regulating Sex Work and Human Trafficking in Singapore
Ben CHAPMAN-SCHMIDT

23–52 The Revival of the Right to Property in India
Tom ALLEN

53–79 Human Rights, Legal Pluralism, and the Freedom of Religion in Malaysia
Samuel D. BLANCH

81–97 The Difference that Religion Makes: Transplanting Legal Ideas from the West to Japan and India
Prakash SHAH

99–135 Rethinking Judicial Independence in India and Sri Lanka
Rehan ABEYRATNE

137–151 Law and Tradition in a Socialist Market Economy: Haunted House Litigation in China
Simona NOVARETTI

153–184 The Role of the Constitutional Tribunal in Myanmar's Reform Process
Gabriela MARTI

BOOK REVIEWS

185–187 Asian Data Privacy Laws: Trade and Human Rights Perspectives
Graham GREENLEAF (Reviewed by Simon CHESTERMAN)

187–189 Nation and Family: Personal Law, Cultural Pluralism, and Gendered Citizenship in India
Narendra SUBRAMANIAN (Reviewed by Juliette DUARA)

https://doi.org/10.1017/asjcl.2015.13 Published online by Cambridge University Press