Founded in 1954, the Business History Conference (BHC) is a non-profit organization devoted to encouraging all aspects of the research, writing, and teaching of business history and of the environment in which business operates. Its membership is international and representative of economists, historians, and those in allied fields, such as history of technology, accounting, labor, transportation, and government, who focus on business history as a means of understanding their subjects.

MEMBERSHIP

Persons interested in joining the Business History Conference should contact the Secretary-Treasurer: Roger Horowitz, Hagley Museum and Library, P.O. Box 3630, Wilmington, DE 19807-0630; Fax: 302-655-3188; e-mail: rh@udel.edu.

Complete information about the Business History Conference may be found on the organization's Web pages at www.thebhc.org.

Business and Economic History, the proceedings volume of the Business History Conference, was published through 1999 (Volume 28). For the 2000 annual meeting and thereafter, the presidential address and dissertation summaries will appear in the fourth issue of Enterprise & Society. Full text of the papers presented at each meeting will be made available in the BHC's online version of BEH on its Web site.

Visit the Web sites: www.es.oxfordjournals.org and www.thebhc.org/publications/eanshome.html.

LICENSE

It is a condition of publication in the journal that authors grant an exclusive license to the Business History Conference. This ensures that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. Authors may use their own material in other publications provided that the journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication and Oxford University Press as the publisher.
