The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A most cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg emphasizes the importance of cultivating a clear and engaging prose style. He not only provides a typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

$7.95 paper
56 pages
ISBNs: 1-934084-04-2
978-1-934084-04-5

Under pressure of disbarment this book should be read and understood by every lawyer, most of whom forget they, and the judges who read their miserable briefs, are human beings.

— Gerry Spence

A remarkable and concise roadmap to more effective, intelligible and persuasive legal writing. An invaluable desktop resource.

— Theodore B. Olson

Theodore L. Blumberg practices corporate and entertainment law in Manhattan. A graduate of Temple University School of Law, he is a frequent contributor to The New York Law Journal and a lecturer in the Fahringer seminars in legal writing.

MODERN Drama

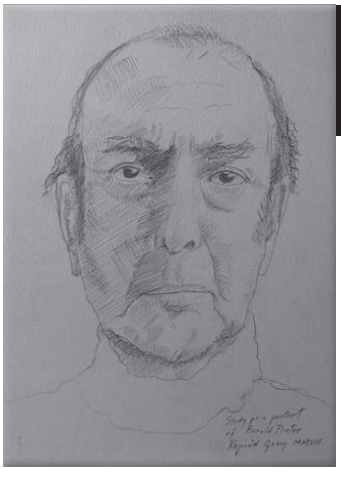

Special Issue
Slavery's Reinventions (62.4, Winter 2019)

Addressing the deficit in critical and theoretical literatures, the essays in this special issue examine the aesthetic, affective, and phenomenological properties of theatrical reinventions of slavery. Contributors seek to explain the shifts and tendencies in American theatre culture's longstanding investment in slavery as both subject and setting. The issue also features the previously unpublished play How Time Flies by Pauline E. Hopkins.

Edited by Douglas A. Jones, Jr., the issue includes contributions by Sandy Alexandre, Soyica Colbert, Margo Natalie Crawford, Gabrielle Everett, Shane Graham, Marvin McAllister, Stacie Selmon McCormick, and Tina Post.

Read this special issue online at: http://bit.ly/md-62-4.

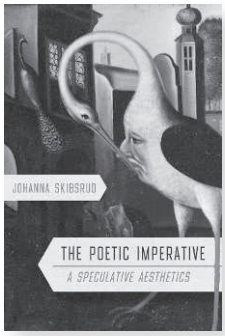

CALL FOR PAPERS
New Approaches to Harold Pinter
(Special Issue Fall 2021)

This special issue of Modern Drama seeks essays that demonstrate new approaches to Harold Pinter's plays. We seek submissions that take an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Pinter, including, but not limited to, affect theory, archival research, ecological humanities, legal humanities, medical humanities, neuro/psycholinguistics, post-colonialism, post-structuralism, or textual genetics. We also invite submissions that address specific topics or questions, such as how renewed attention to playwrights marginalized during Pinter's lifetime leads us to reassess Pinter's treatment of gender, race, class, and ethnicity.

For full call for papers and submission information, visit: http://bit.ly/MDPcfp.

The Poetic Imperative
A Speculative Aesthetics
Johanna Skibsrud
9780228001706 Cloth $29.95

"The Poetic Imperative is a beautifully written book that touches on some of the key debates in the study of poetry and poetics today. It presents an admirably diverse mix of poetry and critical sources and displays a virtuosic temporal and cultural range."
–Rachel Galvin, University of Chicago

Uninvited
Talking Back to Plato
Carrie Jenkins and Carla Nappi
9780228001317 Cloth $24.95

Historian Carla Nappi and philosopher Carrie Jenkins talk back to Plato in poetry, inspired by the voices of women characters who were not previously permitted to speak. Images and ideas from Symposium are refracted through multiple lenses to reveal a tumult of mystical, intellectual, pedagogical, and sexual ideologies.

Collected Poems of Bronwen Wallace
Edited by Carolyn Smart
9780228001874 Cloth $39.95

Bronwen Wallace was recognized in the last decade of her short life as a major Canadian poet and a significant figure in the growth of the feminist movement. Carolyn Smart's introduction and notes, along with a bibliography that catalogues the scholarly and literary responses to Wallace's work, supplement this long-awaited collection.
