BULLETIN OF THE HEGEL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Bulletin is the journal of the Hegel Society of Great Britain. It is a peer-reviewed journal that accepts articles in English in the field of Hegel studies. The field is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's relation to the history of philosophy, Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry, Hegel and modern European philosophy, German Idealism, British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, Hegel and reception history studies. Articles sent for consideration must be anonymised, a hard copy and an electronic copy are both required. Guidelines for prospective contributors are posted in our website. Upon acceptance, authors are sent a style-sheet, which can also be found on our website: http://www. hegel-society.org.uk The copyright of material published in the Bulletin is retained by the individual authors.

Please send articles for review to the Editor: Dr Katerina Deligiorgi, Department of Philosophy, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton BN1 9QN, UK email: K.Deligiorgi@sussex.ac.uk

Please send books for review to the Reviews editor: Dr Karin De Boer, Department of Philosophy, University of Groningen, Oude Boteringestraat 52, 9712 GL Groningen, The Netherlands. The Bulletin has a strong tradition of book reviewing in English, German, French and Italian. Publishers and prospective reviewers please contact the Reviews editor at k.g.de.boer@rug.nl

The Bulletin appears twice yearly (Spring/Summer and Autumn/Winter) or once a year as a double issue. Annual subscription is £12 (£6 for students) and includes postage and second class mail in Britain and airmail to Europe. Library subscriptions are £15. Subscriptions outside Europe, which include airmail postage, are US$17 (libraries $24). A Paypal option is available on our website. Advertisements are welcome and should be submitted electronically. The charge is £50 per page.
