2024; respectively.

APSA staff continue to be physically in the office two days a week since July 2022 and hybrid for the remainder of the week. APSA's 2024 Annual Budget is again estimated for essentially no profit or loss for the year. We are also pleased to announce that all idle space in both buildings which APSA owns is now 100% occupied at current market rates, which is expected to provide more than $280,000 in tenant rental income for 2024 and beyond.

SUMMARY

Overall, APSA remains in a very strong financial position with ample resources for continued operations. Members with questions about APSA finances should contact Stephen Stoupa, Director of Finance and Administration at sstoupa@apsanet.org or Steven Rathgeb Smith, Executive Director at smithsr@apsanet.org. ■

BOOKS BY OUR MEMBERS

Building Bridges in Toxic Political Times: A Road Map for Community Leaders
Dick Batchelor

Dbmg Publishing

The Transformation of the Republican Party
Jeffrey M. Stonecash

Lynne Rienner Publishers

Missouri Politics: Government in the Show-Me State
Elizabeth Dorssom

Kendall Hunt Publishing Company

© AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION 2024

https://doi.org/10.1017/psj.2024.73 Published online by Cambridge University Press