VIRGINIA

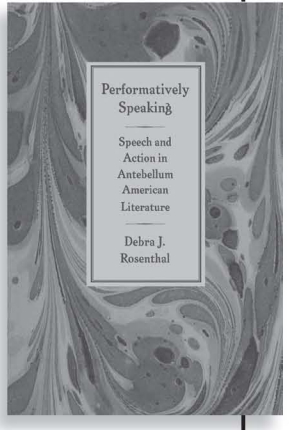

Prose Immortality, 1711–1819
Jacob Sider Jost
$45.00 | CLOTH | WINNER OF THE WALKER COWEN MEMORIAL PRIZE FOR AN OUTSTANDING WORK OF SCHOLARSHIP IN EIGHTEENTH-CENTURY STUDIES
"Exceptionally well written, Prose Immortality, 1711–1819 is unfailingly clear, lively, and engaging. It presents its most complex ideas—concerning, say, theological controversy about the state of the soul after death—with grace and concision."
—Adam Potkay, College of William and Mary

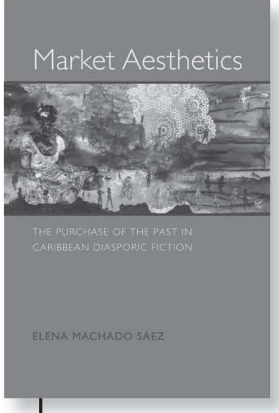

Failed Frontiersmen
White Men and Myth in the Post-Sixties American Literature
James J. Donahue
$27.50 | PAPER | CULTURAL FRAMES, FRAMING CULTURE | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
James Donahue shows how contemporary American male writers in the romance tradition engage with frontier mythology and expose its failure to deliver on its promises of cultural stability and political advancement, especially in the wake of the 1960s.

Dancing with Disaster
Environmental Histories, Narratives, and Ethics for Perilous Times
Kate Rigby
$24.50 | PAPER | UNDER THE SIGN OF NATURE
"Dancing with Disaster affiliates itself meaningfully with recent turns toward active matter, material feminist, and material ecocritical theory, and interprets a series of texts through a natural-cultural lens that not only yields a series of excellent close readings of diverse texts but also makes those readings innovative and instructive in a number of ways."
—Frederick Buell, CUNY Queens

Performatively Speaking
Speech and Action in Antebellum American Literature
Debra J. Rosenthal
$24.50 | PAPER
Drawing on speech act theory as an approach to antebellum American fiction by Melville, Hawthorne, Stowe, and others, Debra Rosenthal shows how words in this literature not only represent action but also constitute it.

Market Aesthetics
The Purchase of the Past in Caribbean Diasporic Fiction
Elena Machado Sáez
$29.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | MODERN LANGUAGE INITIATIVE
Adopting a comparative methodology considering literary trends across Canada, Britain, and the United States and a multilingual focus on literatures of the Caribbean diaspora, Elena Machado Sáez shows how the multicultural book market both facilitates and undermines the historical revisions at the heart of this fiction.

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory invites you to apply for its 2015 Summer Session, June 14 - July 24

"The SCT combines a relentless schedule of events with a pervasive spirit of conviviality."
Martin Moraw, Brandeis University

"In this community of critics, away from the familiar ecology of one's home institution, one is offered new ways of seeing, new questions, new connections."
David Russell, Princeton University

"One of the most enriching intellectual experiences of my academic life."
Karine Côté-Boucher, York University

"Six weeks in Ithaca gave me many moments of hopefulness: I made extraordinary friends; I found space, seven years into a faculty position, to think and to argue without the pressure of writing or publication."
Andrew van der Vlies, Queen Mary, University of London

Hent de Vries, Director
Russ Family Professor in the Humanities and Philosophy, Director of The Humanities Center, Johns Hopkins University

The Program
In an intensive six-week course of study, participants from around the world, across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, explore recent developments in critical theory.

Tuition
The fee for the session is $2700. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Admission
We welcome applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide. Applications must be submitted online by February 1, and admissions decisions are announced in March.

For online application and program information:

New fiction from PENGUIN PUBLISHING GROUP

THOMAS PIERCE

HALL OF SMALL MAMMALS

Stories

"Explore[s] the ordinary in the otherworldly, the surreal in the mundane, and the results are stunning and unexpected....Pierce is an endlessly incisive and engaging writer. It's a book full of wisdom and emotion, with stories that explore what it means to live and die in a world filled with invisible things."—NPR.

Riverhead • 304 pp. • 978-1-59463-252-5 • $27.95

DAVID TREUER

PRUDENCE

In this haunting novel about love, loss, race, and desire in World War II-era America, a bombardier's trip home to Minnesota coincides with a German soldier's escape from a nearby POW camp. "Wondrous…intricate, seductive, and wholly gratifying."—Toni Morrison.

Riverhead • 272 pp. • 978-1-59463-308-9 • $27.95

PHIL KLAY

REDEPLOYMENT

"Klay—a veteran of the United States Marine Corps who served in Iraq during the surge—gives the civilian reader a visceral feeling for what it is like to be a soldier…. Unsparing and fiercely observed, these stories leave us with a harrowing sense of the war in Iraq as it was experienced, day by day."—The New York Times.

Penguin • 304 pp. • 978-0-14-312682-9 • $16.00

2014 National Book Award Winner

ROSS RITCHELL

THE KNIFE

"[Ritchell] uses personal experience to write a novel that paints war as a complicated, exhausting, gut-wrenching ordeal….In 2014, the short stories in Phil Klay's Redeployment were heralded as some of the most authentic wartime writing in our ever-changing post-9/11 world. In 2015, The Knife, another literary masterpiece, deserves the same praise."—Chicago Tribune.

Blue Rider Press • 272 pp. • 978-0-399-17340-0 • $25.95

MO YAN

FROG

Translated by Howard Goldblatt

"An anarchic, brutal book about the inhumanity of servants of the Communist state, the inadequacy of Chinese men, and the moral vacuum at the heart of post-Mao China."—The New York Times Book Review.

Viking • 480 pp. • 978-0-525-42798-8 • $27.95

HELEN OYEYEMI

BOY, SNOW, BIRD

"By transforming 'Snow White' into a tale that hinges on race and cultural ideas about beauty—the danger of mirrors indeed—Oyeyemi finds a new, raw power in the classic….[She] elegantly and inventively turns a classic fairy tale inside out."—Los Angeles Times.

Riverhead • 336 pp. • 978-1-59463340-9 • $16.00

LUDMILLA PETRUSHEVSKAYA

THERE ONCE LIVED A MOTHER WHO LOVED HER CHILDREN, UNTIL THEY MOVED BACK IN

Three Novellas About Family

Translated with an Introduction by Anna Summers

"[This] book is the third in a series of translations of the work of a 76-year-old Russian writer whose corrosively grim fiction, suppressed until the 1980s, now inspires comparisons with greats from Chekhov to Solzhenitsyn. To say it stuns is an understatement."—The Atlantic.

Penguin • 208 pp. • 978-0-14-312166-4 • $16.00

MARLON JAMES

A BRIEF HISTORY OF SEVEN KILLINGS

"A strange and wonderful novel….James's chronicle of late 20th-century Jamaican politics and gang wars manages consistently to shock and mesmerise at the same time."—The Economist.

"An exhilaratingly modern edition"

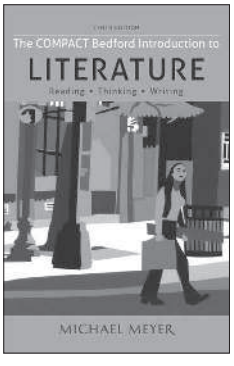

The Bedford Shakespeare

Russ McDonald, Goldsmiths College, University of London
Lena Cowen Orlin, Georgetown University

Finally, the collected works you've been waiting for: visual, historical, contextualized. Based on the New Cambridge Shakespeare edition of the text, The Bedford Shakespeare gathers the 25 most frequently taught plays and augments them with the rich historical and contextual materials you expect from Bedford/St. Martin's. Russ McDonald and Lena Cowen Orlin offer students concrete entry points into the plays and creates opportunities for lively classroom discussion. A lavish collection of images throughout the book features production shots, paintings, film stills, Renaissance woodcuts, maps, and more, to help students visualize what they are reading.

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature

Reading • Thinking • Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature draws classic works from many periods and cultures appearing alongside the best from today's authors. Critical reading and writing support, helpful close readings, writing assignments, and student papers offer more support than comparable anthologies. Lots of options for working with the literature include in-depth chapters on major authors like Flannery O'Connor and Emily Dickinson and a new chapter created in collaboration with Dagoberto Gilb showcasing literature as a living art form.

A Revolution in American Literature

Conversations in American Literature
Language, Rhetoric, Culture
Robin Dissin Aufses, Lycée Français de New York
Renee H. Shea, Bowie State University, MD
Lawrence Scanlon, Brewster High School, NY

Teachers have struggled for years to balance the competing demands of American Literature and AP English Language. Now, the team that brought you the bestselling Language of Composition is here to help. Conversations in American Literature is a new kind of American Literature anthology—putting nonfiction on equal footing with the traditional fiction and poetry, and emphasizing the skills of rhetoric, close reading, argument, and synthesis. Whether you're teaching AP English Language, or gearing up for Common Core, Conversations in American Literature will help you revolutionize the way American literature is taught.

The Bedford Introduction to Literature
Reading, Thinking, Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Bedford Introduction to Literature is a best-seller for a reason: It brings literature to life for students, helping to make them lifelong readers and better writers. Classic works drawn from many periods and cultures appear alongside a strong showing from today's notable authors. There is plenty of support for students, with a dozen chapters on critical reading and writing, helpful sample close readings, writing assignments, and student papers.

The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A most cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg emphasizes the importance of cultivating a clear and engaging prose style. He not only provides a typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

$7.95 paper
56 pages
ISBNs: 1-934084-04-2
978-1-934084-04-5

Under pressure of disbarment this book should be read and understood by every lawyer, most of whom forget they, and the judges who read their miserable briefs, are human beings.

— Gerry Spence

A remarkable and concise roadmap to more effective, intelligible and persuasive legal writing. An invaluable desktop resource.

— Theodore B. Olson

Theodore L. Blumberg practices corporate and entertainment law in Manhattan. A graduate of Temple University School of Law, he is a frequent contributor to The New York Law Journal and a lecturer in the Fahringer seminars in legal writing.

New from University of Toronto Press

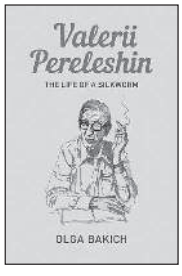

Reading Václav Havel
by David S. Danaher
As a playwright, a dissident, and a politician, Václav Havel was one of the most important intellectual figures of the late 20th century; this book captures the vast literary legacy of Václav's work.

Northrop Frye and American Fiction
by Claude Le Fustec
This important study analyzes canonical novels by American writers ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne to Toni Morrison through the lens of Northrop Frye's account of literature's transcendent power.

Sapphic Fathers
Discourses of Same-Sex Desire from Nineteenth-Century France
by Gretchen Schultz
Sapphic Fathers analyzes the works of 19th century French writers including Zola, Maupassant and Baudelaire on lesbianism and how its influence can be traced to American pulp fiction.

Valerii Pereleshin
The Life of a Silkworm
by Olga Bakich
This book follows the life of poet Valerii Pereleshin, one of the most remarkable Russian émigrés of the 20th century, and explores how he struggled to accept and express his identity as a gay man within a homophobic émigré community.

NEW FROM KNOPF DOUBLEDAY

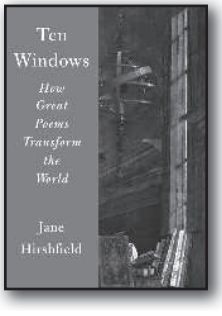

THE BURIED GIANT

KAZUO ISHIGURO

"The Buried Giant does what important books do: It remains in the mind long after it has been read, refusing to leave, forcing one to turn it over and over. . . . Ishiguro is not afraid to tackle huge, personal themes, nor to use myths, history and the fantastic as the tools to do it. The Buried Giant is an exceptional novel." —Neil Gaiman, The New York Times Book Review

TEN WINDOWS

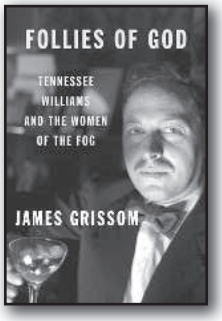

How Great Poems Transform the World

JANE HIRSHFIELD

"In 20 or 30 years, this book may be remembered as one of the great common-readers on the pleasures of poetry. . . . [Hirshfield's] approach to poetry is exhilarating. Reading her is reminiscent of the joy found among the insights and illuminations of Hugh Kenner's best work. . . . This thrilling work of immense value is truly an important book on one of the most important subjects: poetry."

—Library Journal, starred review

KNOPF | CLOTH | 320 PAGES | $24.95

FOLLIES OF GOD

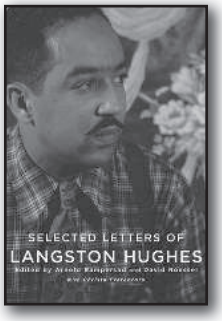

Tennessee Williams and the Women of the Fog

JAMES GRISSOM

"A portrait of Tennessee Williams, artist and man, that is richer, more enthralling and, yes, stranger, than any that has been committed to publication heretofore. James Grissom has, through an unholy combination of research, intrusion, and empathy, committed half his lifetime to assembling something akin to a living, breathing creation—a portrait of Tennessee Williams that inhabits the pages of his new book Follies of God in all his flawed, erratic, ingeniously creative glory."

—New York Journal of Books

SELECTED LETTERS OF LANGSTON HUGHES

WRITTEN BY LANGSTON HUGHES

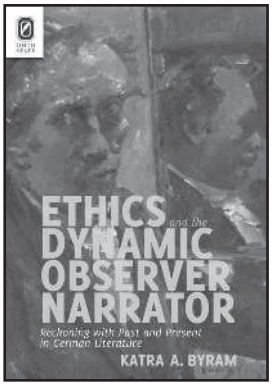

Edited by Arnold Rampersad, David Roessel and Christa Fratantoro

The first comprehensive selection from the correspondence of Langston Hughes, a life in letters showcasing his struggles and achievements. Arranged by decade and linked by expert commentary, the volume guides us through Hughes's life: personal, political, practical, and—above all—literary. Enhanced by photographs and quotations from his poetry, this collection gives an unusually rich picture of this genius of modern American letters.

Ethics and the Dynamic Observer
Reckoning with Past and Present in German Literature
Katra A. Byram

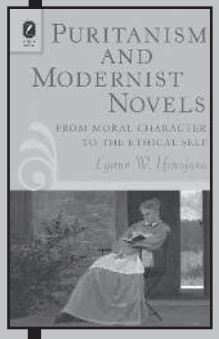

"This is a marvelous study in which Byram proposes a new genre, that of the dynamic observer narrative—stories told by a first-person narrator about another person's experiences. Byram takes up some of the most well-known and thoroughly analyzed German novels of the last two centuries. Her lens is truly original, not just new 'readings' of these works; she offers a tool to rethink the relationship between literary production and history and the concept of Vergangenheitsbewältigung—or coming to terms with the past. All students of narrative theory and of German prose fiction will want and need to read this book." —Irene Kacandes, The Dartmouth Professor of German Studies and Comparative Literature

"A superb achievement....
Skillfully interweaving the work and the life, Begley has produced a book that…is in some ways as rewarding as Updike's best fiction."
—Scott Stossel, Boston Globe

In this eye-opening, authoritative biography, Adam Begley offers a captivating portrait of John Updike, the author who saw himself as a literary spy in small-town and suburban America, and who dedicated himself to the task of transcribing "middleness with all its grits, bumps, and anonymities."

"A brilliant biography. . . . Highly readable. "
—Orhan Pamuk, New York Times Book Review

"A beautifully written, richly detailed, and warmly sympathetic portrait of a great American writer."
