PERSONAL AND PLACE NAME INDEX TO APPENDICES 2–4

Places are named here in their modern form with their pre-1974 English or Welsh county. Owing to the complications surrounding naming conventions in this period, all people are listed primarily by their first names. English equivalents of Latin Christian names are given where their bearers are from English dioceses, but unusual Christian names are italicized and not translated. Where Christian names or patronymics refer to people from Welsh dioceses, the standard Welsh forms are used (e.g. Ieuan, not John, for Iohannes; Gwilym, not William, for Willelmus; etc.). Welsh patronymics are not listed separately from the full names of their bearers; surnames are listed separately, but with cross-references to their bearers' full names, in keeping with the indexing of Welsh personal names, and are spelled as in the sources. The numbers of entries in texts in Appendices (Apps) 2, 3 and 4 are indicated in bold. Peter Clarke's introduction and Apps 1a and 1b are not indexed below, nor are references to Wolsey himself in any of the texts edited. Place names in the dating clauses of texts in App. 4 are not indexed either, as Wolsey's letters calendared there are usually dated at Westminster, and papal letters at St Peter's, Rome.
