THE BRITISH SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

Membership: The British Society for the History of Science welcomes members from all backgrounds, in the UK and internationally. Current members include academics, writers, students, museums professionals, schoolteachers and anyone with an interest in some aspect of the history of science, technology and medicine.Details of the annual subscription can be found on our website www.bshs.org.uk, or from the Executive Secretary at the address below.

Other BSHS publications: BJHS Themes is a fully open access, peer-reviewed journal for the history of science, which publishes annual thematic collections aimed at animating the history of science community. BJHS Themes is enabled by investment from the Society's Wheeler Bequest in collaboration with Cambridge University Press. Themes collections consist of insightful, original and timely studies that hit the historiographical moment. Articles are free to read online for all. Typically, issues are chosen through an open, annual competition.

Recent issues:

BJHS Themes (2022), 7, 'Taste and the History of Science', edited by Marieke M.A. Hendriksen and Alexander Wragge-Morley.

BJHS Themes (2023), 8, 'Histories of Artificial Intelligence: A Genealogy of Power', edited by Syed Mustafa Ali, Stephanie Dick, Sarah Dillon, Matthew L. Jones, Jonnie Penn, Richard Staley.

BJHS Themes (2024), 9, 'The History of Science and the "Big Picture"', edited by James Poskett.

The Society's magazine, Viewpoint, an informal publication, appears three times a year. It is free to members, £18 for institutions and UK non-members, £26 for non-members in Europe and £30 for rest of world non-members from the Executive Secretary.

Administrative business of the Society is handled by Lucy Santos, Executive Secretary, British Society for the History of Science. The Society is registered in England as a Limited Company (No. 562208) and is a Registered Charity (No. 258854). Email office@bshs.org.uk.
