A Conspectus

PAUL K. BENEDICT

A systematic analysis of the morphology and phonology of the main descendants of Sino-Tibetan, a language stock comprising Chinese, Karen and over a hundred Tibeto-Burman languages, in which Dr. Benedict traces their family relationships and reconstructs the parent language in outline. The book includes a glossary of Tibeto-Burman roots and an English-Tibeto-Burman index. $49.50

STUDIES IN YUE DIALECTS 1

Phonology of Cantonese

OI-KAN YUE HASHIMOTO

The first in a series of dialect studies planned by the Princeton Chinese Linguistics Project. Yue is one of the major Chinese dialect groups (spoken by some 40 million people in South China, Southeast Asia and North America) and Cantonese is the standard dialect in the group.

This volume surveys the phonology of Cantonese. Syntax and vocabulary will be covered in subsequent studies. $32.50

Intermediate Cambodian Reader

edited by Franklin E. Huffman with the assistance of Im Proum

A sequel to Mr. Huffman's Cambodian System of Writing and Beginning Reader, this book is intended to develop the student's ability to the point of reading unedited Cambodian texts with the aid of a dictionary. Part One consists of thirty-seven reading selections in Cambodian from publications by leading national writers and scholars. Part Two is a comprehensive Cambodian-English glossary containing vocabulary items in this as well as Mr. Huffman's preceding volume. This glossary is particularly important in view of the present lack of a satisfactory Cambodian-English dictionary for students to use.
Yale Linguistic Series cloth $20.00 paper $10.00

Also available in this series, edited by Franklin E. Huffman

Modern Spoken Cambodian
cloth $15.00 paper $6.50

Cambodian System of Writing and Beginning Reader
cloth $12.00 paper $5.50

These two volumes are intended to meet the considerable need for authoritative texts in Cambodian and were designed to be used together in an intensive or semi-intensive beginning course. They are readily adaptable, however, to nonintensive courses and self instruction. ". . . the appearance of this volume is to be enthusiastically welcomed by all Southeast Asianists, and the author is to be congratulated for a work of such excellence."

Linguistic Society of America

LANGUAGE, the journal of the Linguistic Society of America, carries technical articles dealing with problems of linguistic science, reviews of recently published linguistic works, and notes of interest to professional linguists.

As supplements to LANGUAGE, the Linguistic Society of America issues a series of occasional publications, LANGUAGE MONOGRAPHS. These are included in the subscription price of the journal, but may also be purchased separately. In the LANGUAGE MONOGRAPH series, the Society publishes independently subsidized studies which are too long to appear as articles or are otherwise unsuitable for publication in the journal. The method of application for admission to this series of supplements, and the terms of publication, may be secured from the Secretary of the Society.

SPECIAL PUBLICATIONS in the field of linguistic science are issued by the Society from time to time. These are not included in the subscription price of the journal.

MEETING HANDBOOKS, which contain program listings and abstracts of papers presented at LSA Annual Meetings, 1965 through 1971, may also be purchased separately.

A list of publications in print is available from the Secretary of the Society. Current prices for LANGUAGE are as follows: Complete volume 43, $8.00; volume 45 onward, $16.00; single numbers currently in print from volumes 39–44, $3.00; volume 45 onward, $6.00. Reprint editions of volumes 1–42 and 44 of LANGUAGE, Monographs 1–21, 25–26, and Dissertations 1–57 are available from Kraus Reprint Corporation, 16 East 46th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017, and a price list can be obtained from that address.
