CFP Announces 2007–2008 Fellows

Founded in 1953, the APSA Congressional Fellowship Program is the nation's oldest and most prestigious congressional fellowship. More than fifty years later, the program remains devoted to its original objective of expanding knowledge and awareness of Congress.

The 2007-2008 Class of APSA Congressional Fellows will miss the international insights of former Fellow Charles W. Maynes who died June 2, 2007 at his home in Chevy Chase, Maryland at 68. Charles William Maynes was a 1970-71 Congressional Fellow from the State Department and served with Senator Fred R. Harris (D-OK) and was a regular orientation panelist on international issues with former Fellow Alan Romberg on the Henry L. Stimson Center. Born in Huron, South Dakota, Maynes received his B.A. from Harvard in 1960 and his BA and MA from Merton College, Oxford, as a Rhodes Scholar. After his time in the Foreign Service, Maynes worked for the Carnegie Endowment and in 1980 helped establish Foreign Policy magazine which he edited for 17 years before becoming President of the Eurasia Foundation in 1997. Retired in 2006, Maynes left his wife of 42 years, Gretchen Schiele Maynes, two children and two grandchildren. He was in life, and will continue in the memories of those who knew him, a standard by which the Congressional Fellowship Program can be measured.
