DO YOU WANT TO JOIN A WORLD-WIDE NETWORK OF SCHOLARS INVOLVED IN HUMANITIES COMPUTING?

If so, you should become a member of the Association for Computers and the Humanities. The benefits of ACH membership include:

- A quarterly newsletter covering activities of the Association and including, among other news relating to computer-oriented humanities research, a calendar of related meetings; calls for papers; and reports on computer-related projects, conferences, and the pertinent activities of governmental agencies and other organizations.
- Subscription to Computers and the Humanities (CHum).
- The option of subscribing to SCOPE and/or Research in Word Processing Newsletter at reduced rates.
- A reduced registration fee at the International Conference on Computers and the Humanities (ICCH) and meetings of the Association for Literary and Linguistic Computing.
- Discounts on various books and special issues of journals devoted to humanities computing.

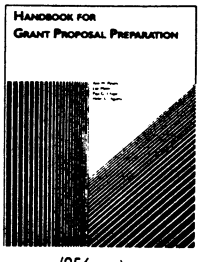

Membership: $40.00 per year, including subscription to CHum

For membership information, contact:
Harry Lincoln, Treasurer
Association for Computers and the Humanities
Music Department
State University of New York
Binghamton, New York 13901

HANDBOOK FOR ...
GRANT PROPOSAL PREPARATION

LSA ANNOUNCES...

by Ann M. Peters, Lise Menn, Paul G. Chapin, and Helen C. Aguera

HANDBOOK FOR GRANT PROPOSAL PREPARATION helps younger scholars produce high quality fundable proposals to NSF and NEH. It contains common sense DOs and DON'Ts and examples of funded proposals. While the proposal topics are unique to linguistics, the proposal types are universal. Included are proposals for experimentation, a symposium, dissertation support, acquisition of equipment, synthesis and preparation of material for publication.

(256 pp.)

Send prepaid orders ($20) to: Linguistic Society of America, 1325 18th St. NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501.

https://doi.org/10.1017/S0097850787106935 Published online by Cambridge University Press