New Blackfriars

Vol 107 • No 2 • March 2026

Contents

Thomism, Creativity, and the Arts: Jacques and Raïssa Maritain: The Launch Conference of Blackfriars Hall's Centre for Theology and the Arts, 123
Dominic White OP

Creative Intuition and Being in Art: J. Maritain and É. Gilson on Beauty, 126
Jan Christoph Bentz

From Strangers to Friends of God: The Vocation of the Artist in Jacques Maritain's Life and Work, 139
Margarita Mooney Clayton

Beauty, Nature, and the Virtuous Imitation, 151
Bradley Elliott OP

'Film's Lessons in Vision': Towards the Virtue of an Impure Artform, 158
Katja Martina Frimberger

Maritain, Ratzinger, and Jones on Art and Liturgy, 179
Christopher Michael Grey

Jacques Maritain & Flannery O'Connor: Imitation & Distortion: The Power of the Story, 187
Gregory James Kerr

'Abîme Inconnus': Raïssa Maritain's Poetic and Mystical Gifts, 195
Emma Mason

Jacques Maritain on the Artist's Vision and Moral Character, 202
Alice M. Ramos

De la souffrance où nous joint l'infini: Raïssa Maritain's Poetic Theodicy and Metz's Suffering Unto God, 215
Albert Robertson

Form as 'Ontological Secret', 224
James Matthew Wilson

Reviews
William Crozier, Albert Elias Robertson, Margaret Atkins, Simon Francis Gaine OP, Robert Morgan, Tasia Scrutton

FSC™ www.fsc.org MIX Paper | Supporting responsible forestry FSC™ C013985

https://doi.org/10.1017/nbf.2025.10094 Published online by Cambridge University Press