Ecclesiastical Law Journal

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal is published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the Ecclesiastical Law Society. The views expressed in any article, comment, review or other publications in this Journal do not necessarily accord with those of the Editor, the Editorial Board, or the Society as a whole.

Submission of Articles and Comment

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal covers all aspects of ecclesiastical law, with a particular emphasis on the legal regulation of the Church of England and the worldwide Anglican Communion. Its range of coverage also includes comparative studies of the laws of other faiths and of the interface between law and religion in United Kingdom jurisprudence and worldwide. General policy is developed by the Editor in collaboration with the Editorial Board.

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal is peer reviewed and operates (for submissions which have not been formally commissioned) a double anonymous refereeing process using members of the Editorial Board together with others expert in the particular field concerned. Authors should therefore take care not to identify themselves within the text of the manuscript which they submit. Articles should generally be between 7,000 and 10,000 words and Comment pieces should not usually exceed 6,000 words. All submissions of articles, comment pieces, and general inquiries, should be addressed to the Editor: Benjamin Harrison, Ecclesiastical Law Journal, Serjeants' Inn Chambers, 85 Fleet Street, London EC4Y 1AE; E-mail: editor@ecclawsoc.org.uk.

Authors are reminded that they must follow the format set out in 'House Style', copies of which may be downloaded from http://journals.cambridge.org/elj.
