Index

by D. Graham J. Shipley

Entries are ordered on the word-by-word principle ('de Ste. Croix' before 'defection') rather than the letter-by-letter principle. Some subentries are ordered chronologically. Tables are not indexed, footnotes rarely. 'Philip' and 'Alexander', unless qualified, mean Philip II and Alexander the Great, respectively. C4 = fourth century BC, C3 = third century BC, C2 = second century BC, Cl = Classical, EHl = early Hellenistic, Hl = Hellenistic.

Adea-Eurydice, handles mutiny, 152 agoras: and market economies, 179; at Athens, commercial buildings, 179 agreements (see also negotiations), with soldiers: Iasos, 75–7; Theangela, 77–80 agriculture: paid labour, 45; specialization, in market economy, 179–80, 181
Alexander (general), promoted by Cassander, 161
Alexander III: 'the Great': innovations in recruitment, 59–62, 190; increases voluntary recruitment, 62–5; equips troops, 106–7; grants land, 113–14; grants promotions, 157–8; responses to mutinies, 148–9; succession dispute, 149–50; invoked by Successors, 69, 152–3; coin issues, 123; posthumous coinage, 123–4, 177
Alexanders (coinage), posthumous, 124, 177 allies, Greek, in Macedonian army, 57–8, 62–3 ancient economy, see economy
Antigenes, promoted officer, 158
Antigonid Kingdom: army finances, 86; financial weakness, 82, 86 n. 149; recruitment policy, 82–6; relative stability, 83
Antigonus I (see also 'League of Corinth'): land grants, 115–16; negotiates with army, 154
Antiochus I, land grants, 116
Antipater, handles 'mutiny', 151
apergoi (other than academics), 99
Apollodoros (trierarch), 134
Apolloniocharax (Mysia): financial arrangements, 117; subject to conscription, 98 architects, paid, 44
architecture, and market economy, 179–80
Argead house, troops' loyalty to, 68–9, 152–3
Aristodikides of Assos, 94: receives land, 116
Aristomenes, receives land, 114
Aristotle (Pseudo-), Oikonomika, on economies, 171 armed forces (see also navy), Carthaginian, economic impact, 196 armies (see also armed forces): Cl size, 12–13; Hl size, 13; Roman, economic impact, 195; size, in relation to coin issues, 126–7 armour, provision of: C4, 106; by Philip and Alexander, 106–7; by Successors, 107–8; by kings, 108–9 arsenals, Hl, 108
assembly, paid attendance at, 39–40
Atarrhias, promoted officer, 158
Athenagoras, resists inducements, 164–5
Athens: commerce in Agora, 179; remuneration of citizens, 39–40
Attalid Kingdom: financial strength, 96–7; recruitment practice, 99
Attic standard, for coins, 177

Bactrian Revolt, 152
banausos, 43
banks, public, 182–3
bargaining, see collective bargaining benefaction, by rich citizens, 185–6 benefits (see also incentives): given to soldiers, 128–31; result of negotiations, 156 bonuses: under Alexander, 120, 192; under Successors, 161

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011 booty (see also plundering): difficulty of transport, 128–9; permission to collect, 128–9 Boulagoras, of Samos, 185–6 bronze coinage, for rations, 122, 123 building work, paid, 44, 45 capitalism (see also economy, 'proto-capitalist'), and wage labour, 34 care, for dependants, 129–30 career progression (see also promotions), 48: under Philip and Alexander, 157–9; under Successors, 159–61

Cassander: confirms land grant, 110–13; promotes Alexander (general), 160–1 Cassandreia diagramma, 83, 85 cavalry, Macedonian (see also Companions): Alexander's reforms, 62; smaller under Antigonids, 84 change (see also economic change; labour history), of employer (see also defection), 48, 161 children, care of, 130
chiliarchies, created, 62 circulation, of coinage, 176–8 citizen troops (see also non-citizen troops), as opposed to mercenaries, 23, 26–7 citizens, remuneration of, as opposed to wage labour, 40 citizenship, and military service, 1–2, 47 civic economies, 171–2
cleruchies: and military service, 112; Attalid, 117; Ptolemaic, 91, 116 clothing, provision of, 107; by Alexander, 106 coinage (see also bronze coinage; gold coinage; hoards; overstrikes; silver coinage); and army size, 127; economic significance, 167; EHl standardization, 177; estimated sizes of issues, 124–7; for military expenditure, 121–2; of Alexander, 123; of Philip, 123; posthumous, of Philip and Alexander, 123–4 collective bargaining (see also mutinies, negotiations), 48, 145, 146; not the same as desertion, 162 commodification of labour, 21–2, 35; impact on economy, 173–4 commodities, fictitious, 21
common land, 35–6
Companions (see also cavalry): recruitment, 54–5; grants from Alexander, 113; non-Macedonian, 60–1; partly voluntary, 55; pay scale, 137 competition (see also demand): for labour power (see also labour markets), 161–2, 163–4, 166; for military labour, 48, 192–3 compulsory military service (see also conscription), 1–2: by Ptolemaic settlers, 91; by Seleucid settlers, 94–6 conscription (see also compulsory military service; conscripts; Drama diagramma), 47, 50–1: of citizens, 26; Macedonian, 98; regionally based, 54, 95; declines, 191; hybrid Ptolemaic form, 91, 164–5; in Attalid kingdom, 98; not wholly abandoned, 191; revived in Seleucid empire, 94; revived under Antigonids, 83, 85, 86–7 conscripts (see also conscription): waged, 2; unwaged, 5; vs volunteers, 29–30; from 'League of Corinth', 57–8; non-Greek, in Alexander's army, 63–5; under Perdikkas, 66–7; variable loyalty, 67–8; from 'Hellenic League', 67 contracts, of employment (see also recruitment), 75–80, 130–1: implied terms, 80; with Eumenes I, 98–9 credit, institutions of, 182–3 Crete, mercenaries and coin circulation, 176 crews, naval, paid, 27–8 de Ste. Croix, G. E. M.: on military labour, 45; on payment for work, 43, 44–5 defection (see also change, of employer; desertion), with inducements, 160–1, 163–5 demand (see also competition) and supply, of labour, 145 Demanhur hoard, 177

democracy, and pay for citizens, 39–40 denominations (coins) large, 177 dependants, care of, 129–30 desertion (see also defection): by Macedonians, 69; or collective bargaining, 162; or response to incentives, 163–4; unpunished, 80 development, economic, in Hl period, 167 disembedded economies (see also embedded economies), 20–1: and political factors, 194–5; and wage labour, 186, 188; profit motive in, 184; display, of wealth, increasing, 184; division of labour, 32, 35; dominant market, 20–1, 173 Drama diagramma, 83

economic change: and military development, 2–3, 7; and military developments, 167; in Hl period, 184; Polanyi on, 35 economic development, in Hl period, 167 economic motives, of paid soldiers, 184 economic theory, see economy (c) economy (see also economic change; economic development; economic motives; economic theory): (a) by date: Cl-Hl continuity, 16; EHl growth, 13–16; EHl integration, 16; Hl, alternative characterizations, 169–71; Hl, development in, 167; (b) by culture: Carthaginian, impact of military expenditure in, 196; Greco-Roman, not unitary, 188; Roman, impact of army in, 195; Seleucid,

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011

172–3; (c) by topic (see also disembedded economies; embedded economies; formalism; markets; Polanyi, K.; profit motive; substantivism; trade; wage labour): 'proto-capitalist', 3, 15–16, 167, 170, 186; beyond a binary view, 19, 188–9, 194; competing theories, 17–19; early debates, 17; recent debates, 18–20; Finley's view, 17; moral, 35; New Institutional Economics, 18–19, 188; primitivist view, 17; rational activity, 34, 183–4; regional, 170; royal, 171; civic, 170–2; subsistence, 15; local, 171–2 Egyptians, in Ptolemaic forces, 88–9; machimoi, 88 elites, Hl, increasing wealth, 183 embedded economies (see also disembedded economies), 19, 169, 170 embedded economy (see also disembedded economies): profit motive in, 183–4 employers: change of, 48, 67–9, 161; competing for labour, 48; soldiers free to choose, 77, 80 emulation, of wealth display, 184 Enclosure; of common land, 35 enlistment (see also conscripts; contracts of employment; recruitment; terms of service; volunteers), 29, 47 Epigonoi: 64–5; resented by Macedonians, 149 epikouroi, 25
equipment, provision of: by Alexander, 106–7; under Successors, 107–8; by Hl kings, 108–9 Erechtheum accounts, 44 estate managers, professional, 182
Eumenes I: agreement with soldiers, 98–9, 130; negotiation with army, 154–6
Eumenes II, and Apolloniocharax, 117
Eumenes of Cardia: 70–1; 'ghost' council, 152–3; highly promoted, 157; numbers of paid troops, 72; troops solicited by Antigonus, 163
Eupolemos, identification of, 79 exchange, see market exchange expenses (see also rations), as opposed to wages, 102–5 family benefits, for soldiers, 129–30 fictitious commodities, 21–2 Finley, M. I.: criticisms of, 18; on ancient economy, 17; on wage labour, 42 food prices, fixed, 130–1 Foot Companions (Macedonian infantry), partly voluntary, 55–6 formalism: 169; can be combined with substantivism, 184; economic theory, 17; errors of, 184 freedmen, in Athens' navy, 27

Galatians (see also garrisons; Gauls), in Seleucid forces, 96 garrisons: Antigonid, 86; Attalid, 97 Gauls (see also Galatians), in Antigonid army, 84–5 globalization, EHl, 9, 16
gold coinage, 58, 123, 177 gold mines, and military expenditure, 119 Greeks (see also non-Macedonians): in Alexander's army, 57–8; in Ptolemaic forces, 90 growth, economic: EHl, 15; in New Institutional Economics, 19

Hellanicus, promoted officer, 158 Hellenic alliance, see 'League of Corinth' hoards (of coins), 176–7: and military expenditure, 122–3 Homo economicus, 33
horses, provided by Hl kings, 109
hypaspists, pay scale, 135–7
Hyphasis river, 'mutiny' at 147–8

Iasos, agreement with paid soldiers, 75–7
Ilion, Seleucid land grant at, 94 incentives (see also benefits; inducements; land grants): in recruitment, 105–9, 118, 162–4; and widening participation, 191–2; for military service, 47; for promotion, 162–4; in the form of rights, 47 inducements (see also incentives), 163–4: to change employer, 160–1, 192 Industrial Revolution, 3, 35–6 infantry, Macedonian, partly voluntary, 56 institutional theory of labour, 33 institutions, in New Institutional Economics, 18 insubordination, see 'mutinies' integration, of EHl economies, 15 internal labour markets, 48, 146, 156

jury service, paid, 39

katoikoi, Seleucid, 94–6 Keynesianism, military, 167 kingdoms, Hl: as 'predatory' states, 172; rise, 9 kings, Hl, equipping forces, 108 kingship, and military prowess, 10 Kompoloi, agricultural specialization at, 180 labour (see also commodification of labour; division of labour; labour history; labour markets; labour power; labour relations; wage

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011

labour): alternative theories, 33–5; labour demand, 144–5 labour history: defined, 4; and economic change, 4; and Hl economies, 187 labour markets (see also competition; labour; labour history; labour power; labour relations; labourers), 21: defined, 144; abstract vs physical, 144; internal vs external, 146; rise of, 143, 162–3, 192–3; and military service, 146; military, in Hl period, 48; and price setting, 41; rates of pay set by, 145; making prices rise, 165–6, 193; and Roman society, 43 labour power: defined, 37; carriers vs possessors, 38–9 labour relations: defined, 32 labourers (see also apergoi), terminology, 43 land (see also land grants; private land; royal land), commodification of, 21–2 land grants, 47: (a) by date: by Philip, 109–13; by Alexander, 113–14; by Antigonus, 115–16; by Lysimachus, 114–15; Antiochus I, 116; (b) by topic: as financial benefactions, 109; full possession or temporary, 109; monetized, 91, 111–13; Ptolemaic, 117; Seleucid, 94–6 large denominations, of coins, 177
'League of Corinth': (Philip's), contributions to Macedonian army by, 57–8; (Antigonid), cost of replacing men in, 139–40 leasing: and absentee owners, 117; of granted land, 116 Lilaeans, dedication at Delphi, 98 loans, to polis, by citizens, 185–6 local economies, 171–2 loyalty, of conscripts, variable, 68–9 luxuries, increased demand, 14, 183
Lysimachus, land grant, 114–15

Macedonia, late C4 manpower shortage, 67–8
Macedonian army: composition, 51; expansion, 51–2; troops from subject districts, 56
Macedonian cavalry, see Companions Macedonian royal house, see Argead house
'Macedonians', scope of, 53
machimoi, 88
Magnesia (Ionia), Seleucid katoikoi, 94, 95 maintenance payments, 102–4 managers, of estates, 181–2 manufacturing, in private hands, 181 market economy (see also market exchange; markets), 180: and demand for luxuries, 14; and profit motive, 183–4; and urbanization, 179; stimulates production, 178; wages as such do not make, 189 market exchange (see also market economy; marketization; markets), Polanyi on, 19–21 marketization, and wage labour, 174 markets (see also economy; labour markets; market economy; market exchange; marketization): and New Institutional Economics, 19; types of, 20–1; other than for labour, 145; pre-industrial, 34; price-setting, 19; self-regulating, 145; dominant, 20; existing to varying degrees, 20–1, 169; in substantivist economies, 20; and commodification of labour, 173; and sale of labour power, 37, 39; and agricultural produce, 180–1; and Hl economies, 170; soldiers, reliant on, 178–9 Marx, K.: on modes of production, 32–3; on wage labour, 37; wage labour defined by, 37
'mercenaries' (see also mercenary service; non-citizen troops; waged military labour): definition, 23; limited utility of the term, 28, 193; problematized, 25; as opposed to citizens, 22, 26; Greek terminology, 23–5; denigrated in Cl sources, 27; in Hl scholarship, 23; at Taenarum, 70, 71 mercenary service, as wage labour, 22
Methone (Macedonia), Philip's land grant, 109
Meyer, Eduard, on ancient economy, 17 migration: for paid military service, 89; to towns, 181 miles gloriosus, 142
military expenditure, see bonuses; coinage; hoards; wages military hardware, under Philip, 11 military service (see also compulsory military service; terms of service; voluntary military service; waged military labour): and citizenship, 1–2; and wage labour, 3, 7, 46–8; competition between employers, 48; conscript vs voluntary, 50; economic productivity, 45–6; seasonal, 26, 86; year-round, 55, 118 military wage labour, see waged military labour misthophoroi, 25, 52, 58: under Alexander, 59; under Philip, 58–9; under Successors, 69–72; in Seleucid forces, 93, 96 misthos: defined, 40, 102; range of meanings, 103; superseded, 104–5 Mnesimachus, receives land, 115–16 mobility, see employers mobilization, in Macedonia, 53 modes of production, 33
monetization: and hoard evidence, 177; and military developments, 3; and military needs, 14; as Seleucid goal, 172; increases in Hl, 174 money (see also pay): as recruitment incentive, 118; commodification of, 22

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011

mono-cropping, in market economy, 179 moral economy, pre-industrial, 35
'mutinies' (see also collective bargaining; negotiations; strikes): as collective bargaining, 150, 151; before Alexander, 147; under Alexander, 147–9; on Alexander's death, 149–50; economic motives, 147

naval pay, 27–8
navy, Athenian, 27
negotiations (see also agreements; collective bargaining; 'mutinies'): by Hl kings, 156; rise of, 192 neo-classical economics, view of, 33
New Institutional Economics, 18–19, 188; shortcomings of, 19 non-citizen troops (see also citizen troops): denigrated in Cl sources, 27; in Athens' navy, 27 non-Macedonians: among Companions, 60–1; promoted, 159–60 non-payment, of wages, 103–4
North, D. C., and New Institutional Economics, 18

Oikonomika, Pseudo-Aristotelian, on economies, 171 onomastic evidence, for Ptolemaic forces, 89, 90 Opis, 'mutiny' at, 149
opsōnion, Hl terminology, 104–5 orphans, care of, 130, 131 overstrikes: and circulation of coins, 176; and mercenary service, 176 paid military service, see waged military labour paid roles, at Athens (see also citizens), 39, 40 pay (see also paid military service; paid roles; pay not sufficient condition for wage labour; pay grades; pay scales; remuneration; wages): naval, 27–8; pay not sufficient condition for wage labour, 39–41 pay grades (see also pay scales), and rank titles, 139 pay scales (see also pay grades), 48; Hl, 139–40 payments: to soldiers, 101; in cash, 47; in kind, 47; do not alone make a labour market, 189

Perdikkas, uses conscripts, 66
Pergamon, see Attalid kingdom peripheral markets, 20
pezhetairoi, see Foot Companions
Philip II of Macedonia: rise to power, 10–11; forces at start of reign, 53–4; military reforms, 11, 122; military reforms, impact of, 99–100; provides armour, 106; recruitment practices under, 189–90; innovations in recruitment, 54–8; promotions under, 157; bronze coinage, 122; posthumous coinage, 123
philoi, 115
Phoenix of Tenedos: career, 159; mentioned, 160 plundering (see also booty): by non-royal armies, 129; by royal armies, 129; permission for, 128–9 Polanyi, K.: influence on Finley, 42; models of exchange, 20–1; on commodification of labour, 173; on disembedding of economies and political factors, 195; on profit, 183
Polemaios (nephew of Antigonus?), 75 polis, accepts paid military service, 71 Poseidoniasts of Berytos, commercial activity, 179 posthumous coinages, for Philip and Alexander, 123–4
'predatory' kingdoms, 172
price discounts, for soldiers, 130–1 price-setting, and labour market, 41, 146 primitivism, view of ancient economy, 17 private land, and markets, 181 private ownership, and manufacturing, 181 private wealth, see profit motive; wealth privileges, granted to soldiers, 128–31 production (see also modes of production), stimulated by market economy, 179, 180, 181 profit motive (see also wealth), 33: in embedded and disembedded economies, 184; theories of, 183; in market economy, 184 profits, of war, 101
promotions (see also career progression; social mobility), 48: and pay grades, 158–9; criteria, 157–8; under Philip, 157–8; under Alexander, 157–8 property qualifications, in Antigonid recruitment 144, proto-capitalist economy, 3, 170, 186
Protogenes of Olbia, 185
Ptolemaic kingdom: economic strength, 87; land grants, 116; military service in, 88–92; stability, 87
Ptolemy I, and Iasos, 75 ranks, military, and pay grades, 119, 137, 158–9 rational economic activity, 183 rations: Hl terminology, 104–5; in bronze coin, 122, 123; payment of, 102–4 reciprocity: Polanyi on, 20 recruitment (see also contracts; enlistment; incentives, voluntary military service) (a) by date: Philip's reform, use non-lining numerals; under Alexander, 59–62, 190; under Successors, 66–7, 191; (b) by dynasty, 94; Antigonid, 83–6;

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011

Ptolemaic, 88–91; (c) by topic: changing contexts, 191; polis approval, 71; under Successors, 70–1; redistribution regional variation, between economies, 15–16, 170 reimbursement: as opposed to pay, 40, 43 remuneration (see also expenses; pay; rations; wages): for conscripts, 2; of Athenian citizens, 40; for military service, 47 replacement costs, of troops, 139–40 revolts, see 'mutinies'
rewards, see incentives Rezhanci hoard, 122
rights, as incentives, 48 rowers, paid, 27–8
royal economies, Hl, 171; predatory, 171
royal houses, Macedonian, see Argead house royal land, and the market, 180

sarissa, 11
satrapal contingents, in Alexander's army, 63–4 seasonal military service, 26, 82, 86 Seleucid kingdom: economic policy, 172–3; land grants, 94–5; recruitment policy, 94–6; size of armies, 92 self-regulating, markets, 20, 21–2 serfdom, distinct from wage labour, 37 settlers (see also cleruchies): Ptolemaic, 94; Seleucid, 94–5 shipwrecks, and trade, 14, 183 siege technology, under Philip, 11 silver coinage, and military expenditure, 122, 176 silver mines, and military expenditure, 58, 61, 123, 190 Sinanpaşa hoard, 122
sitarchia, 104
siterēsion, 104
sitos, in Cl texts, 102 slave labour: distinct from wage labour, 40, 189; in Athens' navy, 27; paid, 39, 40; prevalence, 42, 44–5 Smith, Adam, on division of labour, 32 social mobility (see also career progression; promotions): in Macedonian army, 161 soldiers, waged (see also waged military labour), influence at Athens, 187
'spear-won land', 109, 113 specialization: in market economy, 188; of agriculture, 180; standards of living; for soldiers, 134 staters, gold (see also gold coinage), and monetization, 176 stratiōtai, 30, 70
strikes (see also 'mutinies'; negotiations): under Eumenes I, 155 subsistence economy, Cl–EHl continuity, 15–16 substantivism: theory, 17, 19; and markets, 19; on role of credit, 182 succession, to Alexander, disputed, 149
Successors (see also individual dynasties by name); need to compete for manpower, 65–6; compete for Macedonian manpower, 68; recruitment under, 66–7, 70–2; equip troops, 107–8; level of wages, 165–6
'super-nodes', Hl cities as, 180 supply and demand (see also competition), 144

Taenarum, mercenaries at, 70, 144, 187 tax relief, for soldiers, 80, 98, 117, 127, 129–30 technitēs, 43
technology, military, 11
terms of service (see also contracts; negotiations): as criterion, 47; at issue in mutinies, 148–9; negotiated, 192; time limit, 37, 41
Theangela, agreement with paid soldiers, 77–80 Thessalians, in Macedonian army, 57 trade, Hl increase, 14
trade, evidence from shipwrecks, 14, 183 training: in Athens' navy, 27; of citizen troops, 26; under Philip, 118; of Macedonian cavalry, 54
trierarchs, Athenian, 134
trophē, in Cl texts, 102

unpaid wages, 103
urban growth, 179
urbanization: and markets, 180; as Seleucid policy, 172 variation, regional, between economies, 170 voluntary employment, in market economy, 189 voluntary military service (see also enlistment; labour markets; recruitment; voluntary employment), 48, 50; under Alexander, 62–5; immediately after 323, 66–7; not limited to mercenaries, 52; dominant in Attalid kingdom, 97; hybrid Ptolemaic form, 87; in Ptolemaic forces, 89–91; reduced in Seleucid kingdom, 92; reduced use by Antigonids, 82; Theangela episode, 77–80; Iasos episode, 75–7 wage labour (see also waged military labour; wages): and Antiquity, 4; and labour history, 3; defined, 36–41; defined by Marx, 37; criteria for identification, 41; not simply pay, 39–40; need for labour market, 4; autonomous vs heterogenous, 39; economic impact of, 173; and disembedded economies, 21–2, 173; Finley on, 42; and ancient economy debate, 168; in ancient economies, 41; and monetization, 175; and military service, 4, 22; and mercenary service, 22 waged military labour (see also military service; wage labour; wages): criteria for identifying, 46; impact on economies, 174, 194; and labour market, 143, 193; and monetisation, 174; economic motives, 146; not necessarily 'mercenary', 193; under Successors, 70–2; profitable in Hl period, 142 wages (see also pay scales; remuneration; replacement costs; wage labour; waged military labour) (a) by date: Cl, for military service, 132–4; role in Philip's success, 119; under Alexander, 119; under Successors, 120; higher under Successors, 140; Hl levels, 142; in C3 garrison, 140; under Ptolemy V, 139; in C2 Egypt, 141; (b) by topic: definitions, 37; terminology, 102–5; not pay for citizens, 40; as opposed to expenses, 102; as opposed to other payments, 37; purchasing power, 131; for hypaspists, 135–7; lower in Hl citizen militia, 140–1; owed to soldiers at Iasos, 77 warfare: frequency in C4 Hl, 10; profitability, 101 wealth (see also profit motive): increase in Hl, 14; increased display of, 184–6 weapons, provision of (see also armour; equipment): by Philip, 106; under Hl kings, 108 Weber, M.: and Finley, 42; on labour, 32

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011

xenoi, 25–6

year-round service: Athenian navy, 133; Macedonian army, 118

Downloaded from https://www.cambridge.org/core. UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA METROPOLITANA, on 18 Nov 2026 at 06:03:24, subject to the Cambridge Core terms of use, available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/terms. https://doi.org/10.1017/9781009408967.011