About the American Political Science Association

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association (APSA) is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 11,000 members in over 100 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world. The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and the Journal of Political Science Education.

Join an APSA Organized Section

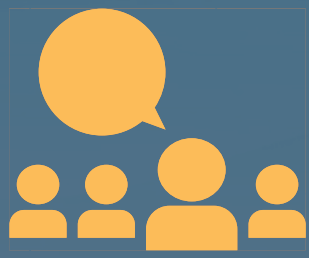

Organized sections provide an opportunity for groups of APSA members who share a common interest in a particular subfield to organize meetings and coordinate communications.

- 17 Organized Sections have journals or added journal subscriptions
- Over 200 Organized Section Awards
- 34 Organized Sections waive Student Dues
- 75% of APSA Members belong to at least one Organized Section

Join a section by logging into your account at apsanet.org, clicking your name at the top of the page and selecting the green "Add a Section" button. See a full list of sections at www.apsanet.org/sections.

Join an APSA Related Group

APSA Related Groups are professional groups, engaged in the study of political science. Related Groups add diversity and represent a broad spectrum of civic and political issues. Groups also host panels, workshops, and receptions at the APSA Annual Meeting.

www.apsanet.org/RESOURCES/Related-Groups

Related Groups include:

- subject matter groups
- caucuses
- identity groups
- think tanks
- nonprofits
- other academic associations

45 Related Groups and no additional fees to join!

Login to your account at apsanet.org, click your name at the top of the page and select Related Groups on the right hand side to add a group.

Visit www.apsanet.org to join and learn more.
