Investor-State Arbitration
Christopher Dugan, Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP
Don Wallace, Jr., Georgetown University
Noah Rubins, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

The increasing importance of international investment has been accompanied by the rapid development of a new field of international law that defines the obligations of host states towards foreign investors and creates procedures for resolving disputes in connection with those obligations. This groundbreaking text examines the international treaties that give investors a right to arbitration of claims, the most commonly employed arbitration rules, and the most important elements of investor-state arbitration procedure.

Sovereign Immunity and Terrorism
James Cooper-Hill

The war against terrorism has a new front: the courtrooms of America. When his friend became the first hostage held in Baghdad during the Persian Gulf War in 1992, lawyer James Cooper-Hill became engaged in litigation against three terrorist nations: Iraq, Libya, and Sudan. Of the three judgments against Iraq that have been paid, two are cases where the author represented the plaintiff.

In this path breaking treatise, Cooper-Hill takes the reader through the many stages inv when trying to thwart sovereign immunity and obtain damages against terrorist nations.

International Patent Treaties with Commentary
Jon O. Nelson, Banner & Witcoff Ltd.

While copyright and trademark law have made progress in defining and enforcing global ownership rights, patent law is the least coordinated area, with many legal issues still remaining to be resolved among the laws of countries and regions.

This guide provides up-to-date practical advice on patent protections in a global econom In addition to the expert commentary, this volume includes primary source documents and the author's own tips for lawyers to best protect their client's ideas at reasonable cost.

Law of International Insolvencies and Debt Restructurings
James R. Silkenat, Arent Fox PLLC
Charles D. Schmerler, Fulbright & Jaworski LLP

There has been unprecedented growth in the number of insolvencies and restructurings of multinational corporations—both inside and outside of traditional bankruptcy proceedings. This is the first text to offer insight into the newly created doctrines of law and procedure that have resulted from these events.

Leading practitioners address developments in bankruptcy and insolvency laws in over 20 countries that have become the focal points for legal proceedings, including the United States, Mexico, United Kingdom, Spain, Italy, Argentina, Brazil, India and more.

OXFORD COMMENTARIES ON INTERNATIONAL LAW

PUBLISHING MARCH 2006

The Statute of the International Court of Justice
A Commentary

Edited by Andreas Zimmermann, University of Kiel, Germany, Christian Tomuschat, Humboldt University, Berlin, and Karin Oellers-Frahm, Senior Research fellow, The Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law

Assistant Editors: Christian Tams and Tobias Thienel

"From Sir Robert Jennings' gem-like and trenchant general introduction to Wolfram Karl's concluding analysis of Articles 69 and 70 relating to amendments to the Statute, this massive commentary will immediately take its place as an invaluable tool for practicing international lawyers. An impressive roster of authors contribute a profound understanding of each Article of the Statute. Their systematic approach is more than commendable; as readers quickly become used to the sensible and consistent organisation of this rich resource, they are likely to make it their first port of call when considering strategic issues of process not only before the ICJ, but indeed before other international adjudicatory bodies."
—Jan Paulsson, President, World Bank Administrative Tribunal; President, London Court of International Arbitration; Head of the Public International Law Section of Freshfields Bruckhaus Derringer, Paris

"A valuable work of reference, indispensable to Government Departments of States dealing with inter-state disputes and to lawyers specializing in international litigation. The reader will find within the volume a wealth of information relating to the different aspects of the Court, and in particular, a searching analysis of the Articles of the Statute, amply supported by references to the Court's practice and other relevant materials. The volume will be welcomed by all those who are interested in the International Court of Justice."
—Shi Jiuyong, President and Judge of the International Court of Justice

The UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules
A Commentary

David D. Caron, C. William Maxeiner Distinguished Professor of Law, University of California, Berkeley, Matti Pellonpää, Judge, European Court of Human Rights, and Lee M. Caplan, Attorney-Adviser, Office of the Legal Adviser, Office of International Claims and Investment Disputes, U.S. Department of State

Reaching past the secrecy so often met in arbitration, this study explains clearly and fully the workings of the UNCITRAL Rules of Arbitral Procedure recommended for use in 1976 by the United Nations. Pulling together difficult to obtain sources from the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, arbitrations under Chapter 11 of the North American Free Trade Agreement, and ad hoc arbitrations the Authors illuminate the shape the bare bones UNCITRAL Rules take in practice.
