Burden of Empire

An Appraisal of Western Colonialism in Africa South of the Sahara

L. H. Gann and Peter Duignan. A bold reassessment of African history and Western imperialism. Offers a valuable corrective to recent misconceptions that have blurred many political opinions about Africa's past, present, and future. $8.50

Political Leadership in Africa

Victor T. LeVine. The first comparative study focused on the elite generational conflict in Africa—a political phenomenon hitherto little explored, yet largely responsible for the continuing turbulence in the newly independent African states. $3.50

African Opposition in South Africa

Edward Feit. This revealing analysis probes the failure of the African National Congress in two of its major resistance campaigns against a determined and well equipped minority in the Union of South Africa. $7.50

The Emerging Physician

A Sociological Approach to the Development of a Congolese Medical Profession

Willy De Craemer and Renée C. Fox. Provides a valuable insight into the social complexities and the political implications engendered by the evolution of a new, native elite class in what was once colonial Africa. $3.00

United States and Canadian Publications and Theses on Africa in 1965

The fifth volume in the series of annual African bibliographies. Volumes for 1961 through 1964 are again available. Each lists works by topic and country, and contains an author index. $6.00

The Myth of "Mau Mau"

Nationalism in Kenya

Carl G. Rosberg, Jr. and John Nottingham. ". . . the best account to date of the origins and rise of nationalism in Kenya and indispensable to any serious student."—N.Y. Times Book Review. ". . . this book should be a standard scholarly text for years."—Venture $7.50

Handbook of American Resources for African Studies

Peter Duignan. This invaluable research tool calls attention to the extensive but scattered source materials reflecting American involvement in Africa which are available in a variety of library, archival and manuscript materials, and to art and ethnographic collections in the United States. $6.00

The Treason Trial in South Africa

A Guide to the Microfilm Record of the Trial

Thomas Karis. "This Guide represents a valuable study of the South African nationalists' trial: it is in fact a veritable introduction to the modern history of that country."—Bulletin des Bibliothèques de France $3.00

German Africa

John Bridgman and David E. Clarke. "In brief, this work is uncontestably useful as a research tool for exploring the African holdings of the Hoover Institution as well as a general guide for the study of German colonial problems and the African territories which at one time were colonized by Germany."—Bulletin des Bibliothèques de France $3.00

Americans in Africa 1865–1900

Clarence Clendenen, Robert Collins, and Peter Duignan. Third in a series of studies investigating United States involvement in Africa. Much of the information was obtained from American memoirs and autobiographies, missionary reports, journals and government dispatches.

Hard, $4.00; Paper, $3.00

THE UNIVERSITY OF ZAMBIA

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH

P.O. Box 900, Lusaka, Zambia

This Institute, known for 27 years as the Rhodes-Livingstone Institute for Social Research, is now the first element of the Centre for African Studies of the new University of Zambia. The approach of the Institute is inter-disciplinary, with current emphasis in the fields of sociology, psychology, political science and economics (including agricultural economics). It is hoped that the earlier interests of the Institute in history, human geography and demography can also be extended.

Most of the results obtained by Institute staff and affiliated workers are published in its own publications. Apart from books, these are the journal -- recently re-named AFRICAN SOCIAL RESEARCH -- the ZAMBIA PAPERS, and the COMMUNICATIONS. It is also planned to publish, at least once a year, an Institute BULLETIN. Charges to subscribers and for single issues are as follows:

SUBSCRIBERS

Category A - African Social Research (2); Zambian Papers (1) - 30/-

B - As A, plus Communications - 40/-

C - As B, plus Bulletin - 50/-

SINGLE ISSUES

African Social Research; Zambian Papers - 12/6

Communications; Bulletin - related to cost of production
