Aims & Scope
Founded in 1995 by the Association for the Study of Modern Italy, the journal's focus is the history, politics, society, economy and culture of Italy, Italian affairs and the Italian peoples from the eighteenth to the twenty-first century.

Modern Italy publishes:
- Fully refereed research articles at the cutting edge of the discipline
- A Regular 'Contexts and Debates' section featuring current controversies in Italian studies and commentaries on contemporary and historical themes
- Review articles and a comprehensive book reviews section covering the latest Italian and English publications in Italian studies
- Conference reports and exhibition reviews
- Regular special theme issues

Peer review
All research articles published in this journal have undergone rigorous peer review, based on initial editor screening and anonymized refereeing by a minimum of two international referees.
