The number of editions reached by L'Attention, Les Maladies de la Mémoire, and Les Maladies de Volonté were as great as those of the most popular novels.

"Is not loving one's fellows the best way of knowing them?" asks Gaston Rageot. "That was Théodule Ribot's method."

THE LIBRARY.

MEMBERS of the Association are reminded that the Library at 11, Chandos Street, W., is open daily for reading and for the purpose of borrowing books. Books may also be borrowed by post, provided that at the time of application threepence in stamps is forwarded to defray the cost of postage. Arrangements have been made with Messrs. Lewis to enable the Association to obtain books from the lending library belonging to that firm should any desired book not be in the Library. In addition, the Committee is willing to purchase copies of such books as will be of interest to members. Certain medical periodicals are circulated among such members as intimate their desire to be included in the list.

The following gifts have been received, and the Committee desire to thank the donor:

Dr. William A. White.—Bulletins 2, 3, 4 and 5 of the Government Hospital for the Insane, Washington, D.C.

The following books have been purchased for the Library:

Instincts of the Herd in Peace and War, by W. Trotter.

Bodily Changes in Pain, Hunger, Fear, and Rage, by Walter B. Cannon.

Members reducing their private libraries are requested to bear in mind the library of the Association.

Applications for books should be addressed to the Resident Librarian, Medico-Psychological Association, 11, Chandos Street, Cavendish Square, W.

Other communications should be addressed to the undersigned at the City of London Mental Hospital, Dartford, Kent.

R. H. STEEN,
Hon. Secretary, Library Committee.
