IN GENERAL, THE MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION OFFERS NO GRANTS OR FELLOWSHIPS of any kind. Current graduate students, however, may qualify for financial assistance to attend the annual convention. For details, see A Concise Guide to Activities and Services, in this issue. The following list provides an overview of fellowship and grant programs; potential applicants should write to the foundations for complete information on procedures and requirements. The list omits prize contests and a number of purely literary fellowships. Larger, more inclusive lists include Annual Register of Grant Support (New Providence: Bowker); Directory of Research Grants (Phoenix: Oryx); Financial Aid for Minorities in Education (Garrett Park: Garrett Park); The Foundation Directory (New York: Foundation Center); The Foundation Grants Index (New York: Foundation Center); Fulbright and Other Grants for Graduate Study Abroad (New York: Inst. of Intl. Educ.); Directory of Graduate Programs, Vol. D: Arts and Humanities (New York: Warner); Virginia P. White, Grants: How to Find Out about Them and What to Do Next (New York: Plenum); The Grants Register (New York: St. Martin's); Scholarships, Fellowships, and Loans (Detroit: Gale); Study Abroad (Lanham: Unipub); and Teaching Abroad (New York: Inst. of Intl. Educ.). The Linguistic Society of America (1325 18th St., NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036-6501; 202 835-1714; http://www.lsadc.org) publishes the Guide to Grants and Fellowships in Linguistics. Information on philanthropic foundations, books on fellowships and grants, and periodicals such as Foundation Grants to Individuals (a biannual) and the Foundation Grants Index Quarterly may be obtained by writing or calling the Foundation Center, 79 5th Ave., New York, NY 10003-3076 (212 620-4230; http://fdncenter.org).

ABE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM: Postdoctoral fellowships for scholars or professionals who can demonstrate strong and serious long-term affiliations with research communities in the United States or Japan. The fellowships are awarded for research projects in the social sciences or humanities that will inform the environment in which policy is made on issues of pressing global concern to industrialized and industrializing societies across the globe. Projects must be relevant to any one or a combination of three themes: 1) global issues; 2) problems common to industrial and industrializing societies; and 3) issues that pertain to US-Japan relations. Fellowships are offered to individuals only and offer up to 12 months of full-time support. Write or call the Abe Fellowship Program, Social Science Research Council, 810 7th Ave., 31st floor, New York, NY 10019 (212 377-2700; fax: 212 377-2727; abe@ssrc.org; http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/abe). The deadline is 1 September.

AMERICAN ACADEMY IN BERLIN: Invites applications for its fellowships for the 2007–08 academic year. The academy is a private, nonprofit center for advanced research in a range of academic, cultural, and professional areas. It welcomes scholars, writers, and professionals who wish to engage in independent study in Berlin for an academic semester or, in rare cases, for an entire academic year. In the case of the Bosch Berlin Prize in Public Policy, shorter stays of six to eight weeks may be arranged. Fellowship benefits include round-trip airfare, comfortable accommodations in the Hans Arnhold Center, partial board, and a stipend ranging from $3,500 to $5,000 per month. Fellows are expected to be in residence during the entire term of the award. Candidates are expected to have completed a doctorate or equivalent professional degree at the time of application and must be United States citizens or permanent residents. The deadline for applications is 16 October 2006. Application forms and further information may be obtained from the academy's Web site (http://www.americanacademy.de) or by writing or calling the American Academy in Berlin, Am Sandwerder 17–19, 14109 Berlin, Germany (49 30 804 83-0; fax: 49 30 804 83-111; applications@americanacademy.de).

AMERICAN ACADEMY IN ROME: Each year, through a national competition, the Rome Prize is awarded to fifteen emerging artists (working in architecture, landscape architecture, design, historic preservation and conservation, literature, musical composition, or visual arts) and fifteen scholars (working in ancient, medieval, Renaissance and early modern, or modern Italian studies). The fellowships are designed for emerging artists and for scholars in the early or middle stages of their careers. For scholars, preference will be given to applicants for whom research time in Italy, and especially in Rome, is essential and who have not had extensive prior experience there. The application deadline is 1 November. Each Rome Prize winner is provided

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory invites you to apply for its

Thirty-first Summer Session
June 17-July 27, 2007

IN NEW YORK STATE'S FINGER LAKES REGION

"The SCT program took interdisciplinarity to a whole new level. "
David Marshall
Johns Hopkins University

"Although I have studied in a number of different countries, SCT still surprised me with its exceptionally wide international range. I spent many nights with a map of the world and with an encyclopedia, just to make sure I knew the context in which to place the long conversations with my fellow participants."
Eneken Laanes
University of Tartu

"I have had a fantastic and extremely rewarding experience throughout the six weeks, and I feel that SCT has made an invaluable contribution to my development as a scholar."
Susan Antebi
Harvard University

"SCT changed not only many of my conceptions but my entire way of seeing problems."
Silvana Seabra de Oliveira
Catholic University of Minas Gerais

The Program
In an intense six-week course of study, participants from around the world, in the disciplines of literature, history, and related social sciences, explore recent developments in literary and humanistic studies.

Tuition
The fee for the session is $2500. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Acceptance
Applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide will be judged beginning March 1, 2007. Admissions are made on a rolling basis, and decisions are announced as soon as possible.

with a stipend, meals, a bedroom with private bath, and a study or studio. Winners of eleven-month fellowships receive a stipend of $21,000. Predoctoral awards, which include eleven-month and two-year fellowships, carry an annual stipend of $15,750. Applicants for all Rome Prize fellowships, except those applying for the NEH postdoctoral fellowship, must be United States citizens at the time of application. US citizens and those foreign nationals who have lived in the United States for the three years immediately preceding the application deadline may apply for the NEH postdoctoral fellowships. Graduate students in the humanities may apply only for predoctoral fellowships. To learn more about eligibility requirements and to download guidelines and application forms, please visit the academy's Web site (http://www.aarome.org) or write to American Academy in Rome, 7 East 60 St., New York, NY 10022 (212-751-7200; info@aarome.org).

Classical Society of the American Academy in Rome: Offers two scholarshhips of $3,500 each, one to a graduate student and one to a school teacher of classical languages or classical civilization, to attend the academy's classical summer school in Rome. Write to Anne Laidlaw, 415 Wingate Road, Baltimore, MD 21210 (labidlaw@juno.com) or download applications from the academy's Web page (http://www.aarome.org) under summer programs. The deadline is 15 March.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ARTS AND SCIENCES POSTDOCTORAL AND JUNIOR FACULTY FELLOWSHIPS: The American Academy of Arts and Sciences invites applications for research fellowships at its new Visiting Scholars Program. Fields of study include humanities, social sciences, statistics, international relations, law, science policy, public policy, and related areas. Strong preference will be given to proposals related to the academy's program areas: science and global security; social policy and American institutions; humanities and culture; and education. Interdisciplinary and cross-national studies are encouraged. In addition to conducting individual research, fellows will participate in conferences, seminars, and events at the academy. The stipend is $35,000 for postdoctoral scholars, $50,000 for junior faculty members. The postmark deadline for applications is 13 October 2006. For details, contact the Visiting Scholars Program, American Academy of Arts and Sciences, 136 Irving St., Cambridge, MA 02138-1996 (617 576-5034; fax: 617 576-5050; vsc@amacad.org). Application information is available on the academy's Web site (http://www.amacad.org).

AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY: The society, to make available its resources in American history and culture through 1876, awards annually a number of visiting fellowships. AAS–National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships provide six to twelve months' postdoctoral residence at the society's library, with stipends up to $40,000 for twelve months. New NEH guidelines permit the society to arrange tenure of four to five months. Legacy Fellowships provide stipends of $1,000 for one month's residence. Kate B. and Hall J. Peterson Fellowships provide monthly stipends of $1,000 for one to three months' residence at the society's library. These awards are open to individuals engaged in scholarly research and writing, including foreign nationals and persons at work on doctoral dissertations. The AAS–American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies Fellowship promotes research in any area of American eighteenth-century studies. Degree candidates are not eligible. ASECS membership is required for taking up an award but not for making application. The stipend is $1,000 per month. The Joyce A. Tracy Fellowship offers monthly stipends of $1,000 for research on newspapers and magazines or for projects using these resources as primary documentation. Stephen Botein Fellowships provide monthly stipends of $1,000 for one to two months' residence by scholars working in the history of the book in American culture. The Northeast Modern Language Association Fellowship promotes research in American literary history; NEMLA membership is required for the successful postdoctoral scholar to whom the one-month award of $1,000 is granted. The Reese Fellowship supports bibliographical research and projects in the history of the book in American culture; the one-month fellowship has a stipend of $1,000. Holding a fellowship is not a prerequisite for doing research at AAS. Scholars working on topics in American history and culture through 1876 should visit the AAS Web site for more details (http://www.americanantiquarian.org). The deadline for all competitions is 15 January. Write or call Director of Scholarly Programs, American Antiquarian Society, 185 Salisbury St., Room A, Worcester, MA 01609 (508 755-5221; fax: 508 754-9069; academicfellowships@mwa.org).

International Fellowships: Support qualified women from abroad who wish to undertake advanced studies or research in the US. Applicants must hold the equivalent of a bachelor's degree. The request deadline is 15 November. Postmark deadline is 15 December.

Selected Professions Fellowships: Awarded to women for graduate study in designated fields where female participation has been low. The request deadline is 20 December. Applications are due 10 January.

Community Action Grants: Provide funds for programs or nondegree research projects that promote education and equity for women and girls. Postmark deadline is 15 January.

AMERICAN CLASSICAL LEAGUE: Teacher-training scholarships are awarded to candidates training for certification to teach Latin. The maximum award is $750. Applicants must be members of the American Classical League. Write to the American Classical League, Maureen V. O'Donnell Scholarships, Miami Univ., Oxford, OH 45056. The deadlines are 1 December (for spring semester) and 1 March (for summer or fall semesters).

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF LEARNED SOCIETIES FELLOWSHIPS AND GRANTS: Various programs to advance research in the humanities and social sciences. Except for dissertation fellowships in American art history and in East European studies and grants for East European language training, all applicants must have the doctorate or equivalent in publications and professional experience. Application forms for most programs administered by the ACLS must be submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship Application system (OFA). OFA is accessible at http://ofa.acls.org or through the Fellowship and Grant Programs section of the ACLS Web site. Contact the Office of Fellowships and Grants, ACLS (grants@acls.org; http://www.acls.org).

ACLS Fellowships: Includes ACLS/SSRC/NEH International and Area Studies Fellowships (for scholars pursuing research on the societies and cultures of Asia, Africa, the Middle East, Latin America and the Caribbean, eastern Europe, and the former Soviet Union) and ACLS / New York Public Library Residential Fellowships. Approximately sixty awards, with maximum stipends of $30,000 for scholars at the assistant professor level, $40,000 for scholars at the associate professor level, and $50,000 for scholars at the full professor level, for conducting research projects in the humanities and humanities-related social sciences. Fellows must devote six to twelve continuous months to full-time work on their projects. Awards will be announced in March. The deadline is 30 September.

Frederick Burkhardt Residential Fellowships: For recently tenured scholars engaged in long-term, unusually ambitious projects in the humanities and humanities-related social sciences. Approximately eleven fellowships each year, with a stipend of $75,000, to support an academic year of residence at any one of ten national residential research centers. The deadline is 30 September.

Applications are invited from disciplines with a large dependence on field studies, such as archeology, anthropology, astrobiology and space science, biology, ecology, geography, geology, and paleontology, but grants will not be restricted to these fields. Grants will be available to graduate students, postdoctoral researchers, junior and senior scientists, and social scientists who wish to participate in field studies for their theses or for other purposes. Undergraduates are not eligible. Budgets should be limited to travel and related expenses, including personal field equipment. Amounts will depend on travel costs but will ordinarily be in the range of several hundred dollars up to about $5,000. The deadline is 15 March. Information and forms may be downloaded from the society's Web site (http://www.amphilsoc.org) or obtained by writing to Lewis and Clark Fund, American Philosophical Soc., 104 South 5th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106. There is no deadline; applications may be submitted at any time, and the committee for the Lewis and Clark Fund will evaluate proposals several times during the year.

AMERICAN PRINTING HISTORY ASSOCIATION FELLOWSHIP IN PRINTING HISTORY: The American Printing History Association (APHA) offers a fellowship in printing history. For 2007, an award of up to $2,000 is available for research in any area of the history of printing in all its forms, including all the arts and technologies relevant to printing, the book arts, and letter forms. Applications are especially welcome from those working in the area of American printing history, but the subject of research has no geographical or chronological limitations and may be national or regional in scope, biographical, analytical, technical, or bibliographical in nature. Printing history-related study with a recognized printer or book artist may also be supported. The fellowship can be used to pay for travel, living, and other expenses. APHA fellowships are open to persons of any nationality. Applicants are asked to submit an application form, a curriculum vitae, and a one-page proposal. Two confidential letters of recommendation specific to the fellowship should be sent separately by the recommenders. Submission of materials by electronic mail or fax is not acceptable. The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of support is 1 December 2006. An application form is available at the APHA Web site (http://www.printinghistory.org) or by writing to Fellowship Committee, APHA, PO Box 4519, Grand Central Sta., New York, NY 10163.

AMERICAN PSYCHOANALYTIC ASSOCIATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM: Seeking outstanding psychiatrists, psychologists, clinical social workers, and academics at various levels of training who are curious about how the mind works, who consider psychoanalytic thinking important for the future of their professional disciplines, and who are likely to become, or already are, leaders in their fields. Applicants may be nominated by their department chairs or program directors. When not applicable, self-nominations are encouraged; and reapplications are permitted. Applicants must be training or working in the United States during the fellowship year. Nominees must have demonstrated leadership ability in their discipline; special aptitude in research, teaching, or clinical endeavors; and special interest in psychodynamics, psychoanalysis, or applied psychoanalysis. Applications must show how the nominee's interest in the mind has developed and how that interest will be applied and influence others in the nominee's field in the future. All applicants, whether or not they receive fellowships, are assigned mentors who are psychoanalysts and members of the American Psychoanalytic Association. Applicants meet regularly with their mentors and develop programs to further their clinical, scholarly, and research interests. All fellows have their expenses paid to attend the association's biannual national meetings. Fellows are invited to attend the meetings' scientific sessions and to present clinical and other material at a variety of workshops and seminars. Applications may be downloaded at http://www.apsa.org/fellows. The deadline is 16 February. For other information about the fellowship program, contact Carolyn Gatto (cgatto@apsa.org).

New books from YALE—

NOTEBOOKS
Tennessee Williams
Edited by Margaret Bradham Thornton

"Here we have Tennessee Williams on and about Tennessee Williams, more revealing even than the Letters and sometimes more vulnerable than in the Memoirs. Thornton has supplied a masterfully edited, copiously annotated, and lavishly illustrated edition that is invaluable for scholars and Williams fans worldwide."
—Philip C. Kolin 167 color + 240 b/w illus. $40.00

FIGHTING WINDMILLS
Encounters with Don Quixote
Manuel Durán and Fay R. Rogg

"Fighting Windmills begins as an illumination of the Quixote in terms of the life and era of Cervantes. Durán and Rogg then trace the immense influence of Don Quixote upon major European literature from Voltaire to Dostoyevsky, and upon American writing from Melville to Thurber. This book instructs while it entertains, and the reverse as well."—Harold Bloom $30.00

ROBERT SOUTHEY
Man of Letters
W. A. Speck

This lively new biography reveals a more complex man than previously assumed and one whose writings and political views had greater impact than has been recognized.

"Clearly the best biography of Southey ever written."—Lynda Pratt $45.00

A DICTIONARY OF CONTINENTAL PHILOSOPHY
Edited by John Protevi

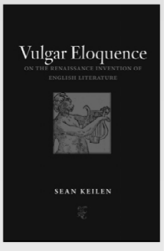

"This dictionary is marked by an unusual comprehensiveness that makes it of considerable value to specialists and students alike. I know of nothing comparable to it."—Stanley Rosen $75.00

OBSOLETE OBJECTS IN THE LITERARY IMAGINATION
Ruins, Relics, Rarities, Rubbish, Uninhabited Places, and Hidden Treasures
Francesco Orlando
Translated from the Italian by Gabriel Pihas and Daniel Seidel, with the Collaboration of Alessandra Grego
Foreword by David Quint

"[This book] is one of a kind: already a classic in the field of comparative literature, its examples and case studies, analyzed with rare critical intelligence and subtlety, range across nearly every European language and literary tradition."—David Quint, from the foreword $45.00

VULGAR ELOQUENCE
On the Renaissance Invention of English Literature
Sean Keilen

"Keilen possesses an original, unclassifiable intelligence. He weaves elegantly philological arguments about the antique into a counterplot that illuminates a nativist, unrefined, and hybrid early modern England. Vulgar Eloquence will make us rethink the Spenser-to-Shakespeare-to-Milton canon, not by throwing out classicism and tradition, but by redefining it."—Leonard Barkan $40.00

THE YALE BOOK OF QUOTATIONS
Fred R. Shapiro

With more than 12,000 entries, this reader-friendly quotation book is the first to emphasize modern and American quotations, to use state-of-the-art research methods to capture famous quotations, and to trace sources of quotations to their true origins.
93 illus. $50.00

YALE FRENCH STUDIES, NUMBER 109
Surrealism and Its Others
Edited by Katharine Conley and Pierre Taminiaux

This volume examines the works and theories of an array of writers, artists, and thinkers who engage in dialogue with André Breton's surrealism.
$22.00 paperback

Printed, Signed, and Spoken Words

Printer's Devil

Mark Twain and the American Publishing Revolution

BRUCE MICHELSON

Trained as a printer when still a boy, and thrilled throughout his life by the automation of printing and the expansion of American publishing, Mark Twain wrote about the consequences of this revolution for culture and for personal identity. Printer's Devil is the first book to explore these themes in some of Twain's best-known literary works, and in his most daring speculations—on American society, the modern condition, and the nature of the self.

Introduction to Chinese Dialectology

Margaret Mian Yan
Indiana University

Introduction to Chinese Dialectology intends to give a comprehensive account of the studies on Chinese dialects tracing from the first Chinese dialect study of Yang Xiong's Fangyan "Dialect" to present works, covering mainly phonological and lexical features.

It investigates the dialect research from historical and theoretical linguistic perspectives. Topics include: the classification of Chinese dialects, dialect studies in different periods, the criteria for the dialect classification as proposed by different scholars, discussions on the Chinese dialectology from philological, descriptive, generative and computational quantifying approaches, and the contributions of Chinese dialectology to the general linguistic theories. The main text devotes to the description of the major phonological characteristics and distributions of the major dialects, supplemented by fourteen sketch dialect maps and over one hundred tables of dialect data for easier reading and comparisons. Each chapter is supported by exercises, which basically is in the form of contrastive and comparative linguistic analysis nature.

Ch 1: Background of Chinese Dialectology. Ch 2: Modern Period of Dialectology I. Ch 3: Modern Period of Dialectology II. Ch 4: Major Dialect Groups. References. Summary of Phonological Rules. Index.

A Grammar of Shanghai Wu

Xiaonong Zhu
Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

The Wu dialect of Chinese is used by 80 million people in eastern China. Shanghai is the lingua franca of Wu, and is the least conservative among Wu dialects. This book is a descriptive grammar of Shanghai Wu, concise but comprehensive. It covers various topics in Shanghai grammar: the phonological system, morphology, and syntax. In addition, two special topics in Shanghai grammar, tone sandhi and compounding, are included. Tone sandhi in Shanghai is a morpho-phonological process to produce prosodic words, while compounding is a syntactic means to make lexical words. Like other Chinese dialects, Shanghai is an isolating language. There is no grammatical agreement or case markers, nor tense, gender or numeral differences, or anything like those called inflection in European languages. That does not mean there are no morphological processes at all: reduplication, tone sandhi, and affixation are common in Shanghai. Of course, compounding is the most productive in making new words. Morphologically and syntactically Shanghai has something different from Mandarin. For example, adjective reduplication in Shanghai is AAB, while it is ABB in Mandarin. The word order in Shanghai is 'V + direct O + indirect O', different from Mandarin's 'V + indirect O + direct O'.

Ch 1: Introduction. Ch 2: Syllable and Phonology. Ch 3: Tone Sandhi and Prosodic Word. Ch 4: Word and Morphology. Ch 5: Compounds. Ch 6: Syntax. Ch 7: Sample Text. References.

ISBN 3 89586 900 7 Languages of the World/Materials 322. 190pp. USD 86.00. 2006.

Ecritures du moi et ideologies chez les romancieres francophones:

Claire Etcherelli, Gabrielle Roy,Were Were Liking et Delphine Zanga Tsogo.

Alice Delphine Tang
Université de Yaoundé1

Les écritures du moi sont en général des "autobiographies d'auteurs qui laissent apparaître, soit sur la couverture soit dans le texte, des marques distinctives qui les définissent comme étant des biographies. Par exemple, Gabrielle ROY a écrit certains textes ayant la mention "autobiographie". Mais d'autres comme son roman CES ENFANTS DE MA VIE qui est même présenté comme un recueil de nouvelles ne portent pas cette mention. Notre étude montre que certains romans de fiction de ces quatre romancières sont des textes qui parlent de la vie et de l'expérience vécues par leurs auteurs.

L'étude en question combine les méthodes socio-historiques aux méthodes textuelles pour découvrir la richesse de l'art à travers un matériau qui colle à la réalité, à l'histoire. Enfin, comme les récits de reportage et les récits autobiographiques sont considérés comme de simples témoignages d'une vie, ici l'écrivain va au délà d'un témoignage: il exprime une vision du monde, une idéologie. A travers leurs expériences personnelles ces romancières mènent des combats humanistes avec diverses orientations. Ceux-ci ne sont pas nécessairement féministes. Il s'agit de promouvoir une communication inter-humaine.

FIVE COLLEGE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM FOR MINORITY SCHOLARS: Located in Western Massachusetts, the five schools—Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts—associate as members of a consortium, Five Colleges, Incorporated. The Five College Fellowship Program provides a year in residence at one of the campuses for minority graduate students in the final phase of the doctoral degree. The purposes of the program are to enable fellows to complete their dissertation, to encourage their interest in college teaching, and to acquaint them with the schools. Each fellow is hosted within an appropriate department or program at one of the five colleges. (At Smith, recipients hold a Mendenhall Fellowship.) The fellowship includes a stipend of $30,000, office space, housing or housing assistance, research funds, and library privileges at the five colleges. While the award places primary emphasis on completion of the dissertation, most fellows teach at the hosting institution (but no more than a single one-semester course). The dates of the fellowship are 1 September 2007 to 31 May 2008 (nonrenewable). For further information about the deadline and application materials, contact neckert@fivecolleges.edu or call 413 256-8316.

FOLGER INSTITUTE: Graduate students and faculty members from affiliated institutions are eligible to apply for grants-in-aid funded in large part by those universities' membership fees. Support is available to fund travel to seminars and some lodging expenses. Applicants for travel aid should see their campus representatives to the institute's Central Executive Committee. In collaboration with the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies, the institute also awards one ASECS–Folger Institute fellowship a year to a scholar researching the period 1660 to 1815. For more information and a list of affiliated institutions, write or call Kathleen Lynch, Folger Inst., 201 East Capitol St., SE, Washington, DC 20003-1094 (202 675-0333; fax: 202 544-4623; institute@folger.edu; http://www.folger.edu).

FRANKEL INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED JEWISH STUDIES: The University of Michigan's Frankel Institute for Advanced Judaic Studies announces its theme for the coming year: Jews and the City. Applications for semester- or year-long residence are invited from scholars working in any period or discipline related to the topic. Scholars are invited to explore diasporic cities, sacred space, religious practices, and cities of the mind and are encouraged to examine the intersections of gender and sexuality, commerce and entertainment, politics and public culture, labor and domesticity, and class and religion as mediated through urban spaces. Welcome is work concerning interethnic relations, identity formation, ethnicity, cultural production, and imagination. The application deadline is 20 October 2006. For more information and to download an application, please contact Anita Norich (734 763-9047; JudaicStudies@umich.edu) or visit the institute's Web site (http://www.lsa.umich.edu/Judaic).

FRIENDS OF THE LONGFELLOW HOUSE: The collections of the Longfellow National Historic Site (Vassall-Craigie-Longfellow House) in Cambridge, Massachusetts, include a significant archive of materials (letters, photographs, material objects) on a variety of subjects from the seventeenth to early twentieth century. To encourage the use of these archives and collections, the Friends of the Longfellow House have established two annual fellowships with stipends of $1,000: the Diana Korzenik Fellowship and the Stanley Paterson Fellowship. Both stipends are intended to help defray the living or travel expenses of researchers who wish to come to the Cambridge/Boston area to use the Longfellow House archives/collections as well as related archives such as those in the Houghton Library at Harvard or at the Massachusetts Historical Society in Boston. Recipients are requested to be in residence in the Cambridge/Boston area for at least a two-week period at any time from November through September while conducting their research. At some later time the recipient is requested to send the Friends a copy of the results in a published or unpublished form or, possibly, present the results in a talk to the Friends and the public. The application deadline is 30 September. To be considered for either fellowship, applicants should submit a single completed Korzenik/Paterson application form, a brief (1–3 pp.) project description, and a curriculum vitae. These materials are available online at http://longfellowfriends.org. The project proposal should include an account of how the applicant intends to use archival materials located in the Longfellow House and Cambridge/Boston area and the other sources of funding the applicant has or expects to receive to support this project. All requests for further information should be sent by e-mail to Robert Mitchell (mitchell@clarku.edu). Mail requests and completed applications should be sent to Mitchell, 26 Farrar St., Cambridge, MA 02138.

FRIENDS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN, MADISON, LIBRARY GRANTS-IN-AID: A minimum of four grants-in-aid annually, each of one month's duration, for research in the humanities in any field appropriate to the library's collections. Each grantee receives $1,500 and is expected to be in residence during the term of the award, which may be taken up at any time during the year. An additional sum of $500 is available for those traveling from outside continental North America. Applications are due 1 February. For application forms or more information, see http://giving.library.wisc.edu/friends/grant-in-aid.shtml or write to Friends of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Library, 976 Memorial Library, 728 State St., Univ. of Wisconsin, Madison 53706, or contact Thomas H. Introducing a new series:

SUBTERRANEAN LIVES

Subterranean Lives reprints first-person accounts from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries by members of oppositional or stigmatized subcultures; memoirs by men and women who lived, whether by circumstance, inclination, or design, outside of the bounds of normative bourgeois experience. Each volume presents either a book-length memoir or a selection of shorter texts in their entirety, together with an introduction and notes.

THE HASHEESH EATER

Being Passages from the Life of a Pythagorean
Fitz Hugh Ludlow
Edited and with an introduction by
Stephen Rachman

First published in 1857, The Hasheesh Eater was the first full-length American example of drug literature. Since then, it has become a cult classic.

INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR ADVANCED STUDIES AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY: Fellowships for the center's project on the authority of social knowledge in a global age. The project, which welcomes applications from scholars with PhDs at all career stages in any social science or humanities discipline from the United States and abroad, seeks to examine the production, circulation, and practical import of knowledge generated in the various disciplines of social inquiry. What are the costs of the growing divide between social science inquiry and humanistic scholarship? What are the implications of the growing dominance of US-based models of social inquiry for the understanding of other cultures and for the fundamental concepts of political experience and inquiry. The stipend is $35,000 for nine months and includes eligibility for NYU housing. See http://www.nyu.edu/gsas/dept/icas for more information and application forms or write to the center (fax: 212 995-4546; icas@nyu.edu).

IREX (INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH AND EXCHANGES BOARD): For further information on all programs, contact IREX, 2121 K St., NW, Suite 700, Washington, DC 20037 (202 628-8188; fax: 202 628-8189; irex@irex.org; http://www.irex.org).

Individual Advanced Research Opportunities Program: Grants for US predoctoral scholars, postdoctoral scholars, and professionals with terminal degrees of up to nine months for research in the social sciences in Europe and Eurasia. Limited funding is available for projects in the humanities. Grants of one to three months are available to master's students for research on policy-relevant theses or equivalent projects. Application deadline: 1 November for participation the following academic year.

Short-Term Travel Grants Program: Grants of up to $3,500 for up to two months of independent research in Europe and Eurasia for postdoctoral scholars and professionals with terminal degrees. Successful projects must make a substantive contribution to knowledge of the contemporary political, economic, historical, or cultural developments in the region and must demonstrate how such knowledge is relevant to US foreign policy. Application deadline: 1 February.

John J. and Nancy Lee Roberts Fellowship Program: A single grant of up to $30,000 for research projects lasting up to twelve months. Each year applications will be accepted for specific fields and countries. Contact IREX for more information. Application deadline: 15 March.

KEATS-SHELLEY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA: The association awards two Carl H. Pforzheimer Jr. Research Grants of $2,500 each to advanced graduate students, independent scholars, and untenured faculty members pursuing research on British Romanticism and literary culture between 1789 and 1832, with preference given to projects involving authors and subjects featured in the Keats-Shelley Journal bibliography. The deadline is 1 November. Further information and application forms may be obtained at http://www.rc.umd.edu/ksaa/pfzgrant.html, or applicants may write to Grants Committee, Keats-Shelley Assocation of America, Inc., New York Public Library, Room 226, 476 5th Ave., New York, NY 10018-2788.

KOREA FOUNDATION PROGRAM: The Korea Foundation, a public nonprofit organization based in Seoul, Korea, carries out various academic and cultural exchange programs to improve awareness and understanding of Korea. In particular, the foundation promotes research and teaching on Korea in major university centers and research institutes of the world. To expand academic interest in the field of Korean studies, the foundation extends support to encourage and aid professors, researchers, and graduate students in the humanities and social sciences for their research work on Korea. Detailed information about fellowship programs is available at http://www.kf.or.kr.

KOSCIUSZKO FOUNDATION: Tuition scholarships for graduate study in the United States, and for exchange programs to Poland are available to US citizens of Polish descent, Polish citizens who have permanent-resident status in the United States, and persons of non-Polish background who are majoring in Polish subjects. Undergraduate sophomores through MA and PhD students (but not at the dissertation level) may apply for a scholarship to spend a year at the Institute of Polish Diaspora and Ethnic Studies, Jagiellonian University in Krakow; candidates for doctoral degrees and university faculty members may apply for academic-year grants to pursue studies and research at accredited institutions of higher learning in Poland. The deadline for tuition scholarships is 15 January. The deadline for year-abroad and studies and research in Poland scholarships is 15 December. Applications for exchange to Poland scholarships must be accompanied by a nonrefundable processing fee of $50; the application fee for tuition scholarships is $25. Various other scholarships and grants are also available to Americans of Polish heritage. Write or call Grants Office, Kosciuszko Foundation, 15 East 65th St., New York, NY 10021-6595 (212 734-2130, ext. 210). Most applications are available from September to December on the Internet (http://www.kosciuszkofoundation.org). Most scholarship awards are announced in May. Funding is for the Fall 2007–Spring 2008 academic year.

LIBRARY COMPANY OF PHILADELPHIA, HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND BALCH INSTITUTE FOR ETHNIC STUDIES: Jointly-sponsored doctoral and postdoctoral research fellowships in American history and culture in residence at these libraries. Stipends are $1,800 for one month. Long-term fellowships carry stipends of $17,500 to $40,000. The deadline is 1 March (except for long-term postdoctoral fellowships, which have a 1 November deadline). Write or call James Green, Librarian, Library Co. of Philadelphia, 1314 Locust St., Philadelphia, PA 19107 (215 546-3181; fax: 215 546-5167; jgreen@librarycompany.org; http://www.librarycompany.org or http://www.hsp.org).

LINGUISTIC INSTITUTE FELLOWSHIPS: Grants for undergraduate and graduate students of linguistics. Grants generally cover tuition; recipients are required to enroll full-time at the institute. LSA Summer Linguistic Institutes are held at various universities throughout the country during the summers of odd-numbered years. The 2007 institute will be hosted by Stanford University. Deadline: 11 February 2007. Write to the Linguistic Inst. Fellowships, LSA Secretariat, 1325 18th St., NW, Suite 211, Washington, DC 20036. Forms will be available in June of even-numbered years.

WILLIAM MORRIS SOCIETY IN THE UNITED STATES: The Joseph R. Dunlap Memorial Fellowship supports scholarly, creative, and translation projects about William Morris and his designs, writings, and other work. Up to $1,000 per year is granted to individuals (there can be multiple, partial awards) for research and other expenses, including travel to conferences. Projects may deal with any subject—biographical, literary, historical, social, artistic, political, typographical—relating to Morris and may be scholarly or creative in nature. In addition, at the committee's discretion one or two William Morris Society Awards may be offered each year for a total of up to $1,000. Applicants for all awards may be from any country; applications are particularly encouraged from younger members of the society and from those at the beginning of their careers. Recipients need not have an academic or institutional appointment, and the PhD is not required. Applicants should send to the society a two-page description of their projects, including a timeline and an indication of where the results might be published, along with a c.v. and at least one letter of recommendation. The deadline for applications is 15 December. Send applications to Florence Boos, William Morris Soc. in the United States, Dept. of English, Univ. of Iowa, Iowa City 52242 (us@morrissociety.org). Submissions by e-mail are preferred, although supporting documents may be sent by regular post.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF ENGLISH RESEARCH FOUNDATION: Grants for research on the teaching and learning of English, including language arts and related fields. The deadline is 15 February. Applicants must be NCTE members. Write to the Project Coordinator, NCTE, 1111 West Kenyon Road, Urbana, IL 61801.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES: The endowment's grant-making operations are conducted through four divisions and two offices. Through grants to educational institutions and opportunities for teachers, the Division of Education Programs is designed to strengthen sustained, thoughtful study of the humanities at all levels of education. Through fellowships to individual scholars and support of collaborative projects, the Division of Research Programs promotes significant original research in the humanities. In the Division of Public Programs the projects in Media, Museums, and Historical Organizations and the Humanities Projects in Libraries support humanities projects for the out-of-school public. The Division of Preservation and Access makes grants for projects that will create, preserve, and increase the availability of resources important for research, education, and public programming in the humanities. The Office of Federal/State Partnership makes grants to citizens' committees in each state to provide support for local humanities projects. Nonprofit institutions interested in developing new sources of long-term support for humanities programs may seek assistance from the Office of Challenge Grants.

General eligibility: The endowment supports the work of individual scholars and not-for-profit institutions and organizations engaged in projects involving the humanities. Those institutions include universities; four-year colleges; junior and community colleges; elementary and secondary schools; educational, cultural, professional, and community groups; museums and historical organizations; libraries; public agencies; and public radio and television stations. The endowment welcomes applications for support from all such institutions and groups, from individual US citizens with or without academic affiliation, and from foreign nationals who have been living in the US or its territories for at least three years at the time of application. Fields of support: According to the act that established the endowment, the humanities include, but are not limited to, the following fields: history, philosophy, language, linguistics, literature, archaeology, jurisprudence, history and criticism of the arts, ethics, comparative religion, and those aspects of the social sciences employing historical or philosophical approaches. This last category includes cultural anthropology, sociology, political theory, and international relations. Gifts-and-matching grants: An applicant may sometimes be offered a "gifts-and-matching" grant as a supplement to an outright grant or as the sole form of endowment support. When the endowment offers to support a project through one of these grants, it is up to the grantee to raise gifts from outside his or her own organization to a level approved by the endowment. The endowment then matches this money with federal funds, but the total sum that can be federally matched is limited by the annual congressional appropriations for that purpose. Challenge grants: These grants offer one federal dollar for every three or four raised from nonfederal sources. Proposed expenditures that support capital growth and financial stability will receive priority. Other items that may be covered are renovation of facilities and administrative and program costs attributable to the humanities. Deadlines: Applicants (except fellowship applicants) should submit

Unless the Threat of Death Is Behind Them

Hard-Boiled Fiction and Film Noir
John T. Irwin

"Irwin's analysis of five American crime novels from the Thirties and Forties and his insightful discussion of the 'noir' films based on them cast new light on the qualities of these 'hard-boiled' classics. The surprising affinities he uncovers that link these works with other examples of American 'main-line' fiction will surely increase the reader's perception of the inherent seriousness at the heart of these genre entertainments."

The deadline is 1 December.

SEX, RACE, AND GLOBALIZATION PROJECT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA: The Committee on Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Studies at the University of Arizona offers two Rockefeller Humanities Residency Fellowships for the academic year. The Sex, Race, and Globalization (SRG) project explores the imbrication of sexuality, gender, and race with economic, political, and informational processes across local, regional, national, and transnational scales. Noting that global movements of capital, information, and people are facilitated, blocked, and diverted by sexual, racial, and national categories, even as cultural formations are reshaped by globalization, we seek to describe and explain the links between exploitative economic processes and structures of sexual, gendered, and racial inequality. Recognizing that globalization is a transformation of prior systems of global economic and political interaction, we welcome applications from scholars working in or across various historical periods. While the SRG project sustains the commitment of lesbian and gay studies to recognizing the significance of sexuality, we seek to develop alliances among identity and area studies fields and, therefore, welcome applications from scholars who have not worked in the context of lesbian and gay studies. Fellows receive a stipend of $35,000, travel and research funds ($5,000), a moving allowance ($2,000), an office, and full access to university libraries, computer systems, recreational facilities, and the many scholarly and cultural programs offered across the university. Application deadline is 1 December. For more information and application guidelines, call or write the Committee on Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Studies (520 626-3431; lgbs@u.arizona.edu; http://www.arizona.edu/~lgbcom).

CREOLE AMERICA

The West Indies and the Formation of Literature and Culture in the New Republic

Sean X. Goudie

"This startling book brings more fully to light the hold that the West Indies had on the American imagination in the era of the new republic and, as such, moves away from an idea of American exceptionalism to one of conflicted, trans-Caribbean notions of identity that affect the production of texts in a variety of genres: nonfiction prose, novel, poetry, and drama. By selecting relatively few texts to highlight, Goudie is able to provide rich and thick readings of those texts, fully contextualizing them in their literary, political, and historical registers, and in each case offers material that is refreshingly new and provocative."—Jeffrey H. Richards, author of Drama, Theatre, and Identity in the American New Republic

2006 | 288 pages | Cloth | $55.00

OPTIQUES

The Science of the Eye and the Birth of Modern French Fiction

Andrea Goulet

Goulet argues that modern narrative forms are crucially structured by scientific and philosophical debates about the nature of vision. With its chronological and interdisciplinary scope, Optiques stands to contribute an important chapter to the study of literary modernity in its scientific context.

STRANGERS NOWHERE IN THE WORLD

The Rise of Cosmopolitanism in Early Modern Europe

Margaret C. Jacob

Drawing on sources as various as Inquisition records and spy reports, minutes of scientific societies and the writings of political revolutionaries, Margaret C. Jacob reveals a moment in European history when an ideal of cultural openness came to seem strong enough to counter centuries of prevailing chauvinism and xenophobia.

2006 | 200 pages | 9 illus. | Cloth | $34.95

RECLAIMING AUTHORSHIP

Literary Women in America, 1850–1900

Susan S. Williams

"Reclaiming Authorship augments our knowledge of the female literary tradition and enriches our grasp of the process by which women authors sought public status in a literary publishing marketplace which was (and remains) customarily considered to be a masculine realm. It challenges, moreover, basic tenets of the origins of realism and does so by positing a definable historical transition from the romantic and sentimental to the realist."—Cecelia Tichi, Vanderbilt University

What do these three authors have in common?

World Literature Today — a classic American magazine that some people still don't know about. Each writer made his mark on the literary world during the 1920s, and each appeared in the pages of World Literature Today.

World Literature Today Then...

Established to promote international understanding through literary study, World Literature Today has devoted itself to the discussion of current literature around the world for the past 80 years. Drawing on the resources of over 600 specialists in the United States and abroad, WLT has provided valuable insight and lively commentary concerning some of the world's finest authors, including Federico García Lorca, Pablo Neruda, Bertolt Brecht, Samuel Beckett, Ralph Ellison, Naguib Mahfouz, Chinua Achebe, Günter Grass, Vladimir Nabokov, Mercè Rodoreda, Kenzaburō Ōe, Gabriel García Márquez, N. Scott Momaday, Nadine Gordimer, Czeslaw Milosz, J.M. Coetzee, Alice Walker, and Adam Zagajewski (just to name a few).

...and Now

World Literature Today continues in its mission with expanded coverage of the arts and humanities. In addition to in-depth coverage of literature from around the world, you'll also find information and essays about music, art, dance, film, and politics. And when you subscribe, you'll receive 6 issues for just $20. No wonder the Christian Science Monitor says WLT "may be the most cosmopolitan magazine in the United States." Isn't it time you learned more about World Literature Today? Subscribe today!

any aspect of the Italian Renaissance. Stipends are issued according to individual needs and the availability of funds and do not exceed $50,000. Two short-term (2–3 months) fellowship opportunities are also available. One is intended for scholars from Eastern Europe (Bosnia-Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Poland, Romania, Slovakia, and Slovenia). The other is intended primarily for museum curators who hold demanding positions that permit little time for research and who wish to embark on a project that promises to yield original results. The deadline for all fellowships is 15 October. Application materials are available at http://www.itatti.it.

VIRGINIA FOUNDATION FOR THE HUMANITIES: Fellowships for research and writing in the humanities. Priority to subjects that apply the humanities to issues of broad public interest: humanities and science, violence and culture, and cross-cultural issues. Issues of religious and intellectual freedom and expression, the environment, and literary and historical research on Virginia and the South Atlantic. Proposals on other topics are accepted and reviewed. Stipends are up to $15,000 a semester. The foundation encourages applications from affiliated and independent scholars. The deadline is 15 October. Write or call the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, 145 Ednam Dr., Charlottesville 22903 (434 924-3296; aspencer@virginia.edu), or visit the center's Web site (http://virginiafoundation.org).

ROBERT PENN WARREN CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES, VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY: One-year research fellowship for a scholar interested in participating in a broadly interdisciplinary faculty seminar as a visiting fellow at the Warren Center. The fellowship pays a stipend of up to $40,000. The seminar will be codirected by Vanderbilt University faculty members Carolyn Dever (English) and Gregg Horowitz (philosophy). The application deadline is 18 January 2007. For more information, contact Mona Frederick, Executive Director, Warren Center, Box 1534, Sta. B, Vanderbilt Univ., Nashville, TN 37235, or visit the center's Web site (http://www.vanderbilt.edu/rpw_center).

WOODROW WILSON INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR SCHOLARS: From 20 to 25 residential fellowships for advanced research in the humanities and social sciences on topics that intersect with public policy. Men and women from any country and from a wide variety of backgrounds (including government, the corporate world, and the professions, as well as academe) may apply. A very good command of spoken English is required. Applicants must hold doctorates or have equivalent professional accomplishments. Fellows are provided offices, access to the Library of Congress and other research facilities, computers, and part-time research assistants. Stipends range from $23,000 to $85,000. The application deadline is 1 October. Application materials are available on-line at the Woodrow Wilson Center Web site (http://www.wilsoncenter.org) or by writing Scholar Selection and Services, 1 Woodrow Wilson Plaza, 1300 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20004-3027 (202 691-4170; fax: 202 691-4001; lyonrd@wwic.si.edu).

WINTERTHUR RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS IN AMERICAN ART, HISTORY, AND CULTURE: Winterthur is a public museum and garden that supports approximately twenty-five visiting scholars each year in several programs: NEH fellowships for senior scholars (up to $40,000 for 4–12 months), Lois F. McNeil dissertation fellowships ($7,000 per semester), short-term (1–3 month) fellowships ($1,500 per month). Winterthur's collections include primarily American material, with supporting material in British and Continental art and culture. The library holds half a million imprints, manuscripts, visual sources, and printed ephemera for research from the seventeenth through the early twentieth century. The museum includes 86,000 domestic artifacts and works of art made or used in America to 1860. The collections support research in such subjects as the history of manners, the body, travel and tourism, domestic life, women's and men's culture, and childhood and in art history, material culture, and decorative arts. For information and online library catalog, http://www.winterthur.org. Application deadline for the May 2007–August 2008 fellowship year is 15 January 2007. Information and application forms are also available from Research Fellowship Program, Office of Academic Studies, Winterthur Museum, Garden, and Library, Winterthur, DE 19735 (302 888-4649; academicprograms@winterthur.org).

WOMEN'S CAUCUS FOR THE MODERN LANGUAGES: Offers a $400 travel grant to a graduate student who has had a paper accepted for presentation at the MLA Annual Convention and who is a member of the WCML. For information on applying for the grant (and on becoming a member of the WCML, if necessary), write to Roseanna Dufault, Dept. of Modern Languages, Ohio Northern Univ., Ada 45810 (r-dufault@onu.edu). The deadline is 15 October.

YALE CENTER FOR BRITISH ART: Short-term resident fellowships for scholars engaged in postdoctoral or predoctoral (ABD) research related to British art. Fellowships include travel costs and provide accommodations and a living allowance. By arrangement with the Huntington Library, scholars may apply for tandem awards. The deadline is 15 January. Write to the Head of Research, Yale Center for British Art, Box 208280, New Haven, CT 06520-8280 (203 432-2850; http://www.yale.edu/ycba).

YALE UNIVERSITY AGRARIAN STUDIES: An interdisciplinary program in agrarian studies will offer four to five visiting research fellowships for 2007–08. The program is designed to maximize the links between Western and non-Western studies, contemporary work and historical work, and the social sciences and the humanities in the context of research on rural life and society. Fellowship awards are $40,000. The broad theme is Hinterlands, Frontiers, Cities, and States: Transactions and Identities. The deadline for 2007–08 is 5 January 2007. Write to James C. Scott, Program in Agrarian Studies, Box 208209, Yale Univ., New Haven, CT 06520-8209 (fax: 203 432-5036; agrarianstudies@yale.edu; http://www.yale.edu/agrarianstudies).

A One-Year M.A. Program in Spanish and Latin American Languages and Culture with a Concentration in Either Spanish and Latin American Literatures and Cultures or Spanish Language and Translation

Drawing on the resources of NYU, the city of Madrid, and professors from both Spanish universities and the NYU Department of Spanish and Portuguese in New York, we offer a newly redesigned M.A. program that is both intellectually stimulating and academically rigorous. M.A. candidates study at El Viso, a residential area of Madrid very close to the center of the city, as well as at the historic Instituto Internacional. The new site boasts state-of-the-art classrooms and computer facilities. Upon approval, students may also choose to take courses at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid.

Course offerings include

The yearlong course, A Cultural History of Spain and Latin America, is taught by faculty from leading Spanish universities and from the NYU Department of Spanish and Portuguese in New York. Courses in the Literatures and Cultures Concentration range from Jews in Medieval Spain, Cervantes, Pictorial Traditions in Spain and Its Latin American Colonies—16th-18th Centuries to electives on 20th-century Spanish and Latin American literatures. Offerings for the Language and Translation Concentration include The Theory and Practice of Translation, Problems in Spanish Syntax for Bilingual Communication, and The Teaching of Spanish as a Foreign Language. All courses are taught in Spanish.

NYU in Madrid also offers an undergraduate program for the academic year, fall, spring, or summer. Courses are taught in Spanish and English.

THE BEST IN INTERNATIONAL LITERATURE

ONLY IN THE MEANTIME & OFFICE POEMS - Uruguayan Poetry
One of Latin America's most widely-read writers, Uruguay's Mario Benedetti has dazzled the literary world as a poet, novelist, essayist, critic, journalist, playwright, songwriter, and screenwriter. This first ever bilingual edition of Only in the Meantime & Office Poems (translated by Harry Morales) introduces Benedetti's poetry to the English-speaking audience. Opening as reflections of everyday life in Montevideo, the poetry blossoms into an art which speaks to all people from all walks of life. Benedetti's extraordinary handling of irony and simplicity alongside his poetry's unmistakable rhythm make him one of the most brilliant observers of 20th century life.

$12.00 softcover / 87 pages

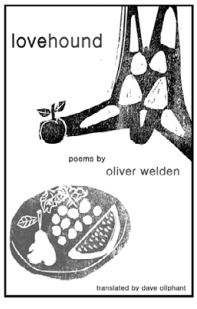

3 CONTEMPORARY BRAZILIAN PLAYS 2nd Edition - Brazilian Drama
This exciting bilingual volume of Brazilian theater includes three plays written by some of the nation's most creative dramatists. Plínio Marcos's Two Lost in the Filthy Night shows language as the only possession of two paupers living in claustrophobic conditions. Leilah Assumpção's Moist Lips, Quiet Passion explores the sexual life of a couple trying to achieve their "Big Orgasm," where existence is possible only through games. In Walking Papers, by Consuelo de Castro, a man and a woman interact in fragmented situations bordering on insanity. This revised edition includes improved translation, updated commentary and a new introduction.

$50.00 hardcover / $25.00 softcover / 475 pages

FOURTEEN FEMALE VOICES FROM BRAZIL - Brazilian Drama, Prose & Poetry
This fascinating introduction to Brazilian culture includes interviews with 14 of Brazil's most prominent writers along with excerpts of their work. Containing 11 stories, 3 plays and 19 poems, 14 Female Voices From Brazil opens the door to 14 unique perspectives on life, art and love. From Brazil's early groundbreaking feminists to the newly emerging voice of young Afro-Brazilians, 14 Female Voices From Brazil brings English speakers a tantalizing slice of Brazilian cultural life.

$35.00 hardcover / $17.50 softcover / 309 pages

LOVE HOUND - Chilean Poetry
Despite being virtually unavailable since its original publication in 1970, Perro del amor (Love Hound) has greatly influenced the rich tradition of Chilean literature. Written three years before the military overthrow of the government by Augusto Pinochet, these poems offer concise but penetrating language that still resonates today. Opening with spare meditations on solitude, suicide and murder the volume then reflects on degraded familial relationships ending in a powerful evocation of the erotic. This bilingual collection offers an emotional landscape rarely seen in poetry

ALFRED A. KNOPF - PANTHEON - SCHOCKEN

Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o

WIZARD OF THE CROW

From the exiled Kenyan novelist, playwright, poet, and literary critic comes a magisterial comic novel that is certain to take its place as a landmark of postcolonial African literature. Commencing in "our times" and set in the "Free Republic of Aburlria," the novel dramatizes with corrosive humor and keenness of observation a battle for control of the souls of the Aburlrian people. Informed by richly enigmatic traditional African storytelling, Wizard of the Crow is a masterpiece, the crowning achievement in Ngũgĩ's career thus far.

PANTHEON | CLOTH | 784 PAGES | $30.00

THE ANCHOR BOOK OF MODERN ARABIC FICTION

Edited by Denys Johnson-Davies

A distinguished array of Arab voices ring out from this landmark anthology. Spanning the full history of modern Arabic literature, from its roots at the end of the nineteenth century, to the present-day flowering of Naguib Mahfouz's literary sons and daughters, here are 79 writers from all over the Arab world, diverse in their styles and concerns, but all united by a common language.

ANCHOR | PAPER | 448 PAGES | $15.95

Marjane Satrapi

CHICKEN WITH PLUMS

From the acclaimed author of the best-selling Persepolis books, here is Marjane Satrapi's most accomplished and emotionally powerful work yet—the story of her great-uncle, a celebrated Iranian musician who gave up his life for music and love. The poignant story of one man, it is also a story of stunning universality—an altogether luminous book.

PANTHEON | CLOTH | 96 PAGES | $16.95

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

HALF OF A YELLOW SUN

Epic, ambitious, and triumphantly realized, Half of a Yellow Sun is a remarkable novel about moral responsibility, about the end of colonialism, about ethnic allegiances, about class and race—and the ways in which love can complicate them all.

"Vividly written, thrumming with life, Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Half of a Yellow Sun is a remarkable novel. In its compassionate intelligence, as in its capacity for intimate portraiture, this novel is a worthy successor to such twentieth-century classics as Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart and V.S. Naipaul's A Bend in the River." —Joyce Carol Oates

Haruki Murakami
BLIND WILLOW, WEEPING WOMAN
Translated by Philip Gabriel and Jay Rubin

From the fantastical to the mundane, these stories show Haruki's magical ability to transform the range of human experience into literature that delights and surprises, entertains and instructs. Written over the course of more than twenty years—from 1983 through 2005—they have appeared in such venues as The New Yorker, Harper's, and Granta, and nearly a quarter of them will be published for the first time in this collection.

Joan Didion
WE TELL OURSELVES STORIES IN ORDER TO LIVE
COLLECTED NONFICTION

For the first time—all of Joan Didion's nonfiction writing on place, politics, lifestyle, and cultural figures from the 1960s to 2003 gathered together in one volume. Celebrated in the worlds of journalism, literature, and film, Didion is first and foremost one of America's iconic nonfiction writers. Comprising seven of her books in their entirety, this book is a seminal collection of writing about America in the 20th century.

EVERYMAN'S LIBRARY | CLOTH | 1160 PAGES | $30.00

Edward Mendelson
THE THINGS THAT MATTER
WHAT SEVEN CLASSIC NOVELS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE STAGES OF LIFE

An illuminating exploration of how seven of the greatest English novels of the 19th and 20th centuries portray the essential experiences of life.

"The beauty of this book is the maturity of its thinking. Mendelson restores the novels to their original, moral context but he does not upholster them in Victorian certainty. On the contrary, he shows the authors struggling with their ideas." —Joan Acocella

Mark Z. Danielewski
ONLY REVOLUTIONS
A NOVEL

From the author of House of Leaves comes a modern myth and ancient love story, the saga of Sam and Hailey who run away, fall in love, and tear across the American landscape—even if the cost of their union threatens the world and its history. The familiarity of their dream will strike all who have survived it: the first longings for someone with whom to slip free the bonds of home and, no matter the consequences, race the unknown.

The Anxiety of Obsolescence
The American Novel in the Age of Television
Kathleen Fitzpatrick

Television has killed the audience for serious literature. This conventional wisdom is such a given that reading Fitzpatrick's challenge to this notion can be very disconcerting, as she traces the ways in which a small cadre of white, male writers of "serious" literature—DeLillo, Pynchon, and Franzen, for instance—have propagated this myth in order to set themselves up as the defenders of good writing against an increasingly female, increasingly non-white television-viewing audience who comes to literature through Oprah.

264 pages, paper $34.95

Truck of Fools
A Testimonio of Torture and Recovery
Carlos Liscano
Translated by Elizabeth Hampsten

"Here, Liscano writes eloquently of the psychology of torture and of staying alive, sustained by a 'primitive sense of dignity' that somehow transcended pain. His account testifies both to human depravity and to its counterpoise, deep courage."—Utne

A gifted writer's moving, autobiographical story of imprisonment and torture under a neofascist regime in Latin America.

120 pages, cloth $24.95

That Inferno
Conversations of Five Women Survivors of an Argentine Torture Camp
Munú Actis, Cristina Aldini, Liliana Gardella, Miriam Lewin, and Elisa Tokar
Translated by Gretta Siebentritt
Foreword by Tina Rosenberg

An estimated 30,000 Argentines disappeared between 1976 and 1982, among them the five women who gather here, recalling their years of imprisonment and torture. As Tina Rosenberg says in her foreword, "How this could happen is now somewhat easier for Americans to understand after Abu Ghraib."

320 pages, paper $27.95

Can Literature Promote Justice?
Trauma Narrative and Social Action in Latin American *Testimonio
Kimberly A. Nance

Can writing about injustice help to bring about change? Beginning with a survey of the genre's development, this study insists that testimonio (trauma narrative, often collaborative, frequently woman-centric) has always been at once social and literary, a project to use narrative to give voice to the oppressed and to change the world.

224 pages, paper $24.95

The Utopian Nexus in Don Quixote
Yvonne Jehenson and Peter N. Dunn

The book interrogates the historical record in order to uncover the discursive formations of the nation that produced Don Quixote and to suggest a match between them and the novel. Through the medium of humor, and the representation of madness, Cervantes uncovers many of these formations.

216 pages, paper $29.95

Male Delivery
Reproduction, Effeminacy, and Pregnant Men in Early Modern Spain
Sherry Velasco

How the image of the pregnant man reflected the changing gender roles of early modern Spain—and now. This is the first study to explore the interdependent relationships among reproductive technologies, the politics of male femininity, and the unstable nature of sex assignment and same-sex desire in early modern Spain.

224 pages, paper $29.95

Properties of Modernity
Romantic Spain, Modern Europe, and the Legacies of Empire
Michael Iarocci

Properties of Modernity examines the literary, cultural and theoretical effects of Spain's symbolic expulsion from the story of Western modernity, and it develops a new model for conceptualizing Spanish romantic writing and its relationship to the modern. In doing so, the book underscores the links between modernity, colonialism, and empire.

THE POLITICS OF SENTIMENT
Imagining and Remembering Guayaquil
By O. Hugo Benavides

Through the lenses of politics, race relations, labor movements, modernism, and the poetry of Medardo Angel Silva, this book explores the key facets in shaping Guayaquilean identity.

$19.95 paper, $50.00 cloth

CAESAR IN GAUL AND ROME
War in Words
By Andrew W. Riggsby

Riggsby uses contemporary literary methods to examine the historical impact that the publication of Julius Caesar's Gallic War had on the Roman reading public in terms of Roman national identity and the political self-fashioning of Caesar as a "new" kind of Roman general.

$45.00 cloth

KAQCHIKEL CHRONICLES

Quebec's Women Writers Re-frame Gender in North American Cultures
Paula Ruth Gilbert

0-7735-3031-2 $75.00 US / $75.00 CA / £56.00 UK cloth

In the past twenty years Quebec women writers, including Aline Chamberland, Claire Dé, Suzanne Jacob, and Hélène Rioux, have created female characters who are fascinated with bold sexual actions and language, cruelty, and violence, at times culminating in infanticide and serial killing. Paula Ruth Gilbert argues that these Quebec feminist writers are "re-framing" gender.

The Literary in Theory

JONATHAN CULLER

The Literary in Theory takes up questions that have been basic to the enterprise known as 'theory' with a fine mix of historical awareness, lively critical sense, and thoughtful advocacy. Culler's vision of literary studies is inclusive and cumulative: it reminds us that 'learning' is both a noun and a verb, both a result and a process. Is theory dead? This book shows that it has a pulse and a sense of humor."

SCHOMBURG CENTER FOR RESEARCH IN BLACK CULTURE

SCHOLARS IN RESIDENCE

SCHOMBURG CENTER FOR RESEARCH IN BLACK CULTURE, a unit of The New York Public Library's Research Libraries, announces its Scholars-in-Residence Program for the academic year of 2007-2008.

The Fellowship Program encompasses projects in African, Afro-American, and Afro-Caribbean history and culture, with an emphasis on African Diasporan Studies and Biography, Social History and African American Culture. (Please see our website for information on the Center's holdings.)

REQUIREMENTS Fellows are required to be in full-time residence at the Center during the award period. They are expected to utilize the Center's resources extensively, participate in scheduled seminars, colloquia and luncheons, review and critique papers presented at these forums, and prepare a report on work accomplished at the end of their residency.

Persons seeking support for research leading to degrees are not eligible under this program. Candidates for advanced degrees must have received the degree or completed all requirements for it by the application deadline.

Foreign nationals are not eligible unless they will have resided in the United States for three years immediately preceding the award date.

AWARD Fellowships funded by the Program will allow recipients to spend six months or a year in residence with access to resources at both the Schomburg Center and other research units of The New York Public Library. The fellowship stipend is $25,000 for six months and up to $50,000 for twelve months. This program is made possible in part through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Ford Foundation, and the Samuel I. Newhouse Foundation.

ARTS & SCIENCES

Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry:
A Postdoctoral Program in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Washington University announces the seventh year of Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry, an Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship Program designed to encourage interdisciplinary scholarship and teaching across the humanities and social sciences. We invite applications from recent Ph.D.s for the position of Fellow. In September 2007, the selected Fellow will join our continuing Fellows in order to participate in the University's ongoing interdisciplinary programs and seminars. The Fellow will receive a two year appointment with a stipend beginning at $41,900 per year. Postdoctoral Fellows have an opportunity to plan and pursue their own continuing research in association with a senior faculty member at Washington University, and, over the course of their two-year appointment, to teach three undergraduate courses in their home discipline and to collaborate in an interdisciplinary theory and methods workshop.

There is no application form, but further information on Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry is available on the web at http://www.artsci.wustl.edu/~szwicker/Mellon_Postdoctoral_Program.html. Applicants should submit a cover letter, a description of their research program (no more than three single-spaced pages), a brief proposal for the seminar in theory and methods, a curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation. All materials must be submitted in paper copy.

Submit materials by December 1, 2006, to

Rare Book & Manuscript Library

VISITING FELLOWSHIPS

The Beinecke Rare Book & Manuscript Library offers short-term fellowships to support visiting scholars pursuing post-doctoral or equivalent research in its collections. The Beinecke Library is Yale University's principal repository for literary papers, and for early manuscripts and rare books in the fields of literature, theology, history, and the natural sciences. For more information about the Beinecke Library and its collections, please visit our website: www.library.yale.edu/beinecke/.

Application materials must be received by December 15, 2006.

Awards will be announced in March 2007 for the period September 2007 through May 2008.

The fellowships, which pay for travel to and from New Haven and a living allowance of $3,800 per month, are designed to provide access to the library for scholars who live outside the greater New Haven area. Students enrolled in degree programs are ineligible.

Fellowships, normally granted for one month, must be taken up between September and May. Recipients are expected to be in residence during the period of their award and are encouraged to participate in the activities of Yale University.

An application form can be downloaded from the Beinecke Library's website. In addition to the application form, applicants are asked to submit a curriculum vitae and a brief research proposal (not to exceed three pages) to the Director. The proposal should emphasize the relationship of the Beinecke collections to the project and state the preferred dates of residence. Applicants should also arrange to have two confidential letters of recommendation sent to the Director. These letters must specifically address the merits of the Beinecke research project.

The following named fellowships are among those to be awarded:

- Frederick W. Beinecke Fellowship in Western Americana
- Hermann Broch Fellowship in modern German literature
- H.D. Fellowship in English or American literature
- Jonathan Edwards Fellowship in the Jonathan Edwards Papers or related areas of American religious history
- Elizabethan Club Fellowship in the literature or history of the English or European Renaissance
- Edith and Richard French Fellowship
- Donald C. Gallup Fellowship in American literature
- A. Bartlett Giamatti Fellowship
- Archibald Hanna, Jr. Fellowship in American history
- John D. and Rose H. Jackson Fellowship
- Jackson Brothers Fellowship
- H.P. Kraus Fellowship in early books and manuscripts
- Laura K. and Valerian Lada-Mocarski Fellowship
- James M. Osborn Fellowship in English literature and history
- Frederick A. and Marion S. Pottle Fellowship in 18th-century British studies
- Reese Fellowship in American bibliography and the history of the book in the Americas
- Betsy Beinecke Shirley Fellowship in American children's literature
- Thornton Wilder Fellowship in Wilder studies

Fear

During the academic year 2007/08, the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies will focus on the study of fear in history. We invite scholars from all disciplines to examine fear as an historical experience, its generative, productive as well as negative and destructive roles in history, and the processes by which it operates, spreads, dissipates, and is countered. As in the past, we hope to address topics and problems from a wide variety of periods and places, from prehistory to the present, and from all parts of the world. Topics could include but are not limited to the following: the emotional and psychic texture of fear in historical situations; the mode of fear's operation, circulation, and dissolution; people's fear of the state and the state's fears as reflected in its generation of documentation and archives; fear of disease, war, empire and imperial dissolution; fear of the racial, religious, political, ideological, and sexual contamination; fear of disorder or the imposition of order; fear of change and fear of stasis; fear of technology and the projection of alternatives; fear of hell and for the fate of the soul; fear of urban dysfunction in generating utopian futures; fear of the "mob"; fear as a productive agent in violence, resistance, solidarity, artistic expression, and thought.

The Center will offer a limited number of research fellowships for one or two semesters, running from September to January and from February to June, designed for highly recommended younger scholars who have finished their dissertations by the application deadline as well as for senior scholars with established reputations. Fellows are expected to live in Princeton in order to take an active part in the intellectual interchange with other members of the Seminar. Funds are limited, and candidates are, therefore, strongly urged to apply to other grant-giving institutions as well as the Center, if they wish to come for a full year.

Written inquiries should be addressed to the Manager, Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies, Department of History, 129 Dickinson Hall, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 08544-1017, U.S.A. Applications can be made online at http://dav.princeton.edu/program/e13/application.html. The deadline for applications and letters of recommendation for fellowships for 2007/2008 is December 1, 2006. Scholars who would like to offer a paper to one of the weekly Seminars are asked to send a brief description of their proposal and current curriculum vitae to the Director. Please note that we will not accept faxed applications.

ELECTRONIC TEXTUAL EDITING

Lou Burnard, Katherine O'Brien O'Keeffe, and John Unsworth, eds.

"This is a most impressive volume. It is the distillation of decades of experience in computing in the humanities by a number of expert witnesses, who themselves have developed the theories of editing and the technological innovations discussed here."
—Antonette diPaolo Healey
University of Toronto

This volume offers an emerging consensus about the fundamental issues of electronic textual editing. It provides practical advice and faces theoretical questions. Its twenty-four essays deal with markup coding and procedures, electronic archive administration, use of standards (such as Unicode), rights and permissions, and the changing and challenging environment of the Internet.

The CD accompanying this volume contains the complete text of the Text Encoding Initiative guidelines (P4 edition) in both HTML and PDF formats.

ACADEMIC COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Ernst Benjamin and Michael Mauer, eds.

A joint publication with the American Association of University Professors

Collective representation has long been at the heart of academic governance. As an outgrowth of that tradition and in response to the profound changes in the academic labor market, many academic employees have turned to collective bargaining to enhance shared governance and to advocate for improvements in working conditions. Contributors to this volume aim to educate readers about the historical and practical contexts of collective bargaining. The essays collected here explore the perspectives, successes, failures, and approaches of those who have collectively bargained so that readers can assess the pros and cons of unionization.

DIVERSIFYING THE DISCOURSE

The Florence Howe Award for Outstanding Feminist Scholarship, 1990–2004

Mihoko Suzuki and Roseanna Dufault, eds.

"This volume is an admirably representative collection of what feminist literary criticism has become by the beginning of the twenty-first century."
—Robyn R. Warhol
University of Vermont

The Florence Howe Award for Outstanding Feminist Scholarship, created in 1974, has played a major role in establishing the legitimacy and visibility of feminist inquiry. The early award-winning essays are available in the MLA volume Courage and Tools. This volume presents the seventeen essays that won the award for the years 1990–2004, an era that witnessed a diversification of the objects of feminist study and critical approaches.

DISCIPLINARY IDENTITIES

Rhetorical Paths of English, Speech, and Composition

Steven Mailloux

"This is an inventive and illuminating study that recontextualizes the postmodern and recovers striking and salient moments from the history of rhetoric and the histories of the now divided fields of English, speech, and composition."
—Don Bialostosky
University of Pittsburgh

What are the historical relations among academic disciplines focused on oral and written rhetoric? In Disciplinary Identities, Steven Mailloux examines the disciplinary formation of English literary studies, speech communication, and composition, explaining how these fields came to be shaped and separated as they are today.

INTEGRATING LITERATURE AND WRITING INSTRUCTION

First-Year English, Humanities Core Courses, Seminars

Judith H. Anderson and Christine R. Farris, eds.

"As a demonstration of possible ways to incorporate literature into the writing curriculum, the book does its work well. It provides often vivid examples of ways in which thoughtful and committed teachers have found literature to be a valuable tool, even for nonmajors (particularly for nonmajors)."

—George Levine
