LAW & SOCIETY REVIEW

POLICY

The Law & Society Review welcomes articles and research notes by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars that bear on the relationship between society and the legal process. The Review is published by the Law and Society Association, an international group drawn primarily from the legal and social science professions, whose purpose is the stimulation and support of research and teaching on political, social, and economic aspects of the law.

MEMBERSHIPS

Members of the Law and Society Association receive the Review as a perquisite of membership. Dues in the Association are:

Student (nonvoting)	$10.00	Contributing	$ 50.00
Regular	$25.00	Sustaining	$100.00

Contributions to the Law and Society Association are tax exempt.

MANUSCRIPTS

Effective July 1, 1982, all manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be sent to:

Richard O. Lempert, Editor
Law & Society Review
University of Michigan Law School
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

Manuscripts should be submitted in quadruplicate. Text, including footnotes and references, should be double spaced with ample (1¼ inch) margins. Footnotes, references, tables, and graphs should follow the main body of the text. Each manuscript should contain a short (100 word) abstract and a biographical description of the author(s). A style sheet is available upon request. Manuscripts cannot be returned to authors. The Review cannot consider for publication manuscripts submitted contemporaneously to other journals.

The Law & Society Review gratefully acknowledges the generous assistance of the College of Letters and Science, the Law School, and the Kemper Knapp Bequest Fund of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, which have provided funds for the support of its editorial office.

The Law & Society Review, its editors, editorial board, and publisher, and the Law and Society Association, disclaim responsibility and liability for statements of fact or opinion made by contributors.
