APPENDIX 1 OVERVIEW OF THE PARTICIPATING AND SUPPORTING ORGANIZATION(S)

Firda School for Vocational Education	The library of Drachten	NHL Stenden University
Firda School for Vocational Education offers comprehensive education and training programs for approximately 15,000 students. They also provide customized training programs for companies and institutions.	The library of Drachten has 12,000+ members and 25 employees. They also organize workshops and meetings on educational support, energy, health, sustainability, digital literacy, critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and creativity.	NHL Stenden University (n.d.) is a regional institution of higher education with a strong international emphasis. NHL Stenden is a multicampus university with a student body of 24,000, a staff of 2,250, and students from 90+ nationalities.
Supporting organizations: FERS
Next to these three organizations, regional experts from the public organization "FERS" led this project to support the three learning communities in project management and knowledge support. Since digital skills are becoming increasingly popular, FERS (2023) aims to stimulate the digital citizenship of the Frisian population by supporting all Frisian libraries in the field of digital citizenship and media literacy.

APPENDIX 2 FUNDING

This project was funded by a joint call, "Getting a Grip on Disinformation," in 2021 and 2022, by the Dutch Domain Registration Fonds (SIDN) and the Limelight Foundation. By supporting disinformation initiatives, SIDN Fund (2023) wants to contribute to a better understanding of disinformation in the Dutch context, what its impact is and how we can better equip our society to deal with it. In doing so, SIDN Fund focuses on tools that provide a grip on disinformation (or help citizens to become more resilient), and research into the mechanisms behind disinformation and awareness projects.
