Nobody Handles Patient And Staff Protection Like Kimberly-Clark.

Patient and staff protection isn't simply evolving. It's undergoing radical change.. . bringing with it both important advances and serious challenges. As a world leader in this vital area, Kimberly-Clark is uniquely suited to help your hospital keep up with the advances and meet the challenges. Our patented nonwoven fabric technology has kept Kimberly-Clark products on the leading edge for nearly two decades. And in today's complex health care environment, the quality protec- tion provided by our personal protective equipment, surgical packs and gowns, and sterilization wrap is more important than ever.

So is our wealth of innova- tive programs designed to help hospitals deal with critical issues such as cost management, OSHA compliance, waste management, staff education and hospital-physician relationships. We continually enhance these programs through intensive R&D, as well as through direct feedback from our many customer advisory panels.

Technologically advanced products. Innovative customer programs. Together they can make a world of difference in your patient and staff protection. For more on what Kimberly-Clark Professional Health Care can do for your hospital, call our PARTNERS IN QUALITY@ Helpline, 1-800-KC-HELPS (1-800-524-3577).
