PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

World Politics Visiting Fellowship (1 position), 2016–17

The Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies (PIIRS) invites applications for a World Politics visiting scholar for the 2016–17 academic year. The position is sponsored by the institute's scholarly journal World Politics and is intended to foster research and writing suitable for publication in the journal. Applicants should be engaged in cutting-edge empirical or theoretical work in the fields of comparative politics or international relations and preferably hold an ongoing position at a university or research institution. This position is ideally meant for a scholar on sabbatical leave from her/his home institution; depending on the successful candidate's salary, the fellowship could provide up to one-half of the scholar's academic year salary, subject to a cap that will be determined. Visiting scholars are expected to be in residence at PIIRS for the entire academic year.

To apply, please link to https://jobs.princeton.edu, position requisition number 1500534. Applications must include:

(1) a cover letter with an indication of (and justification for) the level of support requested;
(2) a brief statement of research plans;
(3) a current curriculum vitae;
(4) names and email addresses of two persons who can provide confidential letters of recommendation; and
(5) one writing sample (article- or chapter-length).

The deadline for applications is December 1, 2015.

For more information on PIIRS, see http://www.princeton.edu/piirs/. Further questions about this position may be directed to Beate Witzler at bwitzler@princeton.edu.

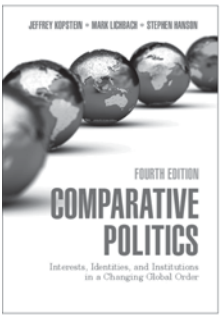

Princeton University is an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

New Textbooks Addressing Comparative and Global Politics

CAMBRIDGE

Comparative Politics: Interests, Identities, and Institutions in a Changing Global Order
Fourth Edition

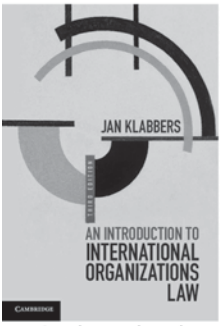

Eds: Jeffrey Kopstein, University of Toronto; Mark Lichbach, University of Maryland, Stephen E. Hanson, College of William and Mary

ISBN: 9780521135740 • $79.99

PUBLISHED: July 2014

Twelve in-depth case studies of the EU and countries across the globe, written by the leading country specialists and combining insights of cutting-edge institutional analysis and deep study of national histories, explore how the concepts of interests, identities, and institutions shape the politics of nations and regions. The country studies trace the global and historical contexts of political development and examine the diverse pathways that countries have taken in their quest to adapt to the competitive pressures of twenty first century globalization.

An Introduction to International Organizations Law
Third Edition

Jan Klabbers, University of Helsinki

ISBN: 9781107439719 • $59.99

The exposition of this marketing-leading textbook is centered on the dynamics of the relationships between international organizations and their organs, staff, and the outside world. It discusses the essential topics of the law of international organizations, including powers, finances, and privileges and immunities, as well as membership rules, institutional structures, and accountability. The newly revised text has been updated extensively to reflect the entry into force of the EU's Lisbon Treaty (and Croatia's accession) and new articles on the responsibility of international organizations. The chapters have also been reorganized for further clarity. Additionally,two new chapters, on the international civil service and the relations between organizations and other institutions, respectively, have been added.
