THRICE TO ROME

Gerald of Wales before the Papal Court of Innocent III 1200 - 1203

A Play by Norman Doe

The full text of Professor Doe's play Thrice to Rome is to be published by the Welsh Legal History Society in the late autumn of 2026. This will be volume 23 of the Society's publications and will also contain Professor Doe's Youard Lecture on Welsh Legal and Social History entitled 'Giraldus Cambrensis as a Canonist', given at the 2024 Legal Wales Conference in Haverfordwest, an Introduction on the genesis of the play and Historical Notes on the canonical issues raised in it and the historic figures involved. Members of the Welsh Legal History Society will receive a copy of the volume as part of their subscription entitlement. Non-members will be able to purchase copies while stocks last for £50.

The Welsh Legal History Society is pleased to offer members of the Ecclesiastical Law Society the opportunity to order copies of the volume at a pre-publication discount of 25%, that is for £37.50.

Details of how to order and pay for the volume can be obtained from the Welsh Legal History Society's Literary Director, The Reverend Professor Thomas Glyn Watkin KC. (ProfessorWatkin@aol.com), from whom details of Welsh Legal History Society membership can also be obtained.

The closing date for orders is 15 August 2026.

Ecclesiastical Law Journal

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal is published by Cambridge University Press on behalf of the Ecclesiastical Law Society. The views expressed in any article, comment, review or other publications in this Journal do not necessarily accord with those of the Editor, the Editorial Board, or the Society as a whole.

Submission of Articles and Comment

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal covers all aspects of ecclesiastical law, with a particular emphasis on the legal regulation of the Church of England and the worldwide Anglican Communion. Its range of coverage also includes comparative studies of the laws of other faiths and of the interface between law and religion in United Kingdom jurisprudence and worldwide. General policy is developed by the Editor in collaboration with the Editorial Board.

The Ecclesiastical Law Journal is peer reviewed and operates (for submissions which have not been formally commissioned) a double anonymous refereeing process using members of the Editorial Board together with others expert in the particular field concerned. Authors should therefore take care not to identify themselves within the text of the manuscript which they submit. Articles should generally be between 7,000 and 10,000 words and Comment pieces should not usually exceed 6,000 words. All submissions of articles, comment pieces, and general inquiries, should be addressed to the Editor: Benjamin Harrison, Ecclesiastical Law Journal, Serjeants' Inn Chambers, 85 Fleet Street, London EC4Y 1AE; E-mail: editor@ecclawsoc.org.uk.

Authors are reminded that they must follow the format set out in 'House Style', copies of which may be downloaded from http://journals.cambridge.org/elj.
