OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE EUROPEAN CONSORTIUM FOR POLITICAL RESEARCH

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The European Journal of Political Research publishes original and substantial contributions to the study of comparative European politics. We specialise in articles articulating conceptual and comparative perspectives with a broad theoretical relevance, speaking to different academic literatures on a variety of sub-fields and topics. Authors are strongly encouraged to reflect deeply on the broader theoretical implications of their empirical research so as to engage as broad an audience as possible.

1. The European Journal of Political Research will publish articles by political scientists and other scholars engaged in political research. Preference will be given to articles of a broadly theoretical or comparative nature. The journal will also publish short research notes on current ongoing research in specific areas of political science.
2. Submission of manuscripts. All materials to be considered for publication should be submitted via http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/ejpr. Before uploading a manuscript, the following files should be prepared:
   (1) a title page or covering letter including the full names of the authors, their-academic or other professional affiliations and the complete address of the corresponding author including telephone number, fax number and email if available;
   (2) an abstract of 500 words maximum;
   (3) the full text of the manuscript with a list of references and notes
   Manuscripts should be in English and should not exceed 10,000 words in length. This includes the main text of the manuscript, footnotes, tables, figures and references. Overlength manuscripts will be returned to the authors. Manuscripts must be submitted in a Microsoft Office-compatible file format; we do not accept PDF or Latex submissions.
3. Symbols and units. The conventions for abbreviations of units and symbols are those recommended by the British Standards Institution (leaflet B.S. 5775).
4. References. Use the Harvard style of referencing. In the case of books and chapters in books, the reference should include details of the publisher and the place and date of publication; in the case of journal articles, the references should include details of the volume and issue number of the journal, as well as the page numbers. Page numbers should also be indicated in references to chapters in books.
5. Tables and illustrations, Should be submitted on separate sheets, with their location notes in the text. The publisher will typeset the tables. Graphs and diagrams (illustrations) must be in a form suitable for reproduction without retouching. Table and figure references should be in a consistent style (e.g. Table 1 not Table One). Captions for illustrations should be listed on a separate sheet.
6. Proofs. PDF proofs will be sent directly to the authors by the publisher, and should be returned immediately after correction.
7. Offprints. A pdf offprint of each article and a copy of the issue in which it is published will be provided free of charge to the first-named contributor. Additional offprints may be purchased from the publisher according to a scale of charges.
8. Formatting. Text, references and a list of figure captions should be included, without any character and paragraph style formatting. Turn off hyphenation; one font size throughout; do not justify at the right; do not indent paragraphs; do not use bold text in headings.

   Headings and subheadings. type these at the left margin (do not centre or indent), utilizing the following simplified hierarchy:
   (a) upper case throughout (no full point at the end), preceded and followed by two hard returns
   (b) upper (first letter of first word) and then lower case (no full point at the end), preceded and followed by two hard returns
   (c) upper (first letter of first word) and then lower case (no full point at the end), preceded and followed by two spaces, then text.
   Separate all paragraphs by two hard returns.

   References. separate all references by two hard returns; do not indent turnover lines (the second and subsequent lines of a reference). Tables must be in separate files from the text: the preferred format is Microsoft EXCEL. Figures must be in separate files from the text: the preferred formats are tif or eps.
9. Editing. The editor retains the right to make minor stylistic changes to the finally-accepted typescript. Any substantial changes will, of course, be referred back first to the author.
