Contents

List of Contributors page vii
Acknowledgements ix
List of Abbreviations for Works by Kant x

Introduction 1
Martin Brecher and Philipp-Alexander Hirsch

PART I LAW AND MORALITY: DERIVATION OR SEPARATION?

1 Kant on Moral Universality and the Normative Foundations of Right 17
Marcus Willaschek

2 Kant's Direct Route from the Categorical Imperative to the Universal Law of Right 36
Bernd Ludwig

3 Kant on the General Will Test and the Categorical Imperative Procedure 54
Christoph Horn

4 Kant's Right as Normatively Independent: One Strategy Considered and Rejected 75
Sorin Baiasu

PART II SANCTIONS AND COERCION: A PROBLEM FOR A DERIVATIONAL READING?

5 Legal Coercion as a Moral Problem? Kant on the Enforcement of Rights and the Limits of Moral Personality 95
Philipp-Alexander Hirsch

Published online by Cambridge University Press

6 Should Criminals Be Punished for Their Folly? On the Ethical Foundations of Kant's Legal Philosophy 114
Kate Moran and Jens Timmermann

PART III ISSUES ACROSS THE BOUNDARIES OF LAW AND MORALITY

7 Morality, Legality, and Luck 131
Ralf M. Bader

8 Kant on Permissive Law 148
Martin Brecher

9 Bridging the Juridical Gap: Ethical and Juridical Duties in the Absence of Political Institutions 169
Alice Pinheiro Walla

PART IV EXTERNAL FREEDOM AND KANTIAN LEGAL PHILOSOPHY

10 The Kantian Legal Relation as Radical Non-Positivism 195
George Pavlakos

11 What is External Freedom? 220
Japa Pallikkathayil

PART V LAW AND MORALITY IN KANT'S POLITICAL THEORY

12 Two Conceptions of Freedom in Kant's Political Philosophy: The Moral Foundations of Kantian Politics 241
J. P. Messina

13 Independence and Kant's Positive Conception of Freedom 262
Pauline Kleingeld

14 Morality, Right, and Responsibility 285
Paul Guyer

Bibliography 307
Subject Index 322
Index of Persons 326

Published online by Cambridge University Press