The following is a list of the questions which appeared on the paper: 1. What are the different kinds of joints? Give examples of each and state what movements may take place at them. 2. What are the different kinds of nerves and what are their uses? 3. What do you understand by ventilation? How would you ensure proper ventilation in a sick room? 4. Describe the different modes of carrying helpless patients. 5. Distinguish between a simple and a compound fracture of bone; which is the more dangerous? 6. What is the average temperature of the body as found in the Axilla? What would you expect in a case of Dementia, and what in a case of General Paralysis of the Insane? 7. Mention some of the differences between attendance on the insane in Asylums, and in private houses, respectively. 8. Give a brief description of the heart, and of the circulation of the blood. Describe the composition of the blood, and state the difference between arterial and venous blood. 9. How would you prevent—as far as lies in your power—the spread, amongst your patients, of Phthisis? 10. Mention the different kinds of Enemata with which you are acquainted; state their uses and composition.

Next Examination for Nursing Certificate.

The next examination will be held on Monday, November 4th, 1901, and candidates are earnestly requested to send in their schedules, duly filled up, to the Registrar of the Association, not later than Monday, October 7th, 1901, as that will be the last day upon which, under the rules, applications can be received.

Note.

As the names of some of the persons to whom the Nursing Certificate has been granted have been removed from the Register, employers are requested to refer to the Registrar, in order to ascertain if a particular name is still on the roll of the Association. In all inquiries the number of the certificate should be given.

EXAMINATION.

The examination for the Certificate in Psychological Medicine will be held on Thursday, July 18th, 1901, at 10 o'clock a.m., in London, at Bethlem Hospital; in Edinburgh, at the Royal Asylum, Morningside; in Glasgow at the Royal Asylum, Gartnavel; in Aberdeen at the Royal Asylum; in Dublin, at the Richmond Asylum; and in Cork and Belfast, at the District Asylums.

GASKELL PRIZE.

The examination for the Gaskell Prize will be held at Bethlem Hospital, London, on Friday, July 19th, 1901, at 10 o'clock a.m. Candidates for this examination must give fourteen days' notice of their intention to sit to the Registrar. The examiners are authorised to award a second prize in this competition should one of the candidates attain such a standard as would justify them in so doing.

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.
