form a Scottish Section of Psychotherapy and Social Psychiatry, which it was hoped, would maintain close liaison with the Association's Psychotherapy and Social Psychiatry Section.

Council considered a request from the Northern and Midland Division to make a statement about the payments which might have to be made by Fellows, Members and Affiliates of the College. It was pointed out that these figures were in fact published in the Programme for the Annual Meeting held at Plymouth in July, 1968; also, they would be presented once more to the Adjourned Annual General Meeting which would be held for the purpose of authorizing the submission of the Petition.

Finally, Council was pleased to congratulate Dr. Shapiro on his nomination to the Burden Research Medal and Prize Awards Committee.'

The afternoon session was devoted to three papers:

a. Dr. A. A. Baker on 'The Psychiatric Unit in the General Hospital.'

b. Dr. A. J. Oldham on 'The Psychiatric Unit in the General Hospital and the Community.'

c. Dr. D. Tidmarsh on 'The Case for the General Psychiatric Hospital.'

Each of these papers stimulated a keen and full discussion and the Division was most grateful to all the speakers for their contribution to the success of the meeting.
