POLICY

The Law & Society Review welcomes articles and research notes by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars which bear on the relationship between law and the social sciences. The Review is published by the Law and Society Association, a nation-wide group, drawn primarily from the legal and social science professions, whose purpose is the stimulation and support of research and teaching on political, social, and economic aspects of the law.

MANUSCRIPTS

All manuscripts should be prepared in double-spaced typescript with ample (1½ inch) margins. Footnotes should also be double spaced, numbered sequentially, and appended to the end of the article. Footnotes and bibliographic citations (commencing with the August, 1969 issue) will follow a style based upon those of the American Psychological, Sociological and Statistical Associations. Copies of the style sheet may be obtained, upon request, from the Editor, or the Publisher.

All editorial material should be sent to

Samuel Krislov, Editor, Law & Society Review
Department of Political Science
University of Minnesota
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
