contain articles on phenomenology and related topics in the humanities, and also discussion notes, reviews of recent books, and a bibliographical section. It will be called The Journal of The British Society for Phenomenology, will appear three times per year, and each issue will contain about 100 pages. The yearly subscription will be 60*s*. (members of the Society 45*s*.). It will be published and distributed by Haigh & Hochland, Ltd., University Booksellers, 399 Oxford Road, Manchester 13, to whom subscriptions should be sent. Articles, discussion notes and books for review should be sent to the Editor.

WOLFE MAYS.

Department of Philosophy,
University of Manchester,
Manchester 13.

ERRATUM

It is regretted that a misprint occurred in the letter from Professor C. E. M. Hansel in the November 1968 issue of the Journal.

On page 1478, the last sentence of the second paragraph in the right-hand column should read: "As Dr. West points out, in one experiment Fisk got results whereas, under similar conditions, he did not."

https://doi.org/10.1192/S0007125000101369 Published online by Cambridge University Press