Illustrations

1.1 Onjuku Japan–Spain–Mexico Commemorative Tower. page 2
2.1 Portrait of Murakami Naojirō as director and professor of Tokyo Gaidai and compiler of the Historiographical Institute. 41
2.2 Students of Dōshisha English School in Kyoto in 1881 (Meiji 14). 43
2.3 Graduation Certificate of Murakami Naojirō from Imperial University dated Meiji 28 (1895), July 10. 53
4.1 Statue of Takayama Ukon 'Don Justo Takayama' in the Japan–Philippines Friendship Park in Manila. 117
4.2 Copper statue of Yamada Nagamasa at Sengen dōri in Shizuoka. 120
4.3 A fresco depicting the embassy of Hasekura Tsunenaga in the Sala Regia in the Quirinal Palace in Rome. 123
4.4 A document issued by the Japanese government confirming a business trip of Murakami Naojirō (Tokyo Music Academy) to the United States in 1927. 133
6.1 Bilingual Sinkan manuscript. 206

Published online by Cambridge University Press