CALL FOR IN-DEPTH STUDIES ON PUBLIC/LEGAL POLICY

We are looking for in-depth papers for possible publication in the new JAI Press Research Annuals on Public Policy Analysis and Management and/or the Annuals on Law and Policy Studies.

The JAI Press has been specializing for the last ten years in research annuals that include the best long papers that have been presented in each of numerous fields of political science, law, and social science. The JAI Press is also the publisher of the Public Policy Studies: A Multi-Volume Treatise and Basic Literature in Policy Studies: A Comprehensive Bibliography.

The rules governing acceptance of papers in accordance with the JAI agreement are:

1. Papers should generally not exceed 50 printed pages.
2. Papers should be of the highest editorial quality in terms of validity, subject importance, theoretical broadness, practical application, and/or other scholarly criteria.
3. Manuscripts should be submitted on 8 1/2 by 11 double-spaced typed sheets.
4. Each author receives one free copy of the volume in which their chapter appears plus 25 free reprints to the senior author to distribute.
5. The books will be widely marketed and produced in the high quality style associated with JAI Press.
6. Papers should emphasize (1) evaluating alternative policies, (2) broad principles, (3) policy effects more than causes, and (4) a concern for explicit criteria and relations.

If you are interested in participating in what is likely to be a prestigious series in the public/legal policy field, then send your proposal or paper to Stuart Nagel, Policy Studies Organization, 361 Lincoln Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois 61801. We would welcome receiving as much detail as possible. There is no deadline since these are ongoing annual series. We would, however, like to receive your proposal or paper as soon as possible so that we can begin the production and marketing process.

We look forward to hearing from you concerning your possible participation in either the JAI Press Research Annuals on Public Policy Analysis and Management or on Law and Policy Studies. We especially look forward to seeing both these series become well established as important sources of high quality, in-depth studies in the fields of public policy and legal policy, respectively. Thank you for your help. Best wishes for the success of these series and your contributions to them.

Law & Society Review

BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author, year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé, 1967: 167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order beginning with the oldest. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: LAST NAME, First name (year) Title of book. City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: ARNOLD, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace and World.

b. ARTICLES: LAST NAME, First name (year) "Title of article," volume number Journal initial page of article (month and day only if each issue is separately paginated).

EXAMPLE: STERN, Curt (1970) "The Continuity of Genetics," 99 Daedalus 882.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

Table 1 about here

5. ABSTRACTS: All articles should include an abstract of between 50 and 100 words.
