LATE COLLEGE NEWS

The College Headquarters

The Headquarters of the College will be moving to 17 Belgrave Square, S.W.1 in December. Although the exact date is not yet known, any mail posted after Friday, 13 December 1974 should be sent to the new address.

The College Library

Owing to the impending move to our new home the loan of books has been suspended. The Library will have to close altogether from about early December, and it will probably be several months before facilities will again be available.

The Secretariat

Members may have read elsewhere of the difficulties experienced by the College in recruiting secretarial staff to work at its headquarters; a common problem in London today. Two vacancies being advertised currently are for secretarial assistants to work in the Examinations Office and the Finance Department.

Salaries are on a scale £1,728 rising by annual increments to £2,316 plus £126 London Allowance and luncheon vouchers.

With the forthcoming move to Belgrave Square it is likely that there will be a number of further vacancies.

If any members know of good secretaries who would like to work in London would they please ask them to contact Miss Natalie Cobbing at Chandos House.
