Notes on Article Contributors

Andrew Cyprian Love is a Benedictine monk of Glenstal Abbey, County Limerick, Ireland. He teaches theology at the University of Limerick (Mary Immaculate College). In 2003 he published Musical Improvisation, Heidegger, and the Liturgy: A Journey to the Heart of Hope (Edwin Mellen Press). His special interest is musical improvisation.

Kevin O'Regan studied historical musicology at University College, Cork and at the University of East Anglia, Norwich, and has taught at UEA and the Open University. His research interests concern eighteenth- and nineteenth-century aesthetic attitudes to instrumental music, and he is preparing several articles and a book in this area.

John Spitzer teaches music history at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. His chief research interests are the history of the orchestra, American song, and the relations between Western and non-Western music. He has published articles on these and related topics in the Journal of the American Musicological Society, the Journal of Musicology, Musical Quarterly, Early Music¸ the Journal of Music Theory and American Music, as well as music reviews and articles in newspapers, magazines, handbooks, dictionaries and encyclopaedias. His book on The Birth of the Orchestra, co-written with Neal Zaslaw, was published by Oxford University Press in 2004.

Denise Yim is an Honorary Associate in the Department of French at the University of Sydney, Australia. Since 1993 her research has focused on the Chinnery Family Papers. Publications include The Unpublished Correspondence of Mme de Genlis and Mrs Margaret Chinnery (2003), and Viotti and the Chinnerys: A Relationship Charted through Letters (2004). She is currently preparing a biography of Margaret Chinnery.

https://doi.org/10.1017/S147940980000255X Published online by Cambridge University Press