Twenty-First Century Media Aesthetics and the Political came out of a workshop organized by the media module of the International Centre for Advanced Studies: Metamorphoses of the Political (ICAS: MP), held in January 2023, during the Kochi Muziris Biennale. The workshop was paired with public platforms at Cabral Yard, Fort Kochi, in collaboration with the Kochi Muziris Biennale Foundation (KBF). Jeebesh Bagchi was an excellent chair of the well-attended evening public platforms. I would like to thank Mario d'Souza and the Kochi Muziris Biennale Foundation (KBF) for their support at the event. A special thanks to Suvani Suri for advice on a very media-intensive event. Thanks are also due to all the participants in the workshop and public platforms, and we regret that not everyone was able to contribute to this volume. I want to thank the anonymous reviewers of this manuscript for their careful, detailed comments on all the chapters.

The workshop would not have happened without the fantastic energy and support of ICAS:MP's Laila Abu-Er Rub. Also from ICAS-MP, Himanshu Chawla took charge during the workshop in Kochi, and Sukriti Manocha was a calm presence in all the arrangements. I also want to thank Srirupa Roy, my collaborator in ICAS:MP's media module, for her support, wit, and institutional intelligence. This volume hugely benefited from the advice and support of Debjani Mazumder, ICAS: MP's publisher, and a special thanks to her. I want to especially thank Anwesha Rana of Cambridge University Press for a speedy and frictionless turnaround time for the volume. Finally, I want to thank Lawrence Abu Hamdan for the book's cover image from his work Saydnaya, which came out of an acoustic investigation of an Assad-era Syrian military prison, a theme that aligns well with the thrust of this volume.
