Forum Executive Committees

Listed here are the forum executive committees for the 2016 convention year (12 Jan. 2015–10 Jan. 2016). The dates after the names of executive committee members designate the conventions that conclude the final convention years of their terms. (A convention year begins after the close of one convention and continues through the close of the next; it is named for the convention that concludes the year.) These listings indicate which committee members are currently serving as chair and secretary. Normally, this year's secretary becomes next year's chair.

Expect more from your literature anthology

The Bedford Introduction to Literature
Reading, Thinking, Writing
Eleventh Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Bedford Introduction to Literature is a best-seller for a reason: It brings literature to life for students, helping to make them lifelong readers and better writers. Classic works drawn from many periods and cultures—by the authors you love to teach—appear alongside a strong selection of today's notable writers. There is ample support for students, with a dozen chapters of critical reading and writing support, helpful sample close readings, writing assignments, and student papers. And, because everyone teaches and learns a little differently, there are lots of options for working with the literature, including case studies on individual works and themes that everyone can relate to.

Expect your compact literature anthology to do more

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature
Reading • Thinking • Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature draws classic works from many periods and cultures appearing alongside the best from today's authors. Critical reading and writing support, helpful close readings, writing assignments, and student papers offer more support than comparable anthologies. Lots of options for working with the literature include in-depth chapters on major authors like Flannery O'Connor and Emily Dickinson and a new chapter created in collaboration with Dagoberto Gilb showcasing literature as a living art form.

The briefest Bedford anthology—also available as an e-book

Best New Poets 2015
50 Poems from Emerging Writers
Edited by Tracy K. Smith
$12.95 | PAPER
"[A] reminder that contemporary poetry is not only alive and well but continuing to grow."—Publishers Weekly

Arabic as a Secret Song
Leïla Sebbar
Translated by Skyler Artes
$24.50 | PAPER | CARAF BOOKS: CARIBBEAN AND AFRICAN LITERATURE TRANSLATED FROM FRENCH
"A fascinating collection of meditations on Sebbar's own relationship with the Arabic of her father and the French of her mother."
—Patricia Geesey, University of North Florida

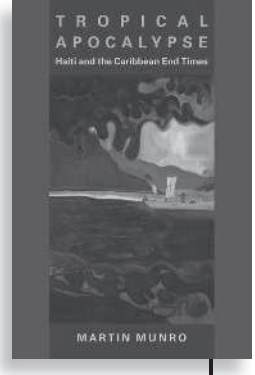

Memory at Bay
Évelyne Trouillot
Translated by Paul Curtis Daw
$24.50 | PAPER | CARAF BOOKS: CARIBBEAN AND AFRICAN LITERATURE TRANSLATED FROM FRENCH
"Memory at Bay is a distressingly beautiful evocation of Haiti's eerie symbiosis between oppressor and victim, by one of the best writers in the Caribbean basin today."—Madison Smartt Bell

Being Apart
Theoretical and Existential Resistance in Africana Literature
LaRose T. Parris
$24.50 | PAPER | MODERN LANGUAGE INITIATIVE
"This is an extraordinary work. Parris offers a de facto radical reading and metacritique of dialectical thought in an age of revolution, which leads to some spectacularly rich analyses throughout the volume. It is first-rate research, true erudition."—Lewis Gordon, University of Connecticut

Anthropocene Fictions
The Novel in a Time of Climate Change
Adam Trexler
$29.50 | PAPER | UNDER THE SIGN OF NATURE
"An original and thoughtful book that must become an important reference point for future work in environmental criticism and in studies of the novel."—Timothy Clark, Durham University

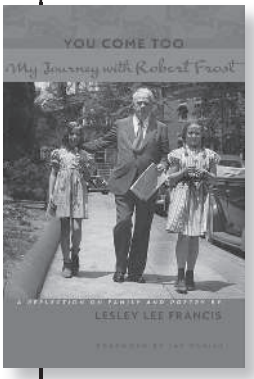

Tropical Apocalypse
Haiti and the Caribbean End Times
Martin Munro
$29.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES
"With passion and erudition, Martin Munro examines the ecological, historical, political, and human disasters of Haiti and the struggle to work through their traumatic legacy."—Nick Nesbitt, Princeton University

The Leopard Boy
Daniel Picouly
Translated by Jeanne Garane
$29.50 | PAPER | CARAF BOOKS: CARIBBEAN AND AFRICAN LITERATURE TRANSLATED FROM FRENCH
"Daniel Picouly is an award-winning author who explores contemporary issues through historical fiction. In The Leopard Boy, the slave trade and its legacies link Africa, Europe, and the Americas during the French Revolution."
—Chantal Kalisa, University of Nebraska

You Come Too
My Journey with Robert Frost
Lesley Lee Francis
Foreword by Jay Parini
$34.95 | CLOTH
"Those in love with the poetry of Robert Frost will find themselves enchanted, illumined, and grateful to the author for undertaking this journey."—From Jay Parini's foreword

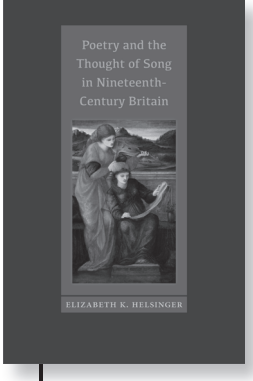

The Pagan Writes Back
When World Religion Meets World Literature
Zhange Ni
$27.50 | PAPER | STUDIES IN RELIGION AND CULTURE
"An absorbing read, a text that may prove decisive for scholars seeking to divine the future of religion and literature studies. Well written, tightly argued, and stimulating."—Darren J. N. Middleton, Texas Christian University

The Poetics of Poesis
The Making of Nineteenth-Century English Fiction
Felicia Bonaparte
$49.50 | CLOTH
"Prodigious in scholarship, allusion, reading, and suggestiveness, The Poetics of 'Poesis' aims to do nothing less than offer a new reading of the nineteenth-century English novel. Bonaparte's scholarship is amazing."—Barry Qualls, Rutgers University

Reading Trauma Narratives
The Contemporary Novel and the Psychology of Oppression
Laurie Vickroy
$24.50 | PAPER
"This is a perceptive, timely, and challenging work and a welcome addition to the study of trauma, trauma literature, and the representation of the traumatized character in literature."
—J. Brooks Bouson, Loyola University of Chicago

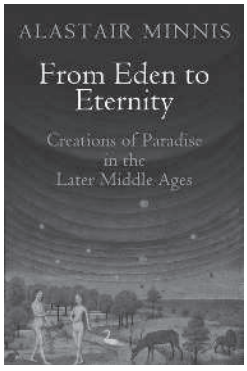

Poetry and the Thought of Song in Nineteenth-Century Britain
Elizabeth K. Helsinger
$45.00 | CLOTH | VICTORIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE SERIES
"Through its subtle and philosophically tinged readings in the history of the Victorian lyric, Helsinger's work reclaims an underappreciated part of the literary tradition and provides an inspiring model for readers and critics of Victorian poetry."—Florence Boos, University of Iowa

Become an IB Examiner

As an examiner you will play an important role in maintaining the quality of assessment for which the IB is known worldwide. You will gain an insight into the IB assessment process, receiving invaluable training in an online environment enhancing your professional development.

The IB assesses candidates pursuing studies in language and literature in over 80 languages. We also assess language acquisition courses in over 20 languages.

The literature course involves the study of both literature originally written in the language of the course, and works of other languages studied in translation. Language acquisition courses are available for beginners and for candidates with some prior knowledge of the language.

We are currently looking for examiners to assess language and literature courses in the following languages:

English, Danish, Dutch, Finnish, French, German, Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin, Malay, Norwegian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Swahili, Swedish

The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A most cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg emphasizes the importance of cultivating a clear and engaging prose style. He not only provides a typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

Under pressure of disbarment this book should be read and understood by every lawyer, most of whom forget they, and the judges who read their miserable briefs, are human beings.

— Gerry Spence

A remarkable and concise roadmap to more effective, intelligible and persuasive legal writing. An invaluable desktop resource.

— Theodore B. Olson

Theodore L. Blumberg practices corporate and entertainment law in Manhattan. A graduate of Temple University School of Law, he is a frequent contributor to The New York Law Journal and a lecturer in the Fahringer seminars in legal writing.

The Johns Hopkins University
Zanvyl Krieger School of Arts and Sciences announces the

Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Humanities for 2016-2017

Religious Culture and the Arts: Christianity, Judaism and Islam

The Krieger School of Arts and Sciences is currently accepting applications for the Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Humanities for two fellows, who will be appointed to two-year terms beginning July 1, 2016.

Each fellowship carries a departmental affiliation and the responsibility of teaching one course per semester. In addition, Fellows are expected to participate in the monthly Mellon Seminar and to present their work to the seminar at least once over the course of their two-year appointment. The initial stipend is $61,060, with an additional $2,000 available for research and travel expenses. Health insurance and a one-time moving allowance of $2,000 are also provided. Appointments are for one year, renewable for a second year.

Applicants should have completed the Ph.D. in one of the following fields: History, English, History of Art, Musicology, Classics, Anthropology, German and Romance Languages and Literatures, Philosophy, Comparative Literature, History of Science and Technology, Near Eastern Studies, no earlier than June 30, 2011 and no later than June 30th, 2016.

The deadline to submit applications is 11:59p.m. (EST) Thursday, November 12, 2015. Applications are submitted online at http://apply.interfolio.com/29991, and must include:

- Letter of interest
- Full curriculum vitae
- Three letters of recommendation
- Academic statement that includes research and teaching proposal.

For questions or concerns, please email Gabrielle Spiegel at: Spiegel@jhu.edu

Incomplete applications are not considered for the fellowship. It is the applicant's responsibility to make sure their application is received in full. Women and underrepresented minorities are especially encouraged to apply. The Johns Hopkins University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Please visit www.jhu.edu/ksas for more information.

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory

invites you to apply for its 2016 Summer Session, June 19 - July 29

IN NEW YORK STATE'S FINGER LAKES REGION

"The SCT combines a relentless schedule of events with a pervasive spirit of conviviality."
Martin Moraw, Brandeis University

"In this community of critics, away from the familiar ecology of one's home institution, one is offered new ways of seeing, new questions, new connections."
David Russell, Princeton University

"One of the most enriching intellectual experiences of my academic life."
Karine Côté-Boucher, York University

"Six weeks in Ithaca gave me many moments of hopefulness: I made extraordinary friends; I found space, seven years into a faculty position, to think and to argue without the pressure of writing or publication."
Andrew van der Vlies, Queen Mary, University of London

Hent de Vries, Director
Russ Family Professor in the Humanities and Philosophy, Director of The Humanities Center, Johns Hopkins University

The Program
In an intensive six-week course of study, participants from around the world, across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, explore recent developments in critical theory.

Tuition
The fee for the session is $3000. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Admission
We welcome applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide. Applications must be submitted online by February 1, and admissions decisions are announced in March.

Language and Literature Journals from UW Press

Contemporary Literature publishes scholarly essays on contemporary writing in English, interviews with established and emerging authors, and reviews of recent critical books in the field. The journal welcomes articles on multiple genres, including poetry, the novel, drama, creative nonfiction, new media and digital literature, and graphic narrative. As a forum for discussing issues animating the range of contemporary literary studies, CL features the full diversity of critical practices.
Published quarterly. ISSN: 0010-7484, E-ISSN: 1548-9949.

Luso-Brazilian Review publishes interdisciplinary scholarship on Portuguese, Brazilian, and Lusophone African cultures, with special emphasis on scholarly works in literature, history, and the social sciences. Each issue includes articles and book reviews, which may be written in either English or Portuguese. Occasional issues are devoted to a special topic.
Published bi-annually. ISSN: 0024-7413, E-ISSN: 1548-9957.

Founded in 1899, Monatshefte für deutschsprachige Literatur und Kultur is the oldest continuing journal of German studies in the U.S. It offers scholarly articles dealing with the literatures and cultures of German-speaking countries from both most advanced, and traditional theoretical and historical perspectives. Monatshefte is open to all scholarly approaches that help to improve our understanding of literature and culture. Each issue contains extensive book reviews of current scholarship in German Studies, and each Winter issue features Personalia, a listing of college and university German Department personnel from across the U.S. and Canada, as well as special surveys and articles dealing with professional concerns.
Published quarterly. ISSN: 0026-9271, E-ISSN: 1934-2810.

SubStance has a long-standing reputation for publishing innovative work on literature and culture. While its main focus has been on French literature and continental theory, the journal is known for its openness to original thinking in all the discourses that interact with literature, including philosophy, natural and social sciences, and the arts.
Published tri-annually. ISSN: 0049-2426, E-ISSN: 1527-2095.

MODERN MIDDLE EAST LITERATURES IN TRANSLATION SERIES FROM UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN

BOOTH #326

A Portal in Space
BY MAHMOUD SAEED
TRANSLATED BY WILLIAM M. HUTCHINS
Masterfully bringing the sights and sounds of Iraq to life, this wise, wry tale by a prominent and prolific Iraqi novelist chronicles an affluent Iraqi family's attempt to maintain a sense of normality during the Iran-Iraq war.

New Waw, Saharan Oasis
BY IBRAHIM AL-KONI
By the award-winning author of The Puppet, this novel weaves myth and contemporary life into a tale of a desert community whose nomadic way of life is irrevocably changed by an unpredictable turn of events.

Who's Afraid of Meryl Streep?
BY RASHID AL-DAIF
TRANSLATED BY PAULA HAYDAR AND NADINE SINNO
This novel by one of Lebanon's best-known authors offers an intimate look at evolving attitudes toward virginity, premarital sex, and abortion in Lebanon as it draws a compelling portrait of a disintegrating marriage.

The Neighbors
BY AHMAD MAHMOUD
TRANSLATED BY NASTARAN KHERAD
This coming-of-age story set in southwestern Iran during the nationalization of the oil industry in 1951 is the first English translation of the work of a prominent Iranian novelist who helped set the stage for today's struggle for democracy in Iran.

Moon and Henna Tree
BY AHMED TOUFIQ
Morocco's Minister of Religious Affairs and Endowments explores the abuse of power and its effects in this award-winning novel that opens a fascinating window into Amazigh (Berber) culture.

The Modern Middle East Literatures in Translation Series is devoted to the publication of significant works of fiction, criticism, and memoirs translated into English from Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, and Turkish. Almost forty works have been published in this series.

On Race and Innovation

A special section of boundary 2 (42:4)
Dawn Lundy Martin, special section editor

This special section on race and innovation extends the contemporary conversation on whether there is an avant-garde in American poetry. It brings together a diverse group of writers and poets who use innovative forms and approaches to language ask what innovation has to say about this thing we call "race." ~~$12~~ $8.40 conference price

Spies, Scandal, and Standup!

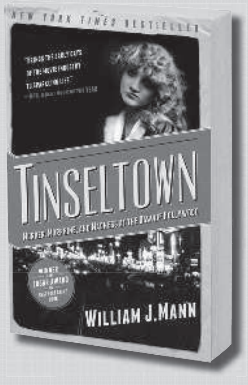

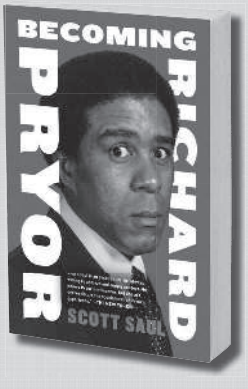

New in Hardcover

From the National Book Critics Circle Award-winning biographer, Adam Sisman, comes the definitive biography of the internationally acclaimed author of The Spy Who Came in from the Cold, Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy, and A Perfect Spy—arguably one of the most important and influential writers of the post-World War II period.

New in Paperback

"[Mann] brings the early days of the movie industry to sparkling life on the page, whether he's evoking Los Angeles' demimonde or explaining how the era's scandals drove the film industry toward protectionism in the face of morality campaigns."
—NPR, The Best Books of 2014

"A book that breaks new ground…Saul details the amazing way that Richard found his way out of the life for which he seemed destined and into the world of the performing arts."

Best 2016 European Fiction 2016

Since 2010, this anthology has been an essential resource for readers, critics, and publishers interested in contemporary European literature. In this, the seventh installment of the series, Best European Fiction continues its commitment to uncovering the best prose writing happening on the continent—from Azerbaijan to Denmark, from Portugal to the Ukraine—featuring work by established authors such as Josef Winkler, Christian Gailly, and João de Melo, as well as up-and-coming writers like Krisztina Tóth, Justyna Bargielska, Veronika Simoniti, and Bessora. The volume is also a forum for the best translators working today, featuring new translations by Lawrence Venuti, Vera Rich, Amaia Gabantxo, Adrian Nathan West, and many more. Also featuring a provocative prefatory essay written by John Fosse, Best European Fiction 2016 is another essential report on the state of global literature in the twenty-first century.

"A scorching debut novel that is sure to become an essential companion to Camus's masterpiece."

–THE ECONOMIST

"The premise is ingenious: that The Stranger, about the murder of an unnamed Arab on an Algiers beach, was a true story… Meursault is less a critique of The Stranger than its postcolonial sequel."

–THE NEW YORK TIMES MAGAZINE

"Daoud's book stands Camus on his head… What makes Daoud's book so good is that, steeped in independent thinking, it offers an illuminating, if controversial portrait of today's Algeria."

–FRESH AIR, NPR

"More than a mere reimagining of the primary text, The Meursault Investigation is layered with allusions to Camus's life and his other work."

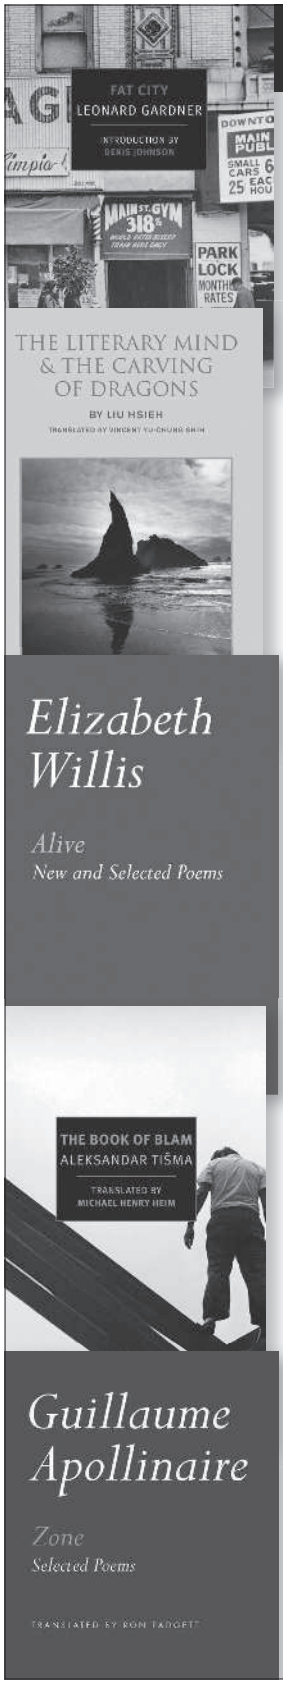

–THE WASHINGTON POST

"An intricately layered tale that not only makes us reassess Camus's novel but also nudges us into a contemplation of the ways in which language and perspective can radically alter a seemingly simple story and the social and philosophical shadows it casts backward and forward."

–Michiko Kakutani, THE NEW YORK TIMES

The Noble Flame of Katherine Philips

A Poetics of Culture, Politics, and Friendship

Edited by David L. Orvis and Ryan Singh Paul

With the present surge in interest in women's writing, critics have begun to rediscover the importance of Katherine Philips's poems and translations. This first scholarly collection devoted solely to the poetry of Philips is an important milestone, not only in the continuing recovery of Philips's reputation, but in our understanding of her influence in the literary circles of the seventeenth century.

John Donne and Early Modern Legal Culture

The End of Equity in the Satyres

Gregory Kneidel

Though law and satire share essential elements — both aim to correct individual vice, to promote justice, and to claim authority amid competing perspectives — their commonality has gone largely unexplored by both legal theorists and literary critics. Gregory Kneidel, taking John Donne's mid-1590s Saytres as his test case, finds that just such an exploration leads to fascinating new insights for both fields of study.

Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry: A Postdoctoral Program in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Washington University announces the sixteenth year of Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry, a postdoctoral fellowship program endowed by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and designed to encourage interdisciplinary scholarship and teaching across the humanities and social sciences. We invite applications from recent PhDs, DPhils, or D.F.As (in hand by June 30, 2016 and, no earlier than June 30, 2011) for a position as Fellow. In September 2016, the two newly selected Fellows will join the University's ongoing interdisciplinary programs and seminars. The Fellow will receive a two-year appointment with a nine-month academic year salary beginning at $52,575 per year. Postdoctoral Fellows pursue their own continuing research in association with a senior faculty mentor at Washington University. Over the course of their two-year appointment, they will also teach three undergraduate courses and collaborate in leading an interdisciplinary seminar on theory and methods for advanced undergraduates and beginning graduate students in the humanities and interpretive social sciences.

Applicants should submit, through Interfolio, a cover letter, a description of their research program (no more than 1800 words), a brief proposal for an interdisciplinary seminar in theory and methods, and a curriculum vitae. Applicants who have not completed their doctoral work should indicate, in their cover letter, how many chapters of their dissertation are complete and how complete the remaining chapters are. Applicants should also arrange for the submission of three confidential letters of recommendation, also via Interfolio. Further information on Modeling Interdisciplinary Inquiry is available on the web at http://mii.wustl.edu/. Please email us at mii@wustl.edu with additional questions.

Submit materials to Interfolio at the following link by December 4, 2015. apply.interfolio.com/30137

West Virginia University
PhD in English

West Virginia University invites applications to the Ph.D. program in English. We offer the opportunity to work in American Literature, British Literature, Cultural Studies, Literary Theory and Criticism, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Transnational and Multiethnic Literature, Composition and Rhetoric, and the History and Structure of the English Language, among other fields. Our strengths in American Studies, Cultural Studies, Ecocriticism, and Gender Studies are nationally recognized.

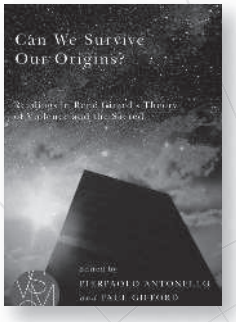

We are committed to funding all our doctoral students fully and at nationally competitive levels, with guaranteed five-year graduate teaching assistantships (G.T.A.s) and the opportunity for dissertation fellowships. Our small department size ensures dedicated mentoring and professional training by an internationally renowned faculty. Our training and support in the teaching of composition is among the most rigorous in the country; doctoral students also enjoy opportunities to teach a wide array of literature courses. Between 2005 and 2014, seventy-two percent of students who graduated from West Virginia University with a Ph.D. in English received tenure-track jobs.

West Virginia University is a Carnegie RU/H (Research University/high research activity) institution located in Morgantown, WV about seventy miles south of Pittsburgh, PA. The Department of English maintains graduate programs in Literature (M.A., Ph.D.), Creative Writing (M.F.A.), and Professional Writing and Editing (M.A., Ph.D.). We also house the Appalachian Prison Book Project, the Center for Literary Computing, the Center for Writing Excellence, and the internationally esteemed journal Victorian Poetry.

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

MA in Black British Writing

Goldsmiths, University of London

This pioneering Masters offers you a historicised engagement with the field of Black British writing in its broadest sense: tracing diasporic and aesthetic routes, investigating performance and poetics, and drawing on the expertise of literary, drama and theatre specialists.

A world first. Nowhere else can you study this field in such a richly, referenced way in the country where the writing is produced.

Inclusive. We welcome applications from a broad spectrum of people - those seeking academic careers, professionals who are returning to learning, and artists who wish to develop their analytic and critical thinking skills.

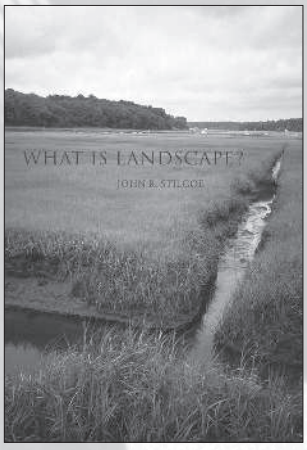

Connected. You will be taught in London by academics with well-established research profiles with publications and track records in convening public events in the field.

SYMPOSIUM
A Quarterly Journal in Modern Literatures

Executive Editor
Amy S. Wyngaard
Syracuse University

HAROLD G. JONES AWARDS FOR BEST ESSAY

The Symposium editorial board is pleased to announce the creation of the Harold G. Jones Awards for Best Essay. Symposium will be awarding $1,000 prizes at the 2018 MLA Convention for the best essays published in the journal from 2015 to 2017. Three awards will be given, one in each of the following categories: graduate student, junior scholar (i.e., assistant professor), senior scholar (i.e., associate and full professor). Questions about the awards or submissions can be addressed to Editor Amy S. Wyngaard at symplit@syr.edu.

Symposium is a quarterly journal of criticism in modern literatures originating in languages other than English. Founded in 1946, the journal is housed in the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics at Syracuse University. Scholars of literature will find research on authors, themes, periods, genres, works, and theory, often through comparative or interdisciplinary studies.

For information on manuscript submission, and access to free articles visit the journal website at www.tandfonline.com/VSYM

History of Medicine Online Program

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE OF THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE has long been committed to making the histories of health, healing, the biomedical sciences, and public health accessible to a wide variety of audiences. We are now excited to extend that mission beyond our Baltimore Campus.

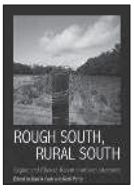

The Department has launched a suite of new graduate-level online courses. Students may take individual courses or pursue a Certificate or Master's degree in the History of Medicine. Online students can work from anywhere on their own computers and mobile devices. Classes are small and discussion-based including live online sessions, and are taught on the quarter system (8 weeks per course). Registration for Spring 2016, Terms 3 and 4 is currently open.

Future course offerings include:

~ Introduction to the History of Medicine
~ Health and Healing in the Ancient World
~ Medicine from the Black Death to the Scientific Revolution
~ Science and the Practice of Medicine
~ Biomedicine and its Consequences
~ History of Public Health
~ History of Global Health

"Animatedly, energetically, enthusiastically, and vigorously recommended . . . it should serve as a model for bringing a printed reference online."
—Library Journal

Updated regularly, the Literary Research Guide is a selective, annotated guide to reference sources essential to the study of British literature, literatures of the United States, other literatures in English, and related topics.

The annotations for each work

- describe its type, scope, major limitations, and organization
- evaluate coverage, organization, and accuracy
- explain its uses in research
- note related works, including ones not accorded separate entries in the Guide

Entries can be looked up in WorldCat and Google Books, and the Guide offers flexible search options.

Line by Line

How to Edit Your Own Writing

CLAIRE KEHRWALD COOK

This clearly written book shows the techniques professional editors use to revise flawed prose. It contains a glossary of usages (e.g., comprise vs. compose).

"Line by Line . . . encourages and facilitates a precision in English syntax and usage that will add force to the work of any writer."

APPROACHES TO TEACHING WORLD LITERATURE

Now more than one hundred volumes, the MLA's popular Approaches to Teaching World Literature series addresses a broad range of literary texts. Each volume surveys teaching aids and critical material and brings together essays that apply a variety of perspectives to the teaching of the text. In these essays, experienced teachers discuss approaches and methods of presentation that they have found effective in keeping classroom discussions lively.

Unless otherwise noted, each volume is available in a cloth edition for $37.50 (MLA members $26.25) and in a paper edition for $19.75 (MLA members $13.83).

CORE: Give your work a wider audience.

commons.mla.org/core

What is CORE?

In early May 2015, the MLA released the beta version of the Commons Open Repository Exchange, a digital repository for members. CORE combines a library-quality repository for sharing, discovering, retrieving, and archiving scholarly work with the social networking capabilities of MLA Commons. Explore it for yourself at commons.mla.org/core

Why should I deposit my work with CORE?

- Depositing your work with a repository ensures that it is archived and attributed to you and makes it quickly and widely available to others.
- Works deposited with CORE are automatically given a permanent identifier called a DOI. DOIs provide persistent, citable metadata for scholarly and creative works, including gray literature such as blog posts, syllabi, data sets, presentations, and video and audio files.
- Since you can associate items you deposit with MLA forums, CORE offers the added advantage of sharing your work with an immediate audience of scholars in your field.

What kinds of items can I deposit with CORE?

- articles
- books
- code or software
- conference presentations
- course materials
- data sets
- dissertations
- fictional works
- images
- interviews
- maps
- music
- reports
- reviews
- translations
- and more!
