Art from Africa

Long Steps Never Broke a Back

Pamela McClusky

With a contribution by Robert Farris Thompson

This strikingly unusual and beautifully illustrated book represents a turning point in African art history. The authors present twelve "case histories" of objects—or clusters of objects—in the Seattle Art Museum's renowned collection of African art. Each case history is enriched by comments that guide readers back into the markets, palaces, ceremonies, shrines, and streets where African art originated.

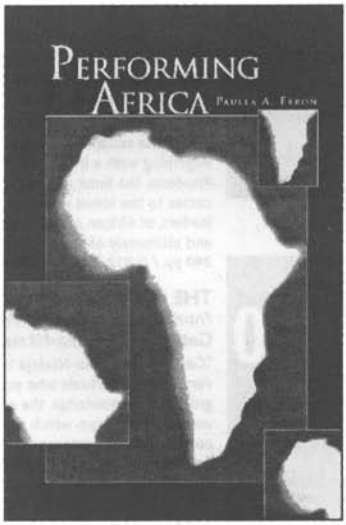

Published in association with the Seattle Art Museum
304 pages. 189 color plates. 50 halftones. 8 1/2 x 10 1/2.
Paper $35.00 ISBN 0-691-09295-8
Cloth $49.95 ISBN 0-691-09275-3

Performing Africa

Paulla A. Ebron

The jali—a member of a hereditary group of Mandinka professional performers—is a charismatic but contradictory figure. He is at once the repository of his people's history, the voice of contemporary political authority, the inspiration for African American dreams of an African homeland, and the chief entertainment for the burgeoning transnational tourist industry. This book shows how the jali's talents at performance make him a genius at representation—the ideal figure to tell us about the "Africa" that the world imagines.
