Academia Europaea
The Academy of Europe

Presentation of the Academia Europaea Erasmus Medal
On Wednesday 23 October 2019, at the Atenau of Barcelona

The Academia Europaea is pleased to award an Erasmus Medal to the internationally renowned Professor of Media and Communications at the London School of Economics

Professor Sonia Livingstone MAE

The medal is awarded on the recommendation of an independent search committee of the Council, to a member who has maintained, over a sustained period, the highest level of international scholarship and recognition by peers.

The Award is sponsored by

Heinz Nixdorf Stiftung

https://doi.org/10.1017/S1062798720001398 Published online by Cambridge University Press

The Heinz Nixdorf Stiftung Westfalen is one of two non-profit foundations that have been established from the assets of the estate of the entrepreneur Heinz Nixdorf, who died in 1986. The foundation promotes the following:

a) advanced professional education, especially in the field of modern technology,

b) sciences in respect of research and teaching, especially in the field of information technology,

c) liberal and democratic governmental systems, especially the Soziale Marktwirtschaft,

d) public health,

e) sports.

The foundation realizes its purposes primarily in cooperation with other non-profit institutions.

The Heinz Nixdorf Stiftung promotes, among others, the Heinz Nixdorf Museums Forum in Paderborn. This is a non-profit institution combining in a unique way the classic historic dimensions of a museum with the current and future-oriented topics of a forum.

The Heinz Nixdorf MuseumsForum is the largest computer museum in the world.

Further information about the Heinz Nixdorf Stiftung can be found at:

http://www.heinz-nixdorf-stiftung.de

https://doi.org/10.1017/S1062798720001398 Published online by Cambridge University Press