HEGEL BULLETIN

Editorial Policy

The Hegel Bulletin is a leading English language journal for anyone interested in Hegel's thought, its context, legacy and contemporary relevance. Our aim is to promote high quality contributions in the field of Hegel studies. The field is broadly construed to include all aspects of Hegel's thought, and its relation and relevance to the history of philosophy; Hegelian contributions to all aspects of current philosophical enquiry, including the modern European and analytic philosophical traditions; German Idealism, British Idealism, Marx and Marxism, Critical Theory, American Pragmatism; studies in the reception history of Hegel and German Idealism.

Articles: please submit articles via https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/hegel. Further information and instructions for contributors are available at https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/hegel-bulletin. The Bulletin is a peer-reviewed journal and accepts articles in English. However, in line with our international strategy, we consider translated articles written originally in other languages. Articles sent for consideration must be anonymised for double-blind review.

Books: please send books for review to the reviews editor, Dr Susanne Herrmann-Sinai, Faculty of Philosophy, Radcliffe Humanities, Radcliffe Observatory Quarter, Woodstock Road, Oxford, OX2 6GG, United Kingdom, hegelbulletin.reviews@gmail.com
