Section 1 The Physiology of Rhythm 1

1 Body-Grounded Speech Rhythm: Ubiquitous Interactions between Speech, Breathing, and Limb Movements 3
Hélène Serré and Amélie Rochet-Capellan

2 Jaw-Opening Patterns and Their Correspondence with Syllable Stress Patterns 21
Donna Erickson, Malin Svensson Lundmark, and Ting Huang

3 Region-Specific Endogenous Brain Rhythms and Their Role for Speech and Language 44
Johanna M. Rimmele and Anne Keitel

4 The Sensorimotor Account of Multimodal Prosody 65
Jacob P. Momsen and Seana Coulson

5 Evaluating Neural Tracking of Rhythmic Information in Speech: Some Caveats and Challenges 84
Véronique Boulenger

6 Speech Rhythm in the Perception–Action Cycle 103
Laura Verga, Sonja A. Kotz, and Michael Schwartze

7 A Road to a Better Understanding of Rhythms in Speech Using a Comparative Approach 115
Lara S. Burchardt and Susanne Fuchs

Published online by Cambridge University Press

Section 2 Acoustic and Sublexical Rhythms 129

8 A Polychromatic Portrait of Speech Rhythm 131
Steven Greenberg

9 Rhythms of Phones, Syllables, and Words in Connected Speech 147
Yuran Zhang, Jiajie Zou, and Nai Ding

10 Linguistic Factors Affecting Amplitude Modulation Spectra 158
Bettina Braun

11 The P-Center Effect and the Domain of Beat Perception in Speech 171
Tamara Rathcke

12 Adaptive Pacing in Word Segmentation and the Vowel-Onset Paced Syllable Inference Model 183
Ben Pittman-Polletta and Laura Dilley

13 Beyond Acoustics: Capacity Limitations of Linguistic Levels 214
Jérémy Giroud and Benjamin Morillon

14 Rhythm Is a Timescale 230
Aviad Albert and Martine Grice

Section 3 Rhythm in Prosody and at the Prosody–Syntax Interface 253

15 Intonation Units: Prosodic Regularity in Spontaneous Speech as a Window onto Cognitive Dynamics 255
Maya Inbar, Eitan Grossman, and Ayelet N. Landau

16 Phrasal Rhythmicity and the Sources of Temporal Intermittency in Speech 274
Sam Tilsen

17 Prosody versus Syntax, or Prosody and Syntax? Evaluating Accounts of Delta-Band Tracking 296
Cas W. Coopmans and Andrea E. Martin

18 Cognitive and Neural Constraints on Timing and Rhythm in Language 316
Lena Henke, Eleonora Beier, Mikael Roll, and Lars Meyer

19 Shaping Rhythm to Keep Balance: The Structural Implications of Temporal Modulation 332
Nino Grillo, Andrea Santi, and Giuseppina Turco

Published online by Cambridge University Press

20 The Hierarchical Temporal Structure of Prosody 355
Christopher T. Kello

21 Preserving Prosody in Temporal Distortions of Speech 367
Alistair Beith, Dale Barr, and Rachel Smith

22 Rhythmic Alternation and Balance: A New Metric 383
Isabelle Franz

Section 4 Diversity of Rhythm from Oral Speech to Music 403

23 Time, Cohesion, Style: Rhythm Formants in Oral Narrative 405
Dafydd Gibbon

24 Time to Pop the Cork? The Cork Exercise and Its Effects on Rhythm and Melody in a Public Speaker's Presentation Task 428
Oliver Niebuhr, Nafiseh Taghva, and Malin Svensson Lundmark

25 Rhythmic Stimulation of Linguistic Performance: A Common Structure? 457
Dávid György, Douglas Saddy, Sonja A. Kotz, and Julie Franck

26 Characterizing Rhythmic Regularity in Speech and Song 471
Meyha Chhatwal, Selina Sabetti-Franklin, and Christina Vanden Bosch der Nederlanden

27 Beats in Time across Music and Language 489
Uli Reich and Martin Rohrmeier

28 Shared Mechanisms for the Processing of Rhythm in Music and Speech 511
Anna Fiveash and Barbara Tillmann

29 Interaction Phonology: Rhythmic Coordination as Scaffold for Communicative Alignment 533
Petra Wagner

Section 5 Rhythm across Languages 551

30 Duration-Based and Acoustic Speech Rhythm Metrics 553
Robert Fuchs

31 The Role of Prosodic Durational Variation in the Temporal Coordination of Utterances 566
Saleh Ghadanfari and Laurence White

Published online by Cambridge University Press

32 Individual and Language Differences in Rhythm Grouping Preferences: The Iambic–Trochaic Law Revisited 578
Amalia Arvaniti and Hae-Sung Jeon

33 Cross-Linguistic Consistency of Speech Rhythms and Pending Questions: Evidence from Bilingual and Second-Language Speakers 597
Sha Liu

34 Revisiting Rhythm in Romance Languages 610
Camila Barros, Uli Reich, and Andreas Dufter

Section 6 Rhythm in Language Acquisition 627

35 Rhythm and Language Acquisition: A Temporal Sampling Perspective 629
Usha Goswami

36 Neural and Behavioural Rhythmic Tracking during Language Acquisition: Findings, Methods, and Outstanding Issues 645
Kanad N. Mandke and Sinead Rocha

37 Maturational Constraints on Tracking of Temporal Attention in Infant Language Acquisition 664
Tineke M. Snijders and Katharina H. Menn

38 Rhythmic Structure in Cross-Modal Infant-Directed Communication 687
Marina Kalashnikova, Laura Fernández-Merino, and Sofia Russo

39 Prosody as an Entry Point into Language Structure in Early Language Acquisition 707
Guro Stensby Sjuls, Mila Dimitrova Vulchanova, and Judit Gervain

40 Acquisition of Similar versus Different Speech Rhythmic Class 716
Ratree Wayland, Kevin Tang, and Rahul Sengupta

41 Speech Rhythms and Pupil Size 728
Alan Langus, Mireia Marimon, and Barbara Höhle

Section 7 Rhythm in Speech and Language Disabilities 741

42 Speech Rhythm in Hearing Loss and Cochlear Implant Listening 743
Alexis Deighton MacIntyre

43 Melodic Intonation Therapy: The Ingredients That Make It Work 766
Lauryn Zipse

Published online by Cambridge University Press

44 Phonetic Adaptation and Rhythmic Entrainment in Interactive Language Use: Neural Mechanisms and Evidence from Individuals with Neurological Disorders 785
Wolfram Ziegler and Ingrid Aichert

45 Rhythmic Processes in Stuttering and Parkinson's Disease 801
Simone Dalla Bella and Simone Falk

46 Speech Rhythm in Stuttering: Perception and Production 818
Michela Russo and Fabrice Hirsch

47 Conversational Rhythmic-Prosodic Entrainment in Autism 855
Heike Lehnert-LeHouillier, Hasan Al-Shammari, and Steven Sandoval
