Biography

Steve Mishkin had a twenty year teaching career working as Head of History and Head of Year before deciding to move into a new occupation and becoming an information professional. He studied MSc Information Science at City University and gained his first professional role at Shearman and Sterling as part of their internship programme. Following graduation, he worked as an Information Officer at Norton Rose Fulbright. Steve currently works at Allen & Overy, in the International Capital Markets Library, embedded within the ICM Know How and Training Team.
