Support Open Access to Linguistics Journals!

Consider making a matching contribution to the LSA's Open Access Publications Fund today.

All donations made in 2021, up to a maximum of $10,000, will be matched by LSA Fellow Heidi Harley and former LSA President Steve Anderson.

- Did you know that Language has been open access since 2013? All Language content is freely available to any reader on the LSA website after one year, with selected content available immediately.
- Did you know that the LSA publishes two other OA journals, Semantics & Pragmatics and Phonological Data & Analysis, using a platinum open access model?
- The LSA also publishes three linguistics conference proceedings, SALT, AMP, and PLSA, and hosts the archives for BLS, all of which are freely available online.

This is made possible by the generosity of donors to the Open Access Publications Fund, and the dues payments of LSA members like you.
