LAW & SOCIETY REVIEW
FIFTH ISSUE

POLICY

The Law & Society Review—Fifth Issue commissions review essays by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars that bear on literature referring to the relationship between society and the legal process. The Fifth Issue also welcomes unsolicited reviews, although authors should realize that the editor may have already commissioned a review. Persons wishing either to write reviews or to submit manuscripts are urged to contact the editor. The Fifth Issue is published by the Law and Society Association, an international group drawn primarily from the legal and social science professions, whose purpose is the stimulation and support of research and teaching on the cultural, economic, political, psychological, historical, and social aspects of law and the legal system.

MEMBERSHIPS

Members of the Law and Society Association receive the Review as a perquisite of membership. Dues in the Association are:

Student (nonvoting)	$10.00	Contributing	$ 50.00
