CATHOLIC RECORD SOCIETY

The Catholic Record Society was founded in 1904 to make available the material necessary for the study of the Roman Catholic history of England and Wales since the Reformation. Recusant History is the journal of the Society. In addition, the Society has so far published some seventy volumes of Records and Monographs. The Records Series comprises transcripts of a wide variety of original documents, e.g. diaries, letters and biographies; legal, court and official papers; and records of old Catholic missions, seminaries, colleges and convents. In the Monograph series, well-known scholars present original historical analyses of Catholic recusancy over a prolonged period in a particular area. The unique collection of primary source material contained in these publications is indispensable to local and family historians and to all those engaged in the political, diplomatic and social history of these islands. The Society also holds an annual conference at Oxford.

Membership of the Society may be obtained by subscribing either to Recusant History or to the Records and Monograph series, or both. All members are invited to the annual conference. Application should be made to the Membership Secretary:
