EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN LINGUISTICS

In posting the job announcements below, we remind readers that job discrimination is illegal. The Linguistic Society of America thus retains the right to refuse or edit all discriminatory statements from copy sent to the Secretariat for publication in Language that are not in consonance with the principles of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The Executive Committee of the LSA hopes that all the job announcements will facilitate open hiring on the basis of merit to the advantage of all.

The LSA accepts listings from academic institutions under censure by the American Association of University Professors (AAUP). However, these listings are identified in this publication by (*) preceding position openings in order to advise applicants that the employing institution or its administration has been censured by the AAUP and that further information may be obtained on the situation from the AAUP.

MISSION: TRANSLATION IN DEFENSE OF THE NATION.

Become a Central Intelligence Agency NCS Language Officer. Do more than translate. Discover the truth. Use your foreign language skills to help keep America safe. It's about interpreting nuances and conveying cultural insights for meaningful intelligence acquisition.

Applicants must have the ability to successfully complete medical examinations and security procedures, including a polygraph interview.

For additional information and to apply, visit: www.cia.gov.

An equal opportunity employer and a drug-free workforce. US citizenship required.

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

LANGUAGE, a journal of the Linguistic Society of America, carries technical articles dealing with problems of linguistic science, reviews of recently published linguistic works, and notes of interest to professional linguists.

MANUSCRIPTS for publication should be submitted to the online portal at http://journals.linguisticsociety.org/language, where submission guidelines and Society membership requirements can be found. BOOKS for review should be sent to the Review Editor of LANGUAGE (Helen Goodluck, Department of Language and Linguistic Science, University of York, Heslington, York, YO10 5DD, United Kingdom; lang525@york.ac.uk). Normally at least one author of any article or review article submitted to LANGUAGE must be a member of the Society.

Manuscript form. Authors of articles submitted to LANGUAGE are not required to follow the LANGUAGE style sheet in preparing their manuscripts for initial submission to LANGUAGE. There is no restriction on the format of manuscripts, although authors should make their submissions as reader-friendly as possible. Any manuscript, however, that has been accepted for publication as an article will have to be revised so as to conform strictly to the LANGUAGE style sheet. For the complete style sheet, see the LANGUAGE web page at http://www.linguisticsociety.org/files/stylesheet.pdf, or write to the editors. Please see the 'Notes to Contributors' on the LANGUAGE website for more information about the submission process (http://www.linguisticsociety.org/lsa-publications/language/notes-to-contributors).

This policy does not apply to book reviews. These are solicited by the Review Editor and they must adhere as closely as possible to the LANGUAGE style sheet on first submission.
