THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association (based in the UK) has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the history, civilisations, languages, art, material culture and legacy of ancient Greece and Rome and the broader ancient Mediterranean. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among Classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports Classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country, which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

Classical Association members benefit from the members-only programme of events, two issues of Omnibus magazine each year, e-news and member updates, and access to the Combined Library of the Institute of Classical Studies and the Hellenic and Roman Societies in London. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals The Classical Quarterly, The Classical Review and Greece & Rome. The Journal of Classics Teaching is freely available online.

For more information about membership please see the Classical Association's website: https://classicalassociation.org/ or contact the office at The Classical Association, 34 iMex Centre, 575-599 Maxted Rd, Hemel Hempstead, HP2 7DX, UK +44(0)7926 632598, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org.

THE CLASSICAL REVIEW

The Classical Review publishes informative reviews and review articles from leading scholars on new work covering the languages, literature, history, archaeology, philosophy and reception of ancient Greece and Rome and Asia Minor. Producing hundreds of high-quality reviews every year, The Classical Review is an indispensable reference tool, essential for keeping abreast with current classical scholarship.
