

Crime, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice in Europe

A Collection in Honour of Prof. em. dr. dr. h.c. Cyrille Fijnaut

Edited by Hans-Jörg Albrecht and André Klip

This unique collection of essays celebrates the twentieth anniversary of the seminal journal the European Journal of Crime, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice, as well as the outstanding and uninterrupted work over that period of its founding Editor-in-Chief, Professor Cyrille Fijnaut. The volume consists of a selection of some of the most ground-breaking articles published over the past twenty years, covering the three areas of focus of the journal: problems of crime, developments in criminal law and changes in criminal justice.

Regulatory Hybridization in the Transnational Sphere

This book examines hybridization as a defining phenomenon of regulatory frameworks in the transnational sphere. The contributions illustrate that globalization contributes to blurring the distinctions between national and international, public and private law; and that hybridization therefore necessitates a rethinking of fundamental legal concepts.

Plural Diplomacies

Normative Predicaments and Functional Imperatives

Noé Cornago

In Plural Diplomacies: Normative Predicaments and Functional Imperatives, Noé Cornago asserts the need to restore the long-interrupted continuity between the relevance of diplomacy as raison de système - in a world which is much more than a world of States - and its unique value as a way to mediate the many alienations experienced by individuals and social groups.

The Interpretation of International Investment Law

Equality, Discrimination and Minimum Standards of Treatment in Historical Context

Todd Weiler

In this book, author Todd Weiler demonstrates how historiographical analysis should be adopted in the interpretation of international investment law obligations. Weiler subjects some of the most commonly held beliefs about the nature and development of international investment law to a critical re-appraisal, based upon meticulously assembled historical record. In the process, the book provides readers with a fresh perspective on some of the oldest obligations in international law.

Islam and International Law

Engaging Self-Centrism from a Plurality of Perspectives

Islam and International Law explores the multi-faceted relationship of Islam and international law. Current debates on Sharia, Islam and the "West" often suffer from prejudice and platitudes. The book seeks to engage such self-centrism by providing a plurality of perspectives, both in terms of interdisciplinary research and geographic backgrounds.

Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation

The Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation was established by the American Society of International (ASIL) to serve as an education and research forum for individuals interested in international dispute resolution. Building on the Society's recognized expertise in this growing field, the Center will serve as an indispensable research and education resource, providing cutting-edge, expert information and analysis on significant issues and current developments in the international arbitration field. Center activities will include:

- Collection of research materials on international arbitration, including Judge Holtzmann's personal library and papers;
- A regular program of events, including a speaker series with leading figures and continuing legal education courses on hot topics in the field; and
- Working groups and task forces convened to address the key challenges and emerging issues relating to international arbitration.

The Center is conveniently located at the Society's headquarters and is open to everyone interested in learning more about international arbitration and conciliation.

For more information about the Center and its upcoming programs, please contact Holtzmann Center Director Djurdja Lazic, dlazic@asil.org.

The ASIL Holtzmann Center is established in honor of Judge Howard M. Holtzmann. Over the course of his career, Judge Holtzmann has made enormous contributions to the field of international arbitration and conciliation, and mentored scores of young lawyers working in the field. He was central to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) work with the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce to build an East-West bridge through international arbitration. Notable achievements include: service as a member of the U.S. delegation to the Arbitration Working Group of the UN Commission on International Trade Law (1974-2011), which produced the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules, and the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, and service as a Member of the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal (1981-1994). For his pioneering work, the King of Sweden inducted Judge Holtzmann as a Commander of the Royal Order of the Polar Star in 2003. In 2005, he received the Silver Medal of Honor of Vienna, and in 2006, the AAA gave him its highest honor, the Peacemaker Award, for his "work to further peace throughout the world." Judge Holtzmann has been a member of ASIL since 1972.
